A INTRODUCTION

Interpretation

1(1) In this joint statement, unless the subject or context otherwise requires:

- “The Principal Regulation” means The Dairy Produce Quota Regulations 1984 (S.I. No. 1047);
- “The Secondary Regulation” means The Dairy Produce Quotas (Definition of Base Year Revision Claims) Regulations 1984 (S.I. No. 1048);
- “The United Kingdom Regulations” means the Principal Regulation and the Secondary Regulation;

“The European Regulations” means the EEC Council Regulation 857/84 and the Commission Regulation 1371/84 as amended;

“The relevant Tribunal” means the Dairy Produce Quota Tribunal for England and Wales or for Scotland or for Northern Ireland established to determine any claim which may be made for Direct Sales Quota by the claimant under the United Kingdom Regulations;

“The appropriate rejection review body” means in England and Wales and Northern Ireland, the local panel for the locality in which the holding of the claimant is to be treated as situate under the United Kingdom Regulations and, in Scotland, the Dairy Produce Quota Tribunal for Scotland;

“The appropriate further examination body” means in England and Wales and Northern Ireland, the local panel for the locality in which the holding of the claimant is to be treated as situate under the United Kingdom Regulations and, in Scotland, the Minister or the Dairy Produce Quota Tribunal for Scotland.

“Quota” means Primary Direct Sales Quota or Secondary Direct Sales Quota or Direct Sales Quota on grounds of exceptional hardship, as the case may require.

(2) Subject as aforesaid words and expressions defined in the United Kingdom Regulations shall bear the same meanings respectively in this Joint Statement.

B PRIMARY DIRECT SALES QUOTA

Jurisdiction of the Tribunals

2(1) Where the Minister forwards to the relevant Tribunal the written objection of a claimant to his estimate of the claimant's Primary Direct Sales Quota or his determination that the claimant is not entitled to Primary Direct Sales Quota and an identification of the holding to which such estimation or determination relates together with the other documentation required by the Regulations to be forwarded therewith, the relevant Tribunal shall determine the claimant's Primary Direct Sales Quota for the holding so identified by the Minister.

(2) The expression “holding” is defined by Article 12 of Council Regulation 857/84 as “all the production units operated by the producer and located within the geographical territory of the Community” but by the Principal Regulation [see paragraph 3(4) below].

- (a) in relation to any region (that is to say, any of the regions into which the United Kingdom is divided for the purposes of Article 1(2) of Council Regulation 857/84 as published by the Minister in the Gazette), it means the division of the holding in that region, and
- (b) in relation to any register entry identifying a holding and used under the Principal Regulations it means (for the purpose of making calculations in respect of changes of occupation) the land identified in that register entry.

Claimants for Primary Direct Sales Quota

3 (1) Estimates of Primary Direct Sales Quota fall under three heads according to the claimants, these being:

- (a) claimants to whom the second sub-paragraph of Article 4 (2) of the Commission Regulation EEC No. 1371/84 applies (“Short Period Special Producers”), (see paragraph 3 (2) below).
- (b) claimants to whom such second sub-paragraph does not apply but to whom the first sub-paragraph of such Article 4 (2) applies (“Longer Period Special Producers”) (see paragraph 3 (3) below).
- (c) claimants to whom neither of such sub-paragraphs apply (“Normal Producers”) (see paragraph 6 below).

(2) The second sub-paragraph of such Article 4 (2) relates to producers who began the direct sale of milk and milk products after 1st January 1981 but before 1st April 1984 or who have greatly altered their operations since 1st January 1981, if their operations during their respective base periods cover less than 12 months (see paragraph 4 below).

(3) The first sub-paragraph of such article 4 (2) relates to producers who began the direct sale of milk and milk products after 1st January 1981 but before 1st April 1984 or who have greatly altered their operations since 1st January 1981, if their operations during their respective base periods cover 12 months or more (see paragraph 5 below).

(4) The expression "producer" is defined in Article 12 of Council Regulation 857/84 as "a natural or legal person or group of natural or legal persons farming a holding located within the geographical territory of the Community:

- selling milk or other milk products directly to the consumer, and/or (see paragraph 7 below).
- supplying the purchaser".

Short Period Special Producers

4 (1) The Primary Direct Sales Quota of a Short Period Special Producer shall be a quantity calculated by multiplying his base quantity by a fraction the numerator of which is 12 and the denominator of which is the number of months in that period and then (except in respect of a holding in a remote area) reducing the result by 6 per cent. (see paragraphs 4 (2) and 4 (4) below).

(2) The base quantity is the quantity of dairy produce sold by him by direct sale from the holding in the specified period (see paragraph 4 (3) below).

(3) The specified period is the period starting—

- (a) on the first day of the first calendar month beginning after the commencement of direct sale of dairy produce from the holding or
- (b) on the first day of the second calendar month beginning after the commencement of direct sale of dairy produce from the holding where the quantity sold before the first calendar month (not being April 1984) is less than one-third of the quantity so sold in the first calendar month (see paragraph 7 below).

and ending—

- (i) on 30th April 1984 where that first day is 1st March or 1st April 1984 or otherwise
- (ii) on 31st March 1984.

(4) The expression "remote area" means Scottish area B and any area outside the area of a milk marketing board.

Longer Period Special Producers

5 (1) The Primary Direct Sales Quota of a Longer Period Special Producer shall be a quantity calculated by establishing his base quantity and (except in respect of a holding in a remote area or an applicant's holding for which the quantity of dairy produce sold by direct sale in 1981 was greater than his base quantity) reducing that base quantity by 6 per cent. (see paragraph 4 (3) above).

