HOME OFFICE

Queen Anne's Gate, London S.W.1

The following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty at Buckingham Palace on Tuesday, 14th July:

THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

To The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty

We, Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Archbishops, Bishops, Clergy and Laity of the Church of England assembled in General Synod approach Your Majesty with the dutiful assurance of our devotion to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

We desire to express to Your Majesty our happiness in the forthcoming marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to the Lady Diana Spencer and to offer our warm and loyal congratulations upon an event so important to Your Majesty and to all Your devoted subjects.

Eight months ago Your Majesty was pleased to inaugurate the Third General Synod and in Your Gracious address to us bade us to approach our debates with a spirit of joy. Your Majesty's announcement in February of the engagement of His Royal Highness to the Lady Diana Spencer of which we received news while in session could only serve to increase that joyous spirit which You had earlier commended to us, especially since at that time we were debating how best the Church should exercise and extend its support for the institution of marriage.

The occasion of the wedding of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales and the Lady Diana Spencer enables us to give thanks for the witness and example set by Your Majesty and his Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh and for the encouragement You and he have given to all those who seek to uphold Christian marriage and to maintain and secure family life.

We trust that through Your Majesty we may be allowed to offer to the Prince of Wales and to his future wife our sincerest good wishes; and it is the prayer of us all that God may grant them grace and strength to fulfil their mutual vows with ever increasing depth of union and joy in Him.

We pray that the blessing of Almighty God may rest always upon Your Majesty, upon the Duke of Edinburgh and upon all Your Royal Family.

Robert Cantuan, President
Stuart Ebon, President
R. D. Silk, Prolocutor
P. H. Boulton, Prolocutor
O. W. H. Clark, Chairman, House of Laity
J. D. McClean, Vice Chairman, House of Laity
W. D. Pattinson, Secretary General
B. J. T. Hanson, Registrar

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

It is with special pleasure that I receive this Loyal Address from the General Synod upon the approaching marriage of The Prince of Wales and the Lady Diana Spencer.

I thank you with all my heart for your congratulations and good wishes and deeply appreciate your constant support and prayers for myself, Prince Philip, and all the Royal Family.

I am ever conscious of my good fortune in having been blessed with a very happy marriage and a united loving family. It is my earnest prayer that by God's grace my dear son and his future wife will also be equally blessed.

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, ask leave to address to Your Majesty and to His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh our warmest congratulations on the engagement of His Royal Highness The Prince Charles, Prince of Wales, to the Lady Diana Spencer, and we venture also to offer to them both our most sincere good wishes for a long and happy life together.

It is with gratification that we in Oxford recall that Prince Charles knows our University and College system from his own experience, being a Graduate of our sister University and distinguished by the academic honours he gained there as a Member of Trinity College. It gives us great pleasure that among the many calls on his time he has found it possible to engage on a course of study leading to a university degree. We hope that we shall before long be privileged to greet him in Oxford and to confer on him a Degree by Diploma; and we particularly hope that his Bride may be able to accompany him on the occasion of his visit.

We pray that Almighty God may bless their union as He has blessed that of Your Majesty and His Royal Highness. They will derive, as do all Your subjects, encouragement and strength from the example You have set, and it is our prayer that this example will long be preserved to them and to the whole Commonwealth.

Given in the University of Oxford under our Common Seal on 30th June 1981.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

We thank you sincerely for the warmth of your regard for our dear son and your congratulations and good wishes upon his approaching marriage to the Lady Diana Spencer.

THE RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

May it please The Queen,

As representatives of the Religious Society of Friends, commonly called Quakers, we wish to offer our good wishes on the occasion of the engagement of The Prince of Wales and the Lady Diana Spencer.

We welcome the start of a new marriage, and are grateful for the example You and Your husband have given of a sustaining, loving partnership in a world of changing values. You have emphasised the need to extend the concept of family beyond the immediate circle of relatives, and we share with You this sense of involvement with all people.

All parents hope that succeeding generations will inherit a more peaceful world. But dependence on armaments and the risk of nuclear war threaten its very existence. Great inequalities in the distribution of resources create hunger, poverty, anger and despair. At home community tensions deepen and unemployment undervalues so many people. These things challenge us to work for greater justice and equity, without which true peace cannot exist. We believe that the human spirit which is responsive to the leadings of God can discover new hope even in the most difficult circumstances and can inspire creative action.

