DEPARTMENT OF THE ENVIRONMENT

NEW TOWNS ACT 1965

The New Town of Telford Extinguishment of Public Rights of Way, Naird Lane, Telford

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of State for the Environment, in exercise of his powers under section 23 of the New Towns Act 1965, has made an Order extinguishing from the date of the Order the public rights of way over the following route shown coloured red on the map referred to therein:

That part of Naird Lane starting from a point marked 'A' on the map approximately 114 metres south of Naird Lane Railway Bridge and running in a southerly direction for a distance of approximately 345 metres to a point marked 'B' on the map adjacent to Naird Farm.

The closure of this length of highway is required in connection with the construction of the Randlay to Castle Farm Link Road which will connect to the proposed M54 motorway.

An alternative route for motor vehicles, shown coloured green on the map, will be provided to the east of the current Naird Lane alignment and pass via the proposed Naird Lane Roundabout. Another alternative route, shown coloured blue on the map, will be available for pedestrians and cyclists along the alignment of Naird Lane via an overbridge.

The Order is dated 18th May 1981, and a copy of it and of the map referred to in it may be inspected at the offices of the Telford Development Corporation, Priorslee Hall, Telford, Shropshire during normal office hours.

M. Richardson, an Under Secretary in the Department of the Environment.