(2) The base quantity is the quantity of dairy produce sold by direct sale from that holding during the period of 12 months prior to 1st April 1984 (see paragraph 7 below).

(3) Where 101 per cent. of the dairy produce sold by direct sale from a holding in 1981 is a greater quantity than his base quantity reduced by 6 per cent., then the Primary Direct Sales Quota of that Longer Period Producer shall be his base quantity reduced by such a percentage as meets that 101 per cent.

Normal Producers

6. The Primary Direct Sales Quota of a Normal Producer shall be a quantity equal to 101 per cent. of the quantity of dairy produce sold by direct sale from his holding in 1981 (see paragraph 7 below).

Dairy Produce

7 (1) The expression "dairy produce" means milk and the following expressed in kilograms of milk according to the following formula:

- (a) cream on the basis that 1 kilogram of cream equals 26.3 kilograms of milk multiplied by the percentage fat content of the cream, divided by 100,
- (b) butter on the basis that 1 kilogram of butter equals 22.5 kilograms of milk, and
- (c) cheese on the basis that 1 kilogram of cheese equals such quantity of milk (the fat content of which has not been altered since milking) as is required to make it.

(2) Totally or partly skimmed milk must be taken into account as dairy produce except to the extent that the fat content of the milk prior to skimming has already been taken into account in the form of cream, butter and cheese.

Holdings

8 (1) In most cases the relevant Tribunal will be required to determine the claimant's Primary Direct Sales Quota (if any) on the holding identified by the Minister in his statement but a claimant may allege that he is entitled to a Primary Direct Sales Quota other than the Primary Direct Sales Quota estimated by the Minister on the grounds that his holding has not been correctly identified by the Minister. In such a case it will be necessary for the relevant Tribunal both to determine the claimant's Primary Direct Sales Quota (if any) and to identify the holding to which that determination relates (see paragraph 2 (2) above).

(2) For the purpose of identifying any holding to which any Direct Sales Quota may relate the relevant Tribunal shall apply the provisions of the Principal Regulations (and in particular paragraph 4 of the First Schedule to the Principal Regulations) which are thereby required to be applied by the Minister for the purpose of identifying the holding subject as therein set out.

C. SECONDARY DIRECT SALES QUOTA

Jurisdiction Of The Tribunals

9 (1) Where in England and Wales or in Northern Ireland, the appropriate further examination body has notified a claimant of its estimate of his Secondary Direct Sales Quota following a further examination of his special case claim, the claimant may, within 21 days of the service of that notification upon him, cause the relevant Tribunal to review that estimate by submitting to it:

- (a) the notification,
  - (b) his representations in respect thereof, and
  - (c) a request for such a review,
- on the form to be provided on request by the Tribunal.
- (2) Where, in Scotland, the Minister has rejected a special case claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota the claimant may request the relevant Tribunal to review that rejection by submitting to it within 21 days of the service of such rejection upon him a request therefor accompanied by:

- (a) his special case claim,
  - (b) the statement of the Minister containing the reasons why that claim was rejected, and
  - (c) his representations in respect of such reasons.
- (3) Where, in Scotland, the Minister or the relevant Tribunal has reserved a special case claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota for further examination, the Minister or the relevant Tribunal shall determine an estimate of the Secondary Direct Sales Quota of the claimant.

Special Case Claims

10. A special case claim is a claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota and may be either:

- (a) a base year revision claim, or
- (b) a development claim, or
- (c) both a base year revision claim and a development claim.

Request for Review of Rejection of Special Case Claim by The Minister

11. (1) At the hearing of a request for the review by the appropriate rejection review body of a rejection of a special case claim by the Minister the question for determination is whether or not, on the evidence, that rejection should be confirmed or the special case claim should be reserved for further examination (see para. 24 below).

(2) The rejection by the Minister of a base year revision claim should be confirmed in the absence of the following particulars from the claimant:

- (a) The alternative base year chosen by him (being an alternative permitted by the Regulations) (see para. 12 below), and
- (b) The exceptional event on which he bases his claim (being one of the exceptional events specified in the European Regulations) (see para. 13 below), and
- (c) The quantity of dairy produce sold by him by direct sales from his holding in his alternative base year, and
- (d) The amount of his claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota (see para. 14 below).

(3) The rejection by the Minister of a development claim should be confirmed in the absence of the following particulars from the claimant:

- (a) the sub-paragraph of Article 3 (1) of the EEC Council Regulation 857/84 on which he relies (see para. 21 below);

- (b) evidence that his reliance is based on an investment of a capital nature (which was made or in respect of which an obligation was entered into before 1st March 1984) essential to the increase of dairy produce intended by him to be sold by direct sale from his holding (see para. 22 below);
- (c) the total quantity of dairy produce which he expects to sell by direct sale from his holding in the first quota year (that is to say, the period starting on 2nd April 1984 and ending 31st March 1985); and
- (d) his Secondary Direct Sales Quota claim (see para. 23 below).

Alternative Base Year

12. (1) In the case of Secondary Direct Sales Quota the alternative base year, where the claimant is also an applicant for Wholesale Quota, must be 1983 or the alternative base year chosen by him under the Second Schedule to the Regulations.

(2) Subject as aforesaid the alternative base year may be the calendar year 1981, 1982 or 1983.