Throughout their lives, Your son and his wife will have an important contribution to make.

Already The Prince of Wales has travelled widely and come to know personally many parts of the world family. He has shown awareness of the contribution that appropriate technology can offer, and much concern for the needs of young people. The Lady Diana has knowledge of the stability and stimulation needed for the well-being and development of children.

It is our hope that out of the strength and happiness of an abiding love and commitment, they will be led to encourage imaginatively the ways of peace; continue to be courageous in testifying to the rightness of a proper sharing of the world's resources; and that at all times they will seek the will of God for all humanity.

We pray that God's blessing may rest upon them both.

Signed on behalf of the Meeting for Sufferings, the standing representative committee of the Religious Society of Friends in Great Britain:

Christopher B. Jennings, Clerk

July 1981.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

I thank the Religious Society of Friends for their good wishes on the occasion of the engagement of The Prince of Wales.

I am most grateful for your kind references to my husband and myself. We share your prayers that with God's blessing, the marriage of our dear son and the Lady Diana Spencer will like ours, be a very happy one and support them in their future work.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

To The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty

Most Gracious Sovereign,

May it please Your Majesty,

We, The Chancellor, Court, Senate, Teachers, Graduates and Students of the University of London, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, widely drawn from the length and breadth of Your Realm, beg leave to express to Your Majesty and to His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh our heartfelt congratulations on the betrothal and approaching marriage of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales to the Lady Diana Spencer.

Our joy and pleasure at this news is compounded by its coincidence in time with the election of Her Royal Highness The Princess Anne as our Chancellor, in succession to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, so greatly beloved throughout the University, who has brought so much happiness to us all by Her gracious fulfilment of the duties of that office. We look forward to similar good fortune under the guidance of Her Royal Highness The Princess Anne.

We note with pride that His Royal Highness The Prince Charles honoured us by accepting the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, from this University in 1974, thus strengthening our treasured link with Your Illustrious House. The more, therefore, do we share the universal rejoicing that has manifested itself throughout Your Kingdom and Your Commonwealth at his betrothal. We see in him a young man of infinite promise and already of great achievement, prepared to undertake, with seriousness and yet with the lightest of touches, his role in this country's destiny; and we rejoice that he has chosen as his Consort one whose charm and unaffected grace have already won all hearts, whose concern for the young has earned her the respect as well as the affection of Your people. Your Majesty's own evident happiness is mirrored in that of the people of this country, and together these constitute the best possible auguries for a future which will carry on the tradition of dedicated service to the well-being of the nation which has ever been near to the heart of Your Majesty and of His Royal Highness The Prince Philip.

In sending these warm felicitations to His Royal Highness The Prince Charles and to his enchanting Consort-to-be, we earnestly pray that, as this University has benefited by Your benign Rule, so may this Nation flourish for many more years under Your continued Care; and we take pride in thus being privileged to express to You this our tribute of duty and devotion.

I am particularly gratified to receive this Loyal Address from the University of London with whose members my family and I are very happy to be associated. Prince Philip and I share your joy in the approaching marriage of our dear son to the Lady Diana Spencer and thank you most warmly for your congratulations and affectionate regard.

DEPUTATION FROM THE BOARD OF DEPUTIES OF BRITISH JEWS AND THE ANGLO-JEWISH ASSOCIATION

To The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We the Board of Deputies of British Jews, recorded as the London Committee of Deputies of the British Jews, the elected and representative body of the Jewish Community in the United Kingdom and the communities whom we represent, and we the Anglo-Jewish Association, for ourselves and for our membership, sincerely offer to Your Majesty and His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh our warmest congratulations on the felicitous occasion of the engagement of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales to the Lady Diana Spencer, to whom we wish many years of future happiness.

This auspicious and joyous occasion, which is known to be so pleasing to Your Majesty and His Royal Highness evokes universal pleasure in the hearts of all Your people, and these sentiments are deeply felt by Your Jewish subjects.

We again avail ourselves of the opportunity of assuring Your Majesty of our attachment to the Throne and our devoted loyalty towards the person and family of Your Majesty, and we pray that the Almighty may continue to give divine protection and the blessings of happiness and peace to Your Majesty and to Your Distinguished Consort His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh.

The Duke of Edinburgh and I share your wish that our dear son and his future wife will enjoy every happiness in their married life. We thank you for your congratulations and deeply appreciate the assurances of your continued attachment and devotion to our family.

