Milan, March 19. N. S.

THE Thirteen Imperial Battalions which are design'd for Piedmont, continue their March, and are already arriv'd in this Dutchy. Those Troops which came from the Mantuan, have receiv'd their Recruits, and are now compleated. His Imperial Majesty has given Orders for the making an Inventory of the Goods and Effects belonging to the Marquis of Caravaggio, who some time since retir'd to Rome with his only Daughter, who is the last Heiress of the House of Sforza; but the Reasons for such his Commands are variously reported. The Earl of Peterborough being in some measure recover'd from his Indisposition, set forwards on the Eleventh of this Instant for Turin. Abraham Stanyan, Esq; the Queen of Great Britain's Plenipotentiary, and Monsieur Vander Meer, Plenipotentiary for the States General, have held frequent Conferences with the Ministers of his Imperial Majesty, and with those of his Royal Highness the Duke of Savoy, sometimes seperately, and sometimes in the Presence of both of them, and several Accounts of large Sums of Money expended by his Royal Highness for the maintenance of the Imperial Troops, have been presented to the Imperial Ministers, and divers Equivalents have been propos'd for the Vigevano, but the whole Affair is put off till after Easter, when the Conferences will be re-assumed.

Genoa, March 26. N. S. We have Advice here that General Zumjungen, having first taken the Posts about Porto Ercole, and form'd the Blockade of the Place with four thousand Imperialists, had erected two Batteries, each of seven Pieces of Cannon, with which he fir'd upon the Town; whose Garrison did not amount to above five or six hundred Men, so that he hop'd to be Master of it in a few Days. However, the Governour had sent by Sea all useles Persons to Civita Vecchia, and was resolv'd to defend it to the utmost Extremity. It is confirm'd from Milan, that eight thousand Foot, and fifteen hundred Horse, have receiv'd Orders to embark at Vado for Catalonia. The Privateers of Holland and Zeland, have taken and carried several French Prizes into Leghorne.

Hamburgb, April 1. N. S. It being reported here that the King of Denmark has given express Orders for seizing all Vessels belonging to this City, wherever his Ships shall meet them out of the limits of the Empire, the Council of Commerce assembled this Morning, to deliberate concerning such Measures as might be proper to be taken on this Occasion; and it is said they have come to a Resolution, to make a Deputation to the Ministers of the Maritime Powers which are resident here, to desire their Assistance and good Offices with his Danish Majesty to stop any such Proceeding. The famous Doctor Meyer, who has been so remarkable during the Troubles of this City, is dead at Stetin. The Advices from Poland continue still very dubious, in relation to the Suedish Affairs in Turkey; for the some affirm that the King of Sweden is departed from Bender, yet others assure us to the contrary, and that he had seiz'd on a Messenger sent from Constantinople by the Hostages of the Czar of Muscovy to King Augustus, and taken all his Dispatches; that the Palatine of Kiovia was likewise at Bender, but his Troops were in Vallachia on this side of Jassi; that the Cossacks remain'd still upon the Pruth, and the Muscovites near Bialazerkiew, all being quiet on the Frontiers of Turkey. Other Accounts say, that his Suedish Majesty will be on his March from that Place very suddenly. The Count de Vellingk has receiv'd Letters from Bender, dated the first of the last Month, which import, that notwithstanding the surrender of Asoph, all things at Constantinople appear very favourable for the Interests of the King his Master. They write from Radom, that the Tribunal assembled there to regulate the Payment of the Army, had on the Twenty sixth of the last Instant, come to a Resolution to pay Eight Quarters Arrears to the Army of the Crown, but that the Payment would be by Assignations on the several Palatinates. Monsieur de Brebendoffski, Great Treasurer of Poland, who has all along Testify'd his great Zeal for the Interests of King Augustus, dy'd at Radom some Days ago. Several Senators, who have been chosen by the lesser Diets, are setting out from that Place, to assist at the General Diet which is to be held at Warsaw, and, it is hop'd, will meet with success, in relation to the Proposals to be made them on the part of his Polish Majesty. They write from Berlin, that there are Discourses concerning a Marriage between the Hereditary Prince of Hesse Cassel, and the Margravine Dowager of the Margrave Philip; but the Mourning upon the account of his Death being likely to continue, there can be no more said of it at present; but only it is expected, by that means the Disputes between the Court of Berlin, and the Princess of Freizeland, concerning the Inheritance of the late King William, may be brought to an amicable Conclusion.

Berlin, April 4. N. S. Before the Departure of the Prince of Hesse Cassel, on his Journey for Holland, his Prussian Majesty made him a present of Two thousand Duckats, and two very fine Horses, with a Request, that he would take that Court in his way, upon his return from Flanders. The Margravine Dowager of the late Margrave Philip, went lately to Lessau, to see the Prince of Anhalt, her Brother, who has been indispos'd of an Ague, but is in a fair way of Recovery. It is reported here, that the Czar is to come shortly into these Parts, and to have an Interview with the King in some of his Country Palaces.

Brassels, April 15. N. S. All things in these Countries are preparing for the forming of the Grand Army in Flanders. We have Advice from Dotay, that the Earl of Albemarle, the Prince of Holstein, Monsieur Vegelin de Claerbergen, and the Generals Cadogan, Ivoy and Chanclos, were arriv'd at that Place, with several Regiments of the Frontier Garrisons. These General Officers all march'd hence on the Twelfth Instant, at the Head of Nine Battalions