Grounds for a Base Year Revision Claim

13. (1) Where milk production on a holding has been affected during the base year by exceptional events occurring before or during that year, the exceptional events specified in the European Regulations for a special case claim are:

- “a serious natural disaster affecting the producer's farm to a substantial extent (see para. 15 below),
- the accidental destruction of the producer's fodder resources or buildings used for dairy livestock (see para. 16 below),
- an epizootic affecting all or part of the milk herd (see para. 17 below),
- compulsory appropriation of a considerable part of the utilizable agricultural area of the producer's holding, resulting in a temporary reduction of the fodder area of the holding (see para. 18 below),
- if the producer runs the holding himself, occupational incapacity of long duration (see para. 19 below),
- theft or accidental loss of all or part of the dairy herd, where this has had a significant effect of the milk production of the holding (see para. 20 below).”

(2) In considering whether or not a claimant has established one or other of the foregoing exceptional events for an alternative base year claim, the words set out above (being quotations from the European Regulations) should be given their normal, everyday meanings in the context in which they appear in those European Regulations.

(3) The exceptional event or exceptional events relied upon by a claimant for the purpose of his base year revision claim must also be shown to have adversely affected the milk production of his holding in his base year. A claimant's holding should not be regarded as adversely affected in the absence of satisfactory evidence of a drop in the milk production of the holding in consequence of the exceptional event or events.

The Amount of a Base Year Revision Claim (Direct Sales Quota)

14. The amount (in terms of dairy produce) of a claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota must be particularised by a claimant in his claim and (except in remote areas) must not be:

- (a) in the case of a claim for 1981 as an alternative base year, greater than 101 per cent. of the quantity of his dairy produce sold by him by direct sales in that year, or
- (b) in the case of a claim for a year other than 1981 as an alternative base year, greater than 94 per cent. of the quantity of his dairy produce sold by him by direct sale in such alternative base year.

Serious Natural Disaster

15(1) A serious natural disaster affecting the producer's farm to a substantial extent may be held to have occurred only where there is satisfactory evidence of a serious natural disaster, whenever occurring, (as opposed to any other type of disaster).

(2) Having regard to the Secondary Regulations, a claim under this head, if based on bad weather during the base period, may only be accepted if the bad weather caused a reduction of not less than 15 per cent. in the claimant's milk production in the base period.

(3) Subject as aforesaid a claim under this heading should only be admitted where the evidence establishes that the effect of the serious natural disaster on the claimant's milk production was substantial.

Accidental Destruction

16(1) The accidental destruction of the producer's fodder resources or buildings used for dairy livestock should be held to have occurred only where satisfactory evidence of such an accidental destruction (as opposed to any other kind of destruction) before or during the claimant's base period is provided, showing the extent to which the fodder resources were destroyed, or the nature of the building destroyed.

(2) Evidence for the foregoing purposes may be an insurance claim accepted by the company concerned or the testimony of credible witnesses.

An Epizootic

17(1) An epizootic is a disease temporarily prevalent among animals in a locality.

(2) Subject to (3) below, an epizootic affecting all or part of the milk herd should only be held to have occurred where satisfactory evidence is provided of an outbreak of a disease (as opposed to a health problem caused by parasites or nutritional deficiency or the like) affecting all or part of the claimant's dairy herd. In the case of any disease such evidence may be provided by the certificate of a veterinary surgeon or a member of the State Veterinary Services, stating the number in the herd the number affected by the disease, and the duration and effect of the disease on the animals affected. In the case of a notifiable disease a check may be made with the records of the State Veterinary Services.

(3) A list of diseases (a copy whereof is annexed hereto) which has been issued by the Commission of the European Communities for the purposes of the European Regulations shall be taken into account by the appropriate rejection review body or the relevant Tribunal (as the case may be) in considering a claim under this head, but in deciding whether or not a disease in a particular case was, or was not, an epizootic, the appropriate rejection review body or the relevant Tribunal shall not treat the inclusion of such disease in, or the exclusion of such disease from, such a list as decisive.

Compulsory Appropriation

18(1) A compulsory appropriation of a considerable part of the utilizable agricultural area of the producer's holding, resulting in a temporary reduction in the fodder area of the holding, may be held to have occurred where the claimant's land or its use was acquired compulsorily by an authority having powers so to do, or where the claimant's land or its use was acquired by such an authority by agreement, provided that the authority could and would have been likely to have used its powers to acquire the land or its use compulsorily if no such agreement had been so made.

(2) The land concerned must have been a considerable part of the utilizable agricultural area of the claimant's holding, requiring satisfactory evidence to be provided of the utilizable agricultural area of the holding immediately before and after the acquisition.

(3) The acquisition must have resulted in a temporary reduction in the fodder area of the holding, requiring satisfactory evidence of the extent and duration of the alleged reduction.

Occupational Incapacity

19. Occupational incapacity of long duration of the producer (relevant only if the producer runs the holding himself) should be held to have occurred only where satisfactory evidence is supplied (such as a medical certificate). The certificate should state the nature, duration and extent of the incapacity. The nature of the incapacity must be such as to have prevented the producer from running the holding himself for a long period of time.

Theft or Accidental Loss

20. Theft or accidental loss of all or part of the dairy herd, where this has had a significant effect on the milk production of the holding, may be held to have occurred only where satisfactory evidence of the theft or accidental loss is provided. This may be provided by insurance claims accepted by the company concerned, or the testimony of credible witnesses.

Article 3(1) of the EEC Regulation 857/84

21. The claimant is required to specify in relation to a development claim whether he relies on:

- (a) a development plan lodged before 1st March 1984 under Directive 72/159 of the European Economic Community (which was implemented in the United Kingdom by the Farm and Horticulture Development Scheme and by the Agriculture and Horticulture Development Scheme), or
- (b) an investment or investments made without such a development plan (whether or not such investment or investments were grant-aided).

