

of the Transactions in Pomerania, since the Invasion of that Country by the Kings of Poland and Denmark. They talk as if that General was to return into Poland very speedily, in order to undertake some Enterprize against the confederated Nobility of the Party of King Augustus: And our Advices from Bresslau say, that a Suedish Officer had lately pass'd through that Place in his way to Stockholm, with Letters from the King of Sweden to the Senate. They write from Berlin, that Monsieur Marshall is preparing to set out for the Court of Great Britain; and 'tis believ'd, that after he has finish'd his Negotiations there, he will go and reside at the Hague.

Turin, Nov. 28. N. S. The Duke of Savoy being resolv'd to rebuild his Palace at Rivoli, that was burn'd by Marechal Catinat the last War, has been treating about it with several Persons, who have undertaken to finish it according to the Plan agreed on, for One million four hundred thousand Livres. His Royal Highness has given Orders for Levelling a Hill which commands Suza, and designs to augment the Fortifications of that Place, Exilles, and other important Posts, the better to secure 'em from the Insults of the Enemy. They write from Genoa, that the British Fleet, with the Imperial Troops, sail'd from Vado the Twenty-seventh for Barcelona, where 'tis believ'd they are safely arriv'd, the Wind having continu'd fair.

Hague, Decemb. 18. N. S. The Night between the Tenth and Eleventh arriv'd a Courier with Dispatches from the Emperor to his Ministers residing here, the Contents of which have been communicated to the States-General. Monsieur Petkum, Envoy from the Duke of Holstein, is return'd from Amsterdam, where he has been for some time, and will go from hence to Frankfort, to wait upon his Imperial Majesty. Prince Kurakin and Monsieur Matueof, Ministers from his Czarish Majesty, have been lately in Conference with the Grand Pensionary. The Yachts on Board of which were Count Gallas, and the three Commissioners for Inspecting the British Troops in Spain, are arriv'd at Rotterdam.

The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs having receiv'd a Letter by the Penny-Post, mark'd W. P. relating to some Matters wherein 'tis alleg'd Her Majesty is defrauded of Her Customs: If the Person who wrote the said Letter will attend the said Commissioners at the Custom-house, and discover what he knows of those Matters, he shall receive all fitting Encouragement.

By Order of the Directors of the Amicable Society for a Perpetual Assurance Office, these are to give Notice, That all Persons for the future to be admitted Members of the said Society, do set forth in their Certificates or Affidavits of Healths, of what Quality, Profession, or Trade such Person is, as well as of what Parish; and that the like be observ'd in Certificates and Affidavits of Deaths; and in case of a married Woman, the Profession or Trade of her Husband to be set forth.
