SOCIAL SECURITY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

NOTICE OF SUBMISSION OF REQUEST TO CONSIDER AND REPORT UPON TIME LIMITS FOR RECEIVING SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS.

The Social Security Advisory Committee give notice that they have been asked by the Secretary of State for Social Services under section 9 of the Social Security Act 1980 to consider and advise within the following terms of reference:

"Taking into account the importance of keeping benefit and administration costs within present limits and the advantages of simplification of administration, to review the time limits for claiming benefits (other than industrial injuries benefits) under the Social Security and Child Benefit Acts, and to report."

A short explanatory note is appended to this notice. The Committee will consider representations on the subject received before 15th March 1983. Representations should be sent to Miss G. Moore, the Secretary, Social Security Advisory Committee, Room 458, New Court, Carey Street, London WC2A 2LS. A note setting out the present time limits may be obtained on request to J. F. Rutherford the Assistant Secretary of the Committee (01-831 6111 Ext. 2636, address as for the Secretary).

G. Moore, Secretary

Explanatory Note

The time limits for claiming these benefits have been amended from time to time following recommendations of the National Insurance Advisory Committee (which was succeeded by the SSAC in 1980). The current limits range from that for unemployment benefit, where the claim must be made on the day concerned, to that for child benefit, where a claim may be delayed for up to twelve months without penalty. Initial claims to incapacity benefits must be made within six days, while for long-term benefits such as retirement and widows' pensions the period allowed for claiming is three months. The claimant may be disqualified for receiving benefit if he does not lodge his claim within the prescribed period. For most benefits, however, the time for claiming can be extended if the claimant can show that he had good cause for the delay; but benefit cannot be backdated more than twelve months before the date of claim. Representations will be welcome from Northern Ireland where similar provisions apply.