Date and Nature of an Investment

22(1) For the purpose of a development claim, the investment must be of a capital nature and either made before 1st March 1984 or the claimant must have entered into a commitment to make it before that date and (to the extent it has not subsequently been made) remained committed to make it at the time of submitting his claim. In the latter case satisfactory evidence must be provided of the claimant's commitment to make the investment (such as a written contract entered into before 1st March 1984) as an intention to make an investment is not sufficient. Satisfactory evidence of a continuing commitment to make or complete the investment should also be provided.

(2) For the purpose of a development claim the investment must have been calculated to achieve an increase in milk production on the holding in comparison to the claimant's average monthly quantity of milk production taken from each month of any base period applicable to him. Satisfactory evidence should be provided of his actual average monthly quantity of milk production taken from each month of the base period and of the quantity of milk production on the holding which is calculated to be achieved in consequence of the investment.

(3) The investment must have been either in buildings or equipment or both and have been exclusively related to the production of dairy produce on the claimant's holding; provided that investment in cattle as an increase in the number of the claimant's dairy herd may also be taken into account where the investment in buildings or equipment or both was insufficient to justify a claim.

(4) A claim based on an investment in a building constructed or equipment installed before 1 March 1984 should only be admitted where satisfactory evidence of the nature and extent of the works or the nature of the equipment is provided (such as copies of or reference to documents held by the Agricultural Departments in respect of application for grant-aid, or a certificate in the form provided to claimants completed and signed by a qualified accountant or receipted invoices for the goods or services supplied). Should the evidence provided by the claimant be insufficient for the purposes of the claim additional evidence may be requested (such as the expert advice of a member of the Agricultural Development and Advisory Service).

(5) A claim based on an investment in cattle as an increase in the number of the claimant's dairy herd should only be admitted where satisfactory evidence is provided that the additional cattle were intended as a permanent increase in the claimant's dairy herd in order to increase the dairy produce of the holding and were not intended as replacements for cattle in the dairy herd.

(6) The investment must have been essential to an increase in the dairy produce intended from the holding. Satisfactory evidence of such an intention should be provided.

Calculation of the Claim

23(1) The claim must be for a specified quantity of dairy produce claimed by the claimant as his development quantity in relation to his holding which he claims as Secondary Direct Sales Quota.

(2) For the foregoing purposes the expression "development quantity" means the quantity of milk calculated, by reference to the increase from a producer's annualised quantity (that is to say his average monthly quantity of milk production, in any base period applicable to him, multiplied by 12) to the quantity of milk reasonably expected to be produced on his holding in the first quota year (that is to say, the period from 2nd April 1984 to 31st March 1985) by taking, in respect of any expected increased quantity:

- (a) in the band below 7.5 per cent. of his annualised quantity, nil,
- (b) in the band from 7.5 per cent. to 12.5 per cent. of his annualised quantity, half of the expected increased quantity in that band, and

(c) in the band above 12.5 per cent. of his annualised quantity, the whole of the expected increased quantity in that band.

(3) The development quantity should be so calculated by reference to the increased number of milking cows which the claimant may reasonably be expected to have in his herd as a result of the investment by 31st March 1985, multiplied by the expected annual yield per cow, notwithstanding that some of those cows could not have been housed, fed or milked throughout the first quota year. For such purpose, in default of satisfactory evidence to the contrary, a standard yield per cow of 5,000 litres may be assumed. Satisfactory evidence should be produced of the additional number of cows which are or are intended to be housed, fed and milked as a direct consequence of the investment.

(4) For the purpose of determining a development quantity the expression "any base period applicable to him" means:

- (a) where he is a claimant only for Direct Sales Quota, the base period eventually determined for him, or
- (b) where he is a claimant both for Direct Sales Quota and for Wholesale Quota, the base period eventually determined for him in respect of his Direct Sales Quota and any different base period eventually determined for him in respect of his Wholesale Quota, in accordance with the United Kingdom Regulations.

Decision On Review Of Rejection Of Special Case Claim By The Minister

24 (1) At the hearing of a request for a review of a rejection of a special case claim by the Minister (whether the special case claim be a base year revision claim or a development claim or both) the appropriate rejection review body should consider, on the evidence before it, whether or not, on a balance of probabilities, the claimant has established a prima facie case for a further examination of his special case claim.

(2) If a claimant does establish a prima facie case of a further examination of his special case claim as aforesaid, the appropriate rejection review body should require him to make such amendments and additions (if any) to his forms and the documents submitted by him therewith as may be necessary to ensure that his claim accords with the United Kingdom Regulations and, subject to its approval of such amendments and additions, it should then reserve the special case claim for further examination.

(3) If a claimant does not establish a prima facie case for a further examination of his special case claim the appropriate rejection review body should confirm the rejection of that claim by the Minister.

Decision On Further Examination Of Special Case Claim

25 (1) At a further examination of a special case claim the appropriate further examination body and the relevant Tribunal on appeal therefrom should consider all the evidence which is before it (including any documents relating to the claimant or his holding which may be supplied for the purpose by the Minister from the records kept by the Agriculture Department and any documents relating to the claimant's wholesale deliveries of milk and his allocation of primary milk quota which may be supplied for the purpose by a Milk Marketing Board).

(2) On a further examination of a special case claim the appropriate further examination body and the relevant Tribunal on appeal therefrom must determine an estimate of the Secondary Direct Sales Quota for the claimant which it considers to be justified by his special case claim, but in so doing

- (a) it shall determine a base year revision claim and estimate the Direct Sales Quota, if any, resulting therefrom before it determines a development claim and estimates the Quota, if any, resulting therefrom, and
- (b) it shall not aggregate a base year revision claim with a development claim but shall deal with each separately.

