DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND SOCIAL SECURITY

SOCIAL SECURITY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Notice of Submission of Regulations Entitled the Supplementary Benefit (Single Payments) Regulations 1984

The Social Security Advisory Committee gives notice that it has been asked by the Secretary of State for Social Services under section 10 of the Social Security Act 1980 to consider and report on regulations entitled The Supplementary Benefit (Single Payments) Regulations 1984.

A short explanatory note provided by the Department of Health and Social Security on these regulations is appended to this notice. The Committee will take into account any comments or objections made by or on behalf of people or organisations who will be affected by the regulations received by them not later than 22nd June 1984. Comments or objections should be sent to Miss G. Moore, the Secretary, Social Security Advisory Committee, Room 458, New Court, Carey Street, London WC2A 2LS. Copies of these regulations can be obtained on request to Mr. M. P. O'Leary, the Assistant Secretary of the Committee (01-831 6111 Extension 2636 address as for the Secretary).

J. Moore, Secretary

Explanatory Note

A recent Commissioner's decision has ruled that the 1980 supplementary benefit single payments regulations did not, as had been thought, create a distinction in eligibility for single payments for furniture as between those newly entering unfurnished or part-furnished accommodation and those already living in such accommodation. The long-established policy intention was to apply more stringent entitlement conditions to the former group. The Commissioner also ruled that the 1981 regulations, which sought to clarify the distinction, were invalid to the extent of the change, because they were introduced as consolidating regulations and had not been referred to the Social Security Advisory Committee. The effect of the decision was to make possible single payments for furniture more widely available than had been intended and amending regulations were therefore made urgently, taking effect on 27th April 1984, to restore the intended more stringent conditions of entitlement for people newly entering unfurnished accommodation.

3rd May 1984.

LAND COMPENSATION ACT 1973 (AS AMENDED)

Notice of Opening

The Secretary of State for Transport hereby gives notice that the length of highway detailed in the Schedule below was first open to public traffic on 22nd May 1983 after completion of carriageway alterations.

Under Part I of the Land Compensation Act 1973 (as amended) there is a right to compensation in respect of any depreciation of more than £50 in the value of certain interests in land caused by the use of new or altered highways and resulting from specified physical factors (noise, vibration, smell, fumes, smoke and artificial lighting and the discharge on to the land in respect of which the claim is made of any solid or liquid substance). Compensation is assessed by reference to prices current at a date 12 months after the highway is first open to public traffic or, in the case of an altered highway, first open to public traffic after completion of the alterations.

Interests qualifying for compensation are specified in section 2 of the above-mentioned Act and there are special provision relating to claims by mortgages and persons entitled under trusts or settlements.

Any person entitled to a qualifying interest who considers he has a claim under the said provisions may obtain further information and claim forms from the Department of Transport, Greater London Roads and Traffic Division, Room C5/06, 2 Marsham Street, London SW1P 3EB.

Claims may be made 12 months after the date when the new or altered highway was first opened to public traffic, that is on or after 23rd May 1984 (the "first claim day"). Claims should be made within 6 years from this date. However, if an interest is disposed of or (insofar as the interest is in land which is not a dwelling) a tenancy is granted, the claim must be made before such disposal or grant of tenancy.

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS

DURHAM COUNTY COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971, SECTION 277

Cotherstone Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 2nd April 1984 the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 designated those parts of Cotherstone in the Teesdale District described in the Schedule hereto as a Conservation Area.

Cotherstone has been settled since the 10th century but, like so many Teesdale villages, the present buildings date mainly from the 18th century. It is one of the larger villages in the Tees Valley, set in very attractive landscape on the south side of the river, about 4 miles north-west of Barnard Castle. It is essentially a linear village but with two small greens at either end of the main street. There is more Victorian and Edwardian development than elsewhere and a certain amount of unsympathetic modern development and improvement. Overall, however, the village retains its traditional, simple and sturdy Dales character.

Also particularly important in Cotherstone is the intricate system of lanes, paths and passages within and around the village and the surviving mediaeval strip pattern of fields immediately behind the streets frontage properties.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Teesdale District Council, 43 Galgate, Barnard Castle, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19B), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

P. Dawson, Chief Executive and Clerk
County Hall, Durham DH1 5UL.

SCHEDULE

The whole of Cotherstone and its surrounding mediaeval field pattern, bounded to the north by the Rivers Balder and Tees, but also including the woodland on the north bank of the Balder, to the east by the lane running between Demesne Lane and Millbank Wood, to the south-east by the east bank of the Lance Beck, to the south-west by the line of the old railway and to the west by Leadpipe Lane, but also including West Meadows and the buildings on Briscoe Lane as far west as Balder Croft.

Wackerfield Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 2nd April 1984 the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 designated those parts of Wackerfield in the Teesdale District described in the Schedule hereto as a Conservation Area.

