Whereas it hath been represented to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that scandalous and malicious Reports are raised, as if considerable Sums of Money have been frequently paid at the Admiralty-Office for discharging Men from Her Majesty's Sea-Service, for Protections granted to Masters of Merchant Ships and Vessels, and on other Accounts: Their Lordships do hereby give notice, That if any Person or Persons, who have had occasion to make Applications at their Office, will attend them, and make it appear, that Money hath been demanded on any Account whatever, by any one employ'd under them; those who can make such Discoveries, shall not only be countenanced and protected, but the Persons who have been guilty severely punished for the same. And since there is good reason to believe, that the aforementioned Reports have taken their rise from the unjustifiable Demands which have been made by those who have solicited Matters for others; their Lordships do further declare, That if any Persons, who have been thus imposed on, will inform them by whom it hath been done, the best Care will be taken towards rendering them Satisfaction, and in bringing the Offenders to Punishment.

Whereas a Letter dated the 26th Instant, sign'd G. W. N. T. M. T. and directed to the Honourable Sir John Leake, at the Admiralty-Office, has been receiv'd: This is to give notice to the Persons who writ the said Letter, that if they will attend him at the Admiralty-Office near Whitehall, they will have all fitting Encouragement and Protection.

Notice is hereby given by the Directors of the Amicable Contributionship, for Insuring Houses against Loss by Fire, That their Office is now kept in Angel Court on Snow-hill, over-against St. Sepulchres Church, where Attendance is daily given: And that Attendance is also given at Tom's Coffee-house in St. Martins-lane near Charing-Cross, on Mondays, and at the Crown Coffee-house behind the Royal Exchange, London, on Fridays, from Two to Five in the Afternoon.