(3) The amount of the Secondary Direct Sales Quota which the appropriate further examination body and the relevant Tribunal on appeal therefrom shall estimate to be justified for a claimant may be nil or less than or equal to the amount of his claim for such quota as set out in the particulars of his claim but subject to paragraph 24 (2) above shall not exceed the amount so particularised by the claimant.

Mistakes Or Errors In A Special Case Claim Computation

26. At the hearing of a request for a review of a rejection by the Minister of a special case claim (whether the special case claim by a base year revision claim or a development claim or both) the appropriate rejection review body, and at the hearing of a further examination of a special case claim, the appropriate further examination body and, on appeal therefrom, the relevant Tribunal, shall allow the claimant to amend the amount of his claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota where the claimant has made a mistake or error (howsoever occurring) in calculating his claim under or for the purposes of the United Kingdom Regulations or in entering the amount of his special case claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota in any form or document submitted by him or on his behalf.

D. DIRECT SALES QUOTA ON GROUNDS OF EXCEPTIONAL HARDSHIPJurisdiction Of The Tribunals*

27. Where a claim for Direct Sales Quota on the grounds of exceptional hardship has been made in such manner and within such period as the Minister shall announce by advertisement published as mentioned in the United Kingdom Regulations, the relevant Tribunal shall determine the quantity of dairy produce for that claimant which is justified by such claim.

Conditions For An Exceptional Hardship Claim

28. A claimant for Direct Sales Quota on the grounds of exceptional hardship must establish that he is a person whom Article 4 (1) (c) of Council Regulation 857/84 applies [see para 29 below] and that

- (a) before 2nd April 1984 he entered into, or became obliged to enter into, a transaction, or made an arrangement
- (i) as a result of which his Direct Sales Quota is substantially less than it would have been had he not entered into, or become obliged to enter into, that transaction or made that arrangement, or
- (ii) the reasonably expected outcome of which is a level of direct sale of dairy produce in respect of which, or a substantial part of which, Direct Sales Quota is not otherwise capable under the United Kingdom Regulations of being allocated to him, and
- (b) at the time of entering into, or becoming obliged to enter into, that transaction or making that arrangement he intended to go into or remain in business as a producer (see para. 3 (4) above) and
- (c) as a result of the matters specified in the preceding sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) and (c) of this paragraph 28, he has suffered or will suffer exceptional hardship in comparison with producers in general, and
- (d) it is fair and reasonable that he should be allocated Direct Sales Quota as a result of this exceptional hardship claim.

Persons to Whom Article 4 (1) (c) of Council Regulation 857/84 Applies

29. Article 4 (1) (c) of Council Regulation 857/84 applies to "producers undertaking farming as their main occupation".

E. GENERALAmendments and Additions*

30. This joint written statement of general guidance may be altered, varied or revoked and any new joint written statement made by the Dairy Produce Quota Tribunals for England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.

Interpretation

1(1) In this general guidance unless the subject or context otherwise requires, "the appropriate local panel" means the local panel for the locality in which the holding of the claimant is to be treated as situated under the Regulations.

"The Principal Regulation" means the Dairy Produce Quota Regulations 1984 (S.I. No. 1047).

"The Secondary Regulation" means the Dairy Produce Quota (Definition of Base Year Revision Claims) Regulations 1984 (S.I. No. 1048).

"The United Kingdom Regulations" means the Principal Regulation and the Secondary Regulation.

"The European Regulations" means the EEC Council Regulation 857/84 and the Commission Regulation 1371/84 as amended.

"The Rules" means the Rules of Procedure for the local panels for England and Wales as directed by the Chairman of the Tribunal.

(2) Subject as aforesaid words and expressions in this general guidance shall bear the same meanings respectively as in the United Kingdom Regulations.

Jurisdiction of the Local Panels

2(1) The United Kingdom Regulations confer upon the appropriate panel jurisdiction to hear and determine:

- (a) requests for reviews of rejections by the Minister of special case claims for Secondary Direct Sales Quota and Secondary Wholesale Quota, and
  - (b) the Secondary Direct Sales Quotas and Secondary Wholesale Quotas of those claimants whose claims thereof have been reserved by the Minister or the Local Panel itself for further examination.
- (2) The method by which such a request for a review is instituted and the procedures on such reviews and on consideration of special case claims on further examination thereof are outlined in the Rules.

Special case claims

3 A special case claim is a claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota or for Secondary Wholesale Quota, or for both, and may be either:

- (a) a base year revision claim, or
- (b) a development claim, or
- (c) both a base year revision claim and a development claim.

Request for review of rejection of special case claim by the Minister

4(1) At the hearing of a request for the review by the appropriate Local Panel of a rejection of a special case claim by the Minister the question for the determination of the Local Panel is whether or not, on the evidence before it, that rejection should be confirmed or the special case claim should be reserved for further examination [see paragraph 19 below].

(2) The rejection by the Minister of a base year revision claim should be confirmed by the Local Panel in the absence of the following particulars from the claimant—

- (a) The alternative base year chosen by him (being an alternative permitted by the Regulations) [see paragraph 5 below], and
- (b) The exceptional event on which he bases his claim (being one of the exceptional events specified in the European Regulations) [see paragraph 6 below], and
- (c) In the case of a claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota, the quantity of dairy produce sold by him by direct sales from his holding in his alternative base year, or in the case of a claim for Secondary Wholesale Quota, the quantity of dairy produce delivered by him from his holding in his alternative base year and in each of the three relevant quarters [Quarter A, Quarter B and Quarter C] of his alternative base year [see paragraph 7 below], and

(d) The amount of his claim for Secondary Sales Quota or Secondary Wholesale Quota [see paragraph 9 below].

