CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

NOTICE OF SEIZURE UNDER THE CUSTOMS AND EXCISE MANAGEMENT ACT 1979

To: Jean Pierre Challier, 31 Rue Henri Barbusse, Paris 5, France.

12th September 1983

Pursuant to section 139 (6) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 and paragraph 1 of the 3rd Schedule thereto, the Commissioners of Customs and Excise hereby give you notice that by virtue of the powers contained in the customs and excise Acts and any enactments amending those Acts, certain goods, namely:

- 1 gas pistol
- 2 gas cartridges

have been seized as liable to forfeiture upon the ground(s) that the said goods were imported into the United Kingdom at Dover on or about 7th March 1982, contrary to the prohibition imposed by the Import of Goods (Control) Order 1954, made under the Import Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act 1939, section 1.

Further or in the alternative the said goods were imported in contravention of the restriction imposed by section 40 (9) of the Explosives Act 1875.

Whereby and by force of section 49 (1) of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979, the said goods are liable to forfeiture.

If you claim that the said goods are not liable to forfeiture you must within 1 month from the date of this notice of seizure give notice of your claim in accordance with the said Schedule to the said Act specifying the name and address of a solicitor in the United Kingdom who is authorised to accept service of process and to act on your behalf. In default of such notice the said goods will be deemed to have been duly condemned as forfeited and will be liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may direct. If you make such claim within the time aforesaid, legal proceedings will be taken for the condemnation thereof.