As elsewhere in this area, the buildings in Wackerfield date mainly from the 18th and early 19th centuries. None is statutorily listed but the linear layout, the consistent use of whitewashed stone with stone, slate or pantile roofs, and the high quality of design of the buildings combine to produce a farming hamlet of unusual character.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Teesdale District Council, 43 Galgate, Barnard Castle, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19B), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

P. Dawson, Chief Executive and Clerk
County Hall, Durham DH1 5UL.

SCHEDULE

The whole of Wackerfield, including all of the land and buildings bounded by the three village roads and also including the Old Hall to the west, and isolated buildings to the south, all of the buildings to the north of unclassified road 47.7 and the field immediately opposite to the south.

DURHAM COUNTY COUNCIL

Headlam Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 2nd April 1984 the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 designated those parts of Headlam in the Teesdale District described in the Schedule hereto as a Conservation Area.

Headlam is one of the number of hamlets to the east of Staindrop held by the Neville family in mediaeval times and more recently part of the Raby Estate. All of them have extensive 18th and 19th century farmstead groups and farm workers' cottages, nearly all built with colour-washed rubble stone and slate or pantile roofs. Headlam is something of an exception in that it has a large triangular green on one side of which stands the particularly impressive Headlam Hall a Grade II* listed building. The western edge of the green is open, bounded by the Headlam Beck, which is still spanned by a mediaeval pack-horse bridge. The northern edge is enclosed by cottages and farm buildings, of which eight were included in the provisional Grade III lists. The farmland and woodland immediately beyond the green emphasises the low-lying site, creating an attractive and sheltered setting for the hamlet.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Teesdale District Council, 43 Galgate, Barnard Castle, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19B), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

SCHEDULE

The whole of Headlam and its village green bounded by the Headlam Beck to the west, Back Lane to the north and Cakesmire Lane to the north-east, including Headlam House Farm, Headlam Hall Farm and Headlam Hall and its grounds to the east, the woodland belt as far south as Ford Dike.

Romaldkirk Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 2nd April 1984 the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 designated those parts of Romaldkirk in the Teesdale District described in the Schedule hereto as a Conservation Area.

Romaldkirk sits on the south side of the River Tees, about half-way between Barnard Castle and Middleton-in-Teesdale. It is arguably the most attractive village in County Durham. The village has Saxon origins and its name is derived from the original church, dedicated to St. Rumald. The present church dates as far back as the 12th century and is listed Grade A. Nearly all of the other buildings grouped around the large, meandering green date from the 18th and early 19th centuries and almost without exception are stone built with stone or slate roofs. Nineteen buildings are listed Grade II and a further ten are included in the provisional Grade III list. Even those buildings not included in the lists are virtually unspoilt and add to the overall character of the village. In and around the village the mature woodland and individual trees provide shelter and enclosure and an attractive setting for the buildings.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Teesdale District Council, 43 Galgate, Barnard Castle, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19B), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

P. Dawson, Chief Executive and Clerk
County Hall, Durham DH1 5UL.

SCHEDULE

The whole of Romaldkirk and its surroundings, including the Beer Beck, Hutchinson Terrace and associated woodland to the north, including Water Gap and Low

Green Farm to the east, extending south to include Hollin Croft and bounded by the line of the old railway to the west.

The Durham County Council Barningham Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 2nd April 1984 the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 designated those parts of Barningham in the Teesdale District described in the Schedule hereto as a Conservation Area.

The site predates the Norman Conquest and was perhaps settled in Roman times, although no obvious visible evidence exists. The village today dates mainly from the 18th century with stone buildings compactly arranged along both sides of an ancient green. It contains 17 statutorily listed buildings with another 23 in the provisional Grade III list. Most important is Barningham Park, listed Grade II*, a large, three-storey house in its own wooded grounds. The exceptional character of the village derives, however, from the consistently attractive traditional character of the buildings, enhanced by their setting around the sloping green with its mature woodland backdrop.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Teesdale District Council, 43 Galgate, Barnard Castle, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19B), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

SCHEDULE

The whole of Barningham, including Fairview Cottage, Glebe Farm and St. Michael and All Angels Church to the north, Barningham House to the north-east, Barningham Park and its grounds to the south-east and Hill Top Farm, together with the immediately adjacent fields to the south.

Notice is hereby given that on 2nd April 1984, the Durham County Council, in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, those parts of Lartington in the Teesdale District described in the Schedule hereto as a Conservation Area.