(3) The rejection by the Minister of a development claim should be confirmed by the Local Panel in the absence of the following particulars from the claimant:

(a) the sub-paragraph of Article 3 (1) of the EEC Council Regulation 857/84 on which he relies (see paragraph 16 below);

(b) evidence that his reliance is based on an investment of a capital nature (which was made or in respect of which an obligation was entered into before 1st March 1984) essential to the increase of dairy produce intended by him;

(i) in the case of a claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota, to be sold by direct sale from his holding, or

(ii) in the case of a claim for Secondary Wholesale Quota, to be delivered by wholesale delivery from his holding; and

(c) the total quantity of dairy produce which he expects to sell by direct sale or deliver by wholesale delivery from his holding in the first quota year (that is to say, the period starting on 2nd April 1984 and ending 31st March 1985) and

(d) his Secondary Direct Sales Quota claim or Secondary Wholesale Quota claim or both, as the case may be (see paragraph 18 below).

Alternative Base year

5 (1) In the case of Secondary Direct Sales Quota the alternative base year, where the claimant is also an applicant for Wholesale Quota, must be 1983 or the alternative base year chosen by him under the Second Schedule to the Regulations.

(2) Subject as aforesaid the alternative base year may be the calendar year 1981, 1982 or 1983.

Grounds for a Base Year Revision Claim

6 (1) Where milk production on a holding during the base year has been affected by exceptional events occurring before or during that year, the exceptional events specified in the European Regulations for a special case claim are:

"a serious natural disaster affecting the producer's farm to a substantial extent (see paragraph 10 below).

an epizootic affecting all or part of the milk herd (see paragraph 12 below).

if the producer runs the holding himself, occupational incapacity of long duration (see paragraph 14 below).

theft or accidental loss of all or part of the dairy herd, where this has had a significant effect on the milk production of the holding" (see paragraph 15 below).

(2) In considering whether or not a claimant has established one or other of the foregoing exceptional events for an alternative base year claim, the words set out above (being quotations from the European Regulations) should be given their normal, everyday meanings in the context in which they appear in those European Regulations.

(3) The exceptional event or exceptional events relied upon by a claimant for the purpose of his base year revision claim must be shown to have adversely affected the milk production of his holding in his base year. A claimant's holding should not be regarded as adversely affected in the absence of satisfactory evidence of a drop in the milk production of the holding in consequence of the exceptional event or exceptional events.

Dairy Produce

7 (1) The expression "dairy produce" means milk and the following expressed in kilograms of milk according to the following formula:

(a) cream on the basis that 1 kilogram of cream equals 26.3 kilograms of milk multiplied by the percentage fat content of the cream, divided by 100,

(b) butter on the basis that 1 kilogram of butter equals 22.5 kilograms of milk, and

(c) cheese on the basis that 1 kilogram of cheese equals such quantity of milk (the fat content of which has not been altered since milking) as is required to make it.

(2) Totally or partly skimmed milk must be taken into account as dairy produce except to the extent that the fat content of the milk prior to skimming has already been taken into account in the form of cream, butter and cheese.

The Relevant Quarters

(8) The three relevant quarters of a claimant's alternative base year are Quarter A, Quarter B and Quarter C, these being as follows:

(a) Quarter A—the days in any year, except 1984, from 1st April to 30th June and, in 1984 from 2nd April to 30th June,

(b) Quarter B—the days in any year from 1st July to 30th September, and

(c) Quarter C—the days in any year from 1st October to 31st December.

The amount of a base year revision claim (Direct Sales Quota)

9 (1) The amount (in terms of dairy produce) of a claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota must be particularised by a claimant in his claim and must not be:

(a) in the case of a claim for 1981 as an alternative base year, greater than 101 per cent. of the quantity of his dairy produce sold by him by direct sale in that year, or

- (b) in the case of a claim for a year other than 1981 as an alternative base year, greater than 94 per cent. of the quantity of his dairy produce sold by him by direct sale in such alternative base year.

The amount of a base year revision claim (Wholesale Quota)

(2) The amount (in terms of dairy produce) of a claim for Secondary Wholesale Quota must be particularised by a claimant in his claim and must not be greater than his alternative base year wholesale quantity reduced by 9 per cent.

Serious Natural Disaster

10(1) A serious natural disaster affecting the producer's farm to a substantial extent may be held to have occurred only where there is satisfactory evidence of a serious natural disaster, whenever occurring, (as opposed to any other type of disaster).

(2) Having regard to the Secondary Regulations, a claim under this head, if based on bad weather during the base period, may only be accepted if the bad weather caused a reduction of not less than 15 per cent. in the claimant's milk production in the base period.

(3) Subject as aforesaid a claim under this heading should only be admitted where the evidence establishes that the effect of the serious natural disaster on the claimant's milk production was substantial.

Accidental destruction

11(1) The accidental destruction of the producer's fodder resources or building used for dairy livestock should be held to have occurred only where satisfactory evidence of such an accidental destruction (as opposed to any other kind of destruction) before or during the claimant's base period is provided, showing the extent to which the fodder resources were destroyed, or the nature of the building destroyed.

(2) Evidence for the foregoing purposes may be an insurance claim accepted by the company concerned or the testimony of credible witnesses.

An epizootic

12(1) An epizootic is a disease temporarily prevalent among animals in a locality.