DEAN AND CHAPTER OF WESTMINSTER ABBEY

To The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty

The Humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects express our delight and deep satisfaction at the engagement of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales to the Lady Diana Spencer. We wish them every blessing, happiness and fulfilment, and we are confident that through the grace of God their relationship of mutual trust and sacrificial self-giving will encourage the younger generation to build a world more compassionate and caring.

In wishing them well we express our gratitude for the unique contribution made by Your Majesty to the well-being of the Nation and Commonwealth at a time when social change and the weakening of older authorities have tended to erode domestic loyalties and a sense of belonging. The Royal Family has significantly provided a stabilising influence and example.

We are not unaware that the complexity of modern life has inevitably led to Government becoming more remote and impersonal. The Royal Family gives a human face to the historic identity of the nation, thus enabling it to evoke a truly moral and personal allegiance.

To advance the cause of "One People" in a society where many different faiths and cultures co-exist is now recognised as being every day more urgent. The leadership of Your Majesty in transcending such distinctions and in ministering to the common humanity which binds us together is, we hope, a happy augury of things to come and of the kind of world to which the best of our young people will increasingly desire to belong.

In a spirit of gratitude, and confident that the example Your Majesty has given will be followed by The Prince of Wales and his bride, we assure You that we share the joy, enthusiasm and eagerness with which the Nation awaits their marriage.

(Signed and sealed) Edward Carpenter, Dean

The Corporate Seal of the Dean and Chapter of Westminster was hereunto affixed by Chapter Order in the presence of:

The following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty at Windsor Castle on Monday, 27th July:

ROYAL BOROUGH OF WINDSOR AND MAIDENHEAD

To Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Second
Your Majesty,

It is our great privilege, on behalf of the citizens of the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead, to offer You and His Royal Highness, The Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, warmest congratulations and loyal good wishes on the betrothal of Your son, His Royal Highness, The Prince of Wales.

The announcement of the engagement of our High Steward was received by the people of the Royal Borough with extreme joy and pleasure and must have filled you both with enormous pride. Your Majesty's influence has always shown through the developing character of The Prince of Wales and, clearly, he has come to regard in high esteem the qualities of family life that derive from an exceedingly happy, united and loving upbringing.

Essentially a home loving person, Your eldest son has also developed strong principles and a keen sense of dedication and duty to the unique position he holds. He is greatly admired for the qualities of leadership he displays and has proved himself a most worthy ambassador on his extensive travels throughout the world. The courage and tenacity he has exhibited in already achieving many of life's goals clearly demonstrates his ability to fulfil the responsibilities he now intends to undertake.

Ma'am, Your son has shown characteristically good judgement in his choice of a future bride. The hearts of the people of the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead and, indeed, those throughout Great Britain and the Commonwealth, warmed instantly to her cheerful personality and obvious charm—she is, without doubt, a very special person. The Prince of Wales could not have chosen a more eminently suitable partner to fulfil the role of future bride, future Princess of Wales and, perhaps one day, future Queen.

The citizens of the Royal Borough join with You in wishing The Prince of Wales and the Lady Diana Spencer joy and happiness in their engagement.

Given under the common seal of the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead this twenty seventh day of July 1981.

Arthur L. Jacob, Mayor
G. B. Blacker, Chief Executive

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:

It is with great pleasure that Prince Philip and I receive these most cordial congratulations from the citizens of the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead on the betrothal of The Prince of Wales and the Lady Diana Spencer.

We are deeply moved by your eloquent and affectionate tributes to our dear son and his future wife and thank you sincerely for your wishes for their future happiness.

Having in mind that since the time of Edward the Black Prince the members of this College of Saint George have been under injunction to pray continually for the good estate of the Heir to the Throne, we pray now that His Royal Highness and the Lady Diana may be abundantly blessed in their marriage: that being made indeed no longer two but one flesh, each may support the other and each be to the other a minister of the love of Christ. May God our Father endue them with his heavenly grace, prosper them with all happiness, and bring them to his everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Michael Mann, Dean
Bryan Bentley, Canon

It is with pride, in the long and close association which this County has been privileged to enjoy with The Royal Family, that we share in the universal pleasure with which the announcement of the engagement has been received. It is our humble hope that the atmosphere of harmony, which has been aroused throughout the world at the prospect of the forthcoming wedding, will be reflected in some relaxation of the tensions with which the world is currently beset.