Lartington lies 2 miles west of Barnard Castle, to the south of the River Tees. It is unique in Teesdale, if not in the County, for the variety and individuality of its buildings. Only the 17th century Lartington Hall is statutorily listed but the majority of the other houses, dating from the 18th and early 19th centuries, are included in the provisional Grade III list. Although no two are alike, its linear form, the unity of materials, the unexpected richness of their detailing and the enclosing woodland setting all combine to form a place of unusual quality.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Teesdale District Council, 43 Galgate, Barnard Castle, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19B), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

SCHEDULE

The whole of Lartington, bounded to the north by the Scur Beck, including Grey's Close to the north-east, Lartington Hall and its immediate surrounding grounds to the east, the woodland on either side of Road B.6277 to the south-east as far as but not including Park Farm, the

The Durham County Council Bowes Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 2nd April 1984 the Durham County Council in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 designated those parts of Bowes in the Teesdale District described in the Schedule hereto as a Conservation Area.

Bowes lies 4 miles south-west of Barnard Castle at the junction of Roads A66 and A67. Both of these were Roman roads and Bowes is in fact the site of the Roman Station of "Lavatrae". A tightly knit, linear village with stone buildings fronting both sides of the old Road A66, its environment has recently been significantly improved by completion of a new by-pass.

Bowes is particularly famous for the association of Dotheboys Hall with Charles Dickens' "Nicholas Nickleby" but it also boasts the remains of a 12th century castle and seven other listed buildings. The essential Dales character of Bowes derives from the fact that the humbler traditional 18th century buildings are all built in the same style and materials as their more notable neighbours.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Teesdale District Council, 43 Galgate, Barnard Castle, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19B), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

SCHEDULE

The whole of Bowes, including Sike Bridge, Bowes Hall and the Police House to the east, excluding the recent housing to the south but including the Castle and Lavatrae Roman Fort, including Dotheboys Hall to the west but excluding Ivy Hall and bounded by the A66 by-pass to the north.

Hilton Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that on 2nd April 1984, the Durham County Council, in pursuance of their powers under section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, designated those parts of Hilton in the Teesdale District described in the Schedule hereto as a Conservation Area.

Hilton has no green but makes the most of its southerly aspect, the buildings to the north of the street being set well back, with walled gardens running down to the road, those on the south backing hard on to the street with their main outlook also to the south.

There are only two listed buildings in Hilton, one of which is the 17th century Hilton Hall, but the hamlet derives its character from the robust, functional yet consistently attractive appearance of the whitewashed stone farmbuildings and houses.

A plan showing the area designated has been placed on deposit at the offices of the Teesdale District Council, 43 Galgate, Barnard Castle, and at County Hall, Durham (Room 1/19B), and may be inspected there during normal office hours.

STEVENAGE BOROUGH COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971

*Designation of an extension to the St. Nicholas
Conservation Area*

Notice is hereby given pursuant to section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, as amended by section 1 of the Town and Country Amenities Act 1974, that the area described below being an area of special architectural or historic interest, the character of which it is desirable to preserve or enhance, was designated as a Conservation Area for the purposes of section 277 of the said Act by Stevenage Borough Council as Local Planning Authority, on 2nd April 1984.

Within the designated area no building other than such building as is referred to in the Direction made by the Secretary of State for the Environment in paragraph 15 of Circular 174/74 may be demolished without the prior written consent of the Local Planning Authority, as though it were a building contained in the list of buildings of special architectural or historic interest prepared by the Secretary of State.

In addition trees within the Conservation Area may not be lopped, topped, felled, uprooted or wilfully damaged or destroyed, unless notice of the proposed action has been given to the Local Planning Authority and written permission to proceed has been received, or the authority has failed to take any conclusive action regarding the notice within 6 weeks from the date of service. There are certain exceptions to this rule, in general terms, these cover trees subject to the exemption already contained in the Second Schedule of the Form of Tree Preservation Orders and trees not exceeding 75 millimetres (approximately 3 inches) in diameter, (or 100 millimetres where the growth of other trees would be improved by forestry operations). Trees already included in Tree Preservation Orders are not subject to the above procedure but are subject instead to the more stringent requirements of the Order concerned.

The existing Conservation Area embraces land and buildings either side of Rectory Lane, St Nicholas Church and the area about Rooks Farm and Howards fronting onto Western Road.

The extensions to the Conservation Area embrace, mostly, land allocated for residential development and are as follows:

To the north, from Nicholas Place the boundary runs common with the rear boundary of the back gardens of the houses fronting onto the eastern side of Foster Close. Thence along the southern boundary of Granby Road turning northwards to cross that Road and to run common with the rear boundary of the back gardens of Nos. 71, 69 and 67 Granby Road and similarly 17, 18, 19 and 20 The Brambles. The boundary then runs south-eastwards along a field boundary to connect with the existing Conservation Area boundary north of The Bury.

To the east, commencing at the eastern extremity of the Martins Way frontage the boundary continues to the junction with Canterbury Way when it then follows the western boundary of Canterbury Way to a point opposite the junction with York Road, where it runs common with the eastern and northern boundaries of the grounds of a pumping station, crossing Weston Road to link up again with the existing Conservation Area.

Copies of the map showing the boundaries of the extension are available for inspection at the Borough Planning Office, Manulife House, St. Georges Way, Stevenage.