(2) Subject to (3) below, an epizootic affecting all or part of the milk herd should only be held to have occurred where satisfactory evidence is provided of an outbreak of a disease (as opposed to a health problem caused by parasites or nutritional deficiency or the like) affecting all or part of the claimant's dairy herd. In the case of any disease such evidence may be provided by the certificate of a veterinary surgeon or a member of the State Veterinary Services, stating the number in the herd, the number affected by the disease, and the duration and effect of the disease on the animals affected. In the case of a notifiable disease, a check may be made in the records of the State Veterinary Services.

(3) The list of diseases (a copy whereof is annexed hereto) which has been issued by the Commission of the European Communities for the purposes of the European Regulations shall be taken into account by the appropriate Local Panel in considering a claim under this head, but in deciding whether or not a disease in a particular case was, or was not, an epizootic, the appropriate Local Panel shall not treat the inclusion of such disease in, or the exclusion of such disease from, such list as decisive.

13(1) A compulsory appropriation of a considerable part of the utilizable agricultural area of the producer's holding, resulting in a temporary reduction in the fodder area of the holding, may be held to have occurred where the claimant's land or its use was acquired compulsorily by an authority having powers so to do, or where the claimant's land or its use was acquired by such an authority by agreement, provided that the authority could and would have been likely to have used its powers to acquire the land or its use compulsorily if no such agreement had been so made.

(2) The land concerned must have been a considerable part of the utilizable agricultural area of the claimant's holding, requiring satisfactory evidence to be provided of the utilizable agricultural area of the holding immediately before and after the acquisition.

(3) The acquisition must have resulted in a temporary reduction in the fodder area of the holding, requiring satisfactory evidence of the extent and duration of the alleged reduction.

Occupational Incapacity

14. Occupational incapacity of long duration of the producer (relevant only if the producer runs the holding himself) should be held to have occurred only where satisfactory evidence is supplied (such as a medical certificate). The certificate should state the nature, duration and extent of the incapacity. The nature of the incapacity must be such as to have prevented the producer from running the holding himself for a long period of time.

Theft of accidental loss

15. Theft or accidental loss of all or part of the dairy herd, where this has had a significant effect on the milk production of the holding, may be held to have occurred only where satisfactory evidence of the theft or accidental loss is provided. This may be provided by insurance claims accepted by the company concerned, or the testimony of credible witnesses.

Article 3(1) of the EEC Regulation 857/84

16. The claimant is required to specify in relation to a development claim whether he relies on:

- (a) a development plan lodged before 1st March 1984 under Directive 72/159 of the European Economic Community, which was implemented in the United Kingdom by the Farm and Horticulture Development Scheme, and by the Agriculture and Horticulture Development Scheme, or
- (b) an investment or investments made without such a development plan (whether or not such investment or investments were grant-aided).

Date and Nature of an Investment

17(1) For the purposes of a development claim, the investment must be of a capital nature and either made before 1st March 1984 or the claimant must have entered into a commitment to make it before that date and (to the extent it has not subsequently been made) remain committed to make it at the time of submitting his claim. In the latter case satisfactory evidence must be provided of the claimant's commitment to make the investment (such as a written contract entered into before 1st March 1984) as an intention to make an investment is not sufficient. Satisfactory evidence of a continuing commitment to make or complete the investment should also be provided.

(2) For the purposes of a development claim the investment must have been calculated to achieve an increase in milk production on the holding in comparison to the claimant's average monthly quantity of milk production taken from each month of any base period applicable to him. Satisfactory evidence should be provided of his actual average monthly quantity of milk production taken from each month of the base period and of the quantity of milk production on the holding which is calculated to be achieved in consequence of the investment.

(3) The investment must have been either in buildings or equipment or both and have been exclusively related to the production of dairy produce on the claimant's holding; provided that investment in cattle as an increase in the number of the claimant's dairy herd may also be taken into account where the investment in buildings or equipment or both was insufficient to justify a claim.

(4) A claim based on an investment in a building constructed or equipment installed before 1 March 1984 should only be admitted where satisfactory evidence of the nature and extent of the works or the nature of the equipment is provided (such as copies of or references to documents held by the Agricultural Departments in respect of application from grant-aid, or a certificate on the form provided to claimants completed and signed by a qualified accountant or receipted invoices for the goods or services supplied). Should the evidence provided by the claimant be insufficient for the purposes of the claim additional evidence may be requested (such as the expert advice of a member of the Agricultural Development and Advisory Service).

(5) A claim based on an investment in cattle as an increase in the number of the claimant's dairy herd should only be admitted where satisfactory evidence is provided that the additional cattle were intended as a permanent increase in the claimant's dairy herd in order to increase the dairy produce of the holding and were not intended as replacements for cattle in the dairy herd.

(6) The investment must have been essential to an increase in the dairy produce intended in the case of Secondary Direct Sales Quota, to be sold by direct sale or, in the case of Secondary Wholesale Quota, to be delivered by wholesale delivery, from the holding. Satisfactory evidence of such an intention should be provided.

Calculation of the claim

18(1) In the case of Secondary Direct Sales Quota, the claim must be for a specified quantity of dairy produce claimed by the claimant as his development quantity in relation to his holding which he claims as Secondary Direct Sales Quota [see paragraph 18(3) below].

(2) In the case of Secondary Wholesale Quota, the claim must be for a specified quantity of dairy produce equal to that percentage of the quantity of dairy produce claimed by him as his development quantity in relation to his holding which he does not claim as Secondary Direct Sales Quota [see paragraph 18(3) below].

