Florence March 9. N. S.

THE Senator Anconeri is arriv'd here from Milan, and has given the Great Duke of Tuscany an Account of his Commission, by which he has receiv'd the Investiture of Sienna, in the Name of his Master, from the Count de Colmenero; and the same Minister is to set out for Vienna to Compliment his Imperial Majesty, upon his Elevation to that Dignity, and to manage some other important Affairs. Great Preparations are making at Rome, and a Palace is fitting up for the Reception of the Electoral Prince of Saxony, who is expected there before Easter, and after the Holy Week, he designs to come to this Place, where no less Honours will be paid him upon his Arrival.

Turin, March 9. N. S. Their Royal Highnesses have receiv'd the Compliments of Condolance upon the Death of their Daughter, the Dauphiness of France, from the Magistrates and University of this City, as likewise from the Nobility, and all the Foreign Ministers. The General Officer whom his Royal Highness sent to Coni, is return'd hither, and assures us, that the Enemy cannot undertake any thing on that Side for a considerable time; by reason of the Snows and badness of the Ways, and the General who Commands at Suza, seems to be of the same Opinion: However, the French having made greater Dispositions than are usual at this Season, both at Briançon and in Savoy, and being likewise in Daily Expectation of a Reinforcement of Troops from Rouffillon, his Royal Highness has thought it proper to write to General Visconti at Milan, to send Thirteen Battalions of the Imperial Troops design'd for Piedmont, to March before the rest of the Army, and his Royal Highness has given the necessary Orders for their Reception at St. Baleine, but it is not expected that they can arrive at that Place before the beginning of the next Month. We have advice from Milan, that the German Forces were to Halt at St. Denix and Montenera, to expect the Orders of his Royal Highness; and that great Provisions of Forage had been made in the Milanese, being design'd part for Piedmont, and the rest for Catalonia. About Nine Days ago the Funeral of the Marquis of Lagnasco, General of the Artillery, was Solemniz'd with much Pomp. The Corps was attended by two Regiments, four Pieces of Cannon, and all the Generals and other Officers, and upon its Interment, there was a triple Discharge of twelve large Pieces of Artillery. Sir Henry Bellasyfe, Mr. Stawell and Mr. Archer, are arriv'd here, and pursuant to their Commission from the Queen of Great Britain, are enquiring into the Accounts of such Sums of Money as have been remitted hither from England.

Florence, March 15. N. S. They write from Leghorn, that Her Majesty's Ship the Dartmouth, Captain Steward Commander, is sail'd from that Port to Cruise, and that the Lion Man of War, Captain Walpole Commander, is to follow in three or four Days. We have a Report, that a Squadron is fitting out at Thoulon, but it is not yet known upon what Design.

Venice, March 18. N. S. They write from Rome, that the Prince Savelli died there on the Sixth Instant, being very far advanced in Years, and together with him that Ancient and Noble Family, is extinguish'd. The Princess Savelli is retir'd into the Convent of the Tower de Spechi, into which some Days before, Donna Bernardina Albani, Widow to the late Don Horatio Albani, had made her Entrance, being accompanied thither by her Sons Don Charles and Don Horatio. The Prince was Interr'd among his Ancestors without Pomp in the Church of Araceli, and his Office of Marshal of the Conclave, has been given by the Pope to the Prince Don Augusto Chigi. The Pope has Excommunicated some Ministers of the Duke of Savoy, because they have hindred the receiving of the Revenues of such Ecclesiastical Preferments as were vacant in his Royal Highness's Dominions; and the Excommunication is Printed and fix'd up in Publick, with the Names of twelve of them. The Pope has given to the Marquis de Prie, Ambassador from the Emperor and King of Spain, and to his Successors in that Ministry, an Annual Pension of Twelve hundred Roman Crowns, so that his Embassy, is computed to be of the Yearly Value of Twelve thousand Pound Sterling. On Saturday last came into this Port the Cornwall Gally, with Herrings, Pilechards and Lead. The Prince D'Elbeuf being return'd from Germany, and having conferred with the Prince Herculani, is set forwards for Naples. Signior the Secretary Paulucci, who is to succeed Signior Franceschi, the Resident from this Republick in that Kingdom, has received his Instructions, and will be upon his departure thither soon after Easter. The Magistrate of Health takes all necessary Precautions for the continuance and preservation of it in this City, and has given Orders that no Men or Goods shall be admitted into this Place till One and twenty Days after their arrival, if they come from Stiria, Carinthia, and Carniola; and not till Forty, if they belong to Croatia. His Electoral Highness the Prince of Saxony, having receiv'd Letters from King Augustus, his Father, by the way of Vienna, sent the Palatine of Livonia, and the Barou de Hagen to take leave; in his Name, of the Pope's Nuncio, and of the four Deputies of this Republick, that accompanied him, during his stay here, and yesterday Morning his Highness set out from hence, having seen all that is remarkable in this City, being extremely satisfy'd with the Honours he has receiv'd: He goes by Water to Padua, and will proceed from thence to Milan. It is reported here, that his intended Journey to Rome will be deferr'd till some other opportunity.

Deal, March 27. Here are Her Majesty's Ships the August, Reserve, Dover and South Sea Castle; and Yesterday in the Afternoon came in hither Her Majesty's Ship the Litchfield. This Morning came in hither Her Majesty's Ship the Centurion, as also the Royal and Levant Gallies from Leghorn.

Falmouth, March 24. Yesterday sail'd Her Majesty's Ship Foway to the Eastward, and two small Coasters.
