Basildon District Council Extension to Billericay Town Centre Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that Basildon District Council (hereinafter referred to as "the Council") has authorised an extension to the Billericay Town Centre Conservation Area, Billericay, Essex, with effect from 20th September 1983.

The town centre conservation area boundary includes all properties in the High Street, Sun Street and Chapel Street, part of Western Road and Norsey Road and the western side of Laindon Road as far south as Quilters School.

The effect of this extension to the original boundaries of Billericay Town Centre will enlarge the area of special architectural or historic interest and require the Council and the Secretary of State for the Environment to pay special attention to the character and appearance of the area when exercising their powers of planning control. In extending the Conservation Area, the Council aim to preserve the natural environment by protecting the trees and safeguarding unlisted buildings against demolition. The Council may also adopt a policy of enhancing and improving the area. In the conservation area permission is required for certain works to buildings (e.g. demolition) where it would not otherwise be necessary.

A plan showing the extent of the whole conservation area is available for inspection at the offices of the Council's Technical Services Division (Planning), Keay House, 88 Town Square, Basildon, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Mondays to Fridays.