(3) For the foregoing purpose the expression "development quantity" means the quantity of milk calculated, by reference to the increase from a producer's annualised quantity (that is to say his average monthly quantity of milk production, in any base period applicable to him, multiplied by 12) to the quantity of milk reasonably expected to be produced on his holding in the first quota year, (that is to say, the period from 2nd April 1984 to 31st March 1985) by taking, in respect of any expected increased quantity [see paragraph 18(5) below].

(a) in the band below 7.5 per cent. of his annualised quantity, nil,

(b) in the band from 7.5 per cent. to 12.5 per cent. of his annualised quantity, half of the expected increased quantity in that band, and

(c) in the band above 12.5 per cent. of his annualised quantity, the whole of the expected increased quantity in that band.

(4) The development quantity should be so calculated by reference to the increased number of milking cows which the claimant may reasonably be expected to have in his herd as a result of the investment by 31st March 1985, multiplied by the expected annual yield per cow, notwithstanding that some of those cows could not have been housed, fed or milked throughout the first quota year. For such purpose the Local Panel may assume in default of satisfactory evidence to the contrary, a standard yield per cow of 5,000 litres. Satisfactory evidence should be produced of the additional number of cows which are or are intended to be housed, fed and milked as a direct consequence of the investment.

(5) For the purposes of determining a development quantity the expression "any base period applicable to him" means:

(a) where he is a claimant only for Direct Sales Quota, the base period eventually determined for him, or

(b) where he is a claimant only for Wholesale Quota, the base period eventually determined for him, or

(c) where he is a claimant both for Direct Sales Quota and Wholesale Quota the base period eventually determined for him in respect of his Direct Sales Quota and any different base period eventually determined for him in respect of his Wholesale Quota in accordance with the United Kingdom Regulations.

Decision on review of rejection of special case claim by the Minister

19(1) At the hearing of a request for a review of a rejection of a special case claim by the Minister (whether the special case claim be a base year revision claim or a development claim or both) the Local Panel should consider, on the evidence before it, whether or not, on a balance of probabilities, the claimant has established a prima facie case for a further examination of his special case claim.

(2) If a claimant does establish a prima facie case for a further examination of his special case claim as aforesaid, the Local Panel should require him to make such amendments and additions (if any) to his forms and the documents submitted by him therewith as may be necessary to ensure that his claim accords with the United Kingdom Regulation and, subject to the approval of such amendments and additions by the Local Panel, it should then reserve the special case claim for further examination in accordance with the Rules.

(3) If a claimant does not establish a prima facie case for a further examination of his special case claim the Local Panel should confirm the rejection of that claim by the Minister (there being no appeal against such a decision of the Local Panel).

(4) Every decision of the Local Panel confirming the rejection of a special case claim for further examination must be reduced to writing and contain the reasons therefor.

Decision on further examination of special case claim

20. (1) At a further examination of a special case claim the Local Panel should consider all the evidence relating to that special case claim which is before it (including any documents relating to the claimant or his holding which may be supplied for the purpose by the Minister from the records kept by the Agricultural Department, and any documents relating to the claimant's wholesale deliveries of milk and his allocation of Primary Quota which may be supplied for the purpose by the Milk Marketing Board), and the Local Panel may consult any person thereon whom they consider to be capable of assisting them in such further examination (but in such latter event shall comply with the requirements of the Rules in relation thereto).

(2) On a further examination of a special case claim the Local Panel must determine an estimate of the Secondary Direct Sales Quota or Secondary Wholesale Quota of the claimant which it considers to be justified by his special case claim, but in so doing:

(a) it shall determine a base year revision claim and estimate the Quota (if any) resulting therefrom before it shall determine a development claim and estimate the Quota (if any) resulting therefrom, and

(b) it shall not aggregate a base year revision claim with a development claim but shall deal with each separately.

(3) The appropriate Local Panel shall allow a claimant to amend the amount of his claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota or Secondary Wholesale Quota where the claimant has made a mistake or error (howsoever occurring) in calculating his claim for Secondary Direct Sales Quota or Secondary Wholesale Quota for the purpose of the United Kingdom Regulations or in entering the amount of his special case claim for such Quota in any form or document submitted by him or on his behalf.

(4) The amount of the Secondary Direct Sales Quota or Secondary Wholesale Quota which the Local Panel shall estimate to be justified for a claimant may be nil or less than or equal to the amount of his claim for such quotas as set out in the particulars of his claim but subject to paragraph 19 (3) above shall not exceed the amount so particularised by the claimant.

(5) Every decision of the Local Panel containing an estimate of the Secondary Direct Sales Quota or Secondary Wholesale Quota of a claimant must be reduced to writing and must, where the estimate is less than the claimant's special case claim as set out in the particulars of his claim, contain the reasons why the Local Panel consider that its estimate of such Quota is justified (there being an appeal against such decision to the Tribunal).

General Guidance to take effect subject to the Joint Statement of General Guidance issued by the Tribunals

21. The provisions of this General Guidance are, and shall take effect and be read and construed, subject to the provisions for the time being in force of the Joint Statement of General Guidance issued by the Tribunals for England and Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland relating to direct sales quota pursuant to paragraph 27 of the Fifth Schedule to the Principal Regulation.

General Guidance to take effect subject to the European Regulations and the United Kingdom Regulations

22. The provisions of this General Guidance are, and shall take effect and be read and construed, subject to the provisions of the European Regulations and the United Kingdom Regulations to the intent that, should there be any conflict between any provision of this General Guidance and the European Regulations or between any provision of this General Guidance and the United Kingdom Regulations then the provisions of the European Regulations or the United Kingdom Regulations, as the case may be, shall prevail.

23. This General Guidance may be altered, varied or revoked, and any new General Guidance may be made by the Dairy Produce Quota Tribunal for England and Wales.
