The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 1. to Thursday January 3. 1711.

Barcelona, November 21. N. S.

HE Duke of Argyle has for feveral Days been very ill of a Fever, which seized him with so much Violence, as obliged him to quit the Camp at Igualada, and come to this Place; where the Remedies he has taken have proved so successful, that he is now pretty well reco-

Riga, December 19. N. S. Our Magistrates two Days ago gave a magnificent Entertainment to the Czar of Muscovy and his Consort, with which they were well satisfied. hence yesterday Morning to Petersbourg, by the way the Elector Palatin with great Magnificence. The of Pernel and Revel. The Czar himself has deferred Emperor's Departure for Vienna is put off 'till the giving his Answer to the Requests made to him by this Town 'till the 13th of January next, when their Deputies are to attend him at Petersbourg.

Florence, December 15. N.S. On the 8th of this Instant, upon the arrival of a Courier from General Ubaldini, who was appointed by the Great Duke to treat with General Zumjungen, the Grand Prior del Rene went to confer with him concerning some particular Points, in which, it is said, he received lence for Porty-eight Hours, and thrown several Satisfaction. By a Vessel which came to Leghorn Bombs into it, which put the Magistrates into such on the 9th, there is advice, that the Squadron dear Consternation, that they sent Deputies to request on the 9th, there is advice, that the Squadron de- a Consternation, that they sent Deputies to request tached by Sir John Jennings to Final, with Orders to a suspension of Arms for two Days, but it was retake on Board the Imperial Recruits in that Port, fused them. and carry the same to Barcelona, was safely arrived Hague, January 3. N. S. Here is advice, that there; and that the Admiral was sailed with the Duke of Savoy has named the Count de Mafrest of the Fleet for Port Mahon. We hear that fey, who is expected here from England, Monsieur Auditor Anteno, i is appointed by the Great Duke Mellarede, who is now in Germany, and the Marto go to Milan, and receive the Investiture of Sienna from his Imperial Majesty.

Venice, Dec. 18. N. S. The Senate endeavour to fend a Supply of Men, Mony and Ammunition into at that Place. the Levant, where the Motions of the Turks make them very uneasy. The Admiral Correro is order'd to Sail for Corfu, and join the Fleet. Signior Albani, Nephew to the Pope, arriv'd here on the Eleventh, and Lodges with the Nuncio. He has received the Visits of Prince Ercolani, Embassador of the Emperor and several Persons of Quality. He sets out on Friday for Rome, by the way of Urbino. They write from Rome, that the Pope had prohibited a Book call'd Artes Jesuitica, and permitted the Jesuites to Print a fort of Defence of their Proceedings in China. There are fome new Differences arisen between that Court and the Court of Portugal, occasion'd by the Pope's command to the Bishop of Macao, a Subject of the King of Portugal, to answer for his ill Behaviour towards the Cardinal de Years, has lately ask'd Leave to quit his Employment. The Senate have by an Authentick Instru-Ships under their Convoy from Holland, came in ment acknowledg'd his Services, and made him a this Day.

Present of a Gold Bason. The Pope upon the Death of Signior Cafarelli, who was Governour of Rome, has named Signior Scotti Auditor of the Rota, by Birth a Milanese, to that Government, which Promotion is very agreeable to the Nobility. The Differences between the Court of Rome and the Duke of Savoy, are not yet Accommodated, but feem rather to encrease, his Royal Highness having issued Instructions in order to those Persons being Absolved, who were some time since Excommunicated by the Bishop of Alexandria.

Francfort, December 30. N. S. All the Plenipo-tentiaries of the absent Electors had Audience of his Imperial Majesty on Saturday last. His Majesty ye-Their Majesties went from sterday Treated the Electors of Mentz, Triers, and Eleventh of the next Month, upon which it is fixed. His Majesty will in the mean time receive the Homage of this City with the usual Formalities.

Brunswick, Jan. 1. N. S. The Duke of Wolfembuttel is gone from hence to wait upon the Emperor at Frankfort. We have Advice that Lieutenant-General Rantzaw, who Commands the Danish Troops before Wismar had battered the Place with great Vio-quis del Borgo, who designs to go from hence to Utrecht on Tuesday or Wednesday next, to be his Plenipotentiaries in the Congress of Peace to be held Plymouth, Deg. 30. Yesterday came in the Delight from the Eastward, and the Stratham for the East-Indies. This Day fail'd the Falmouth, Bonadventure, Mary-Gally, and Dunwich, for Spithead; the St. Anthony for London, and Hoaft-Gally for Amsterdam. Come in the John and Mary from Guernsey, with Salt for this I lace.

Dartmouth, Dec. 30. Yeilerday came in here the Mary of and from Belfast, with Butter for Rotter-dam. The Dutch Privateer with her Prize from Martineco, the Fortune-Gally for the Coast of Barbary, and the Dutch Doggers from Ireland, are still detain'd here by contrary Winds.

Tarmouth, Dec. 31. On the Twenty-ninth came into our Road several Ships from Norway, bound Tournon, which Proceedings his Portuguese Majesty for London, one of which falling soul of another, will not allow of. The General Steinau, who has came ashore; and this Day another of that Fleet co-Commanded all the Venetian Forces for the five last ming in, ran aground on the Sands. Her Majesty's Ships the Pearl and Fox, with several Merchant-