Whitehall, London SW1A 2HB

13th July 1982

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to approve the following award:

Queen's Commendation for Brave Conduct

J8171643 Senior Aircraftman Nicholas Paul HARRISON, Royal Air Force

On 5th November 1981, Senior Aircraftman Harrison, of RAF Catterick went to the aid of a colleague whose land-rover had collided head-on with a stationary fuel bowser and who appeared to be trapped in the cab of the burning vehicle. Having got his comrade clear of the burning vehicle on the second attempt, during which he received extensive burns to his own hands and arms, he then waded into a nearby river, into which his colleague had jumped and supported him in the water until an ambulance arrived. Despite the grave danger to himself and the great pain he was suffering, Senior Aircraftman Harrison displayed an outstanding sense of responsibility together with cool and sustained courage of the highest order and in total accord with the finest traditions of the Royal Air Force.
