The Persons appointed by the Right Honourable the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, for taking in the Tickets, and giving out Standing Orders in lieu thereof, in the Lottery for 1,500,000 l. Ann. 1711. do hereby notice, That all Persons possess'd of the said Tickets may, at any time after the 23d Day of April Instant, between the Hours of Eight in the Morning and One at Noon (Sundays excepted) bring their Tickets to the Office at Whitehall, where the Managers of the said Lottery did sit, and have the same there enter'd and mark'd, in order to the making forth the said Orders, which will be dispatch'd with all Expedition: Therefore the Persons bringing the said Tickets, are desir'd to List the same in a Numerical Order (as near as may be) and to write in their List the Name, and other proper Additions of the Persons for whom the Orders are to be made forth; as also how many, and which of the Tickets so listed, they shall desire to be included in one Order; the Act of Parliament having allow'd, that any Number of Tickets, not exceeding 100, may be included in one Order, so as the said Tickets be in the same 1000, or Course of Payment. But then all Persons are desir'd to take notice, that after their Tickets are enter'd, and mark'd for Orders, according to their Lists, they must be careful not to alienate, sell or dispose of the same, other than in such Parcels, as shall answer the Entry made of the Numbers, to be contain'd in every Order. For in case any Parcel of Tickets belonging to, or to be included in any Order, shall by Sale, or otherwise, be broke or divided, the Order which should belong to the Parcel of Tickets so broken or divided, cannot be deliver'd out, till the Tickets which break or divide the Parcel, are recover'd back from the Persons who have bought, or otherwise become legally possess'd of the same. N.B. The 2000 Tickets contain'd in the three first Courses of Payment are not to be brought for Orders, because Money being reserv'd in the Exchequer to pay off those three Courses, the Tickets themselves will be taken in by the Paymaster, and discharg'd accordingly.
