

give notice that by virtue of the powers contained in the customs and excise Acts and any enactments amending those Acts, certain goods, namely:

One .22 Springfield rifle, model 86C, and 62 rounds of .22 ammunition, imported by you on or about 19th August 1979 at Plymouth, have been seized as liable to forfeiture upon the grounds that the said goods were imported contrary to the prohibition imposed by the Import of Goods (Control) Order 1954, as amended, made under the Import, Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act 1939.

Whereby and by force of section 3 (1) of the Import, Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act 1939 and section 49 (1) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979, the said goods are liable to forfeiture.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within one month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in accordance with the said Schedule to the said Act specifying the name and address of a solicitor in England and Wales who is authorised to accept service of process and to act on your behalf. In default of such notice the said goods will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited and will be liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may direct. If you make such claim within the time aforesaid, legal proceedings will be taken for the condemnation thereof.
