the Camp of the Fifteenth Instant, but they bring no Account of the opening the Trenches before Quefnoy. The Garrison of that Place have made a vigorous Sally with Twelve hundred Men, which were beaten back into the Town, after an obstinate Refistance. Major General Grovestein on the Ninth Instant enter'd the Province of Champaigne, with a Detachment of Eighteen hundred Horse, in order to lay that Country under Contribution, but we have not as yet received any Account of his return. Several Imperial and Palatine Troops are expected here from the Rhine:

Utrecht, June 17. Yeilerday no Conference was held as usual between the Ministers of the Allies in the Town-house, pursuant to what they agreed on when they met last there. The Marquis Rinuccini, Plenipotentiary from the Great Duke of Tuscany, who has been for some Days at the Hague, is return'd from thence, and the Marquis du Bourg, one of the Plenipotentiaries from his Royal Highness the Duke of Savoy, is gone thither. The Right Honourable the Lord Cornbury receiv'd Visits Yesterday from many of the Ministers, and other Persons of distinction residing here; and this Day his Lordship, accompany'd out of Town by the Lord Privy Seal, went from hence in order to embark for Great Britain.

On Wednesday Morn-Hague, June, 17. N. S. ing, being the Fifteenth of this Instant, the States-General held an extraordinary Assembly, which continued till Night. Yesterday Morning we had advice from the Army, that the Prince of Hanover arrived there upon the tenth of this Month. Meffieurs Welderen and Hop, came to the Army upon the Eleventh Instant, and the same Day had a Conference with his Grace the Duke of Ormond. Upon the twelfth in the Afternoon the French made a Sally out of Quesnoy upon Two hundred Men of the Allies, and would have drove them from the Post which the latter had seized on, but the I rince of Heffe coming to their Affishance, the Enemy were obliged to retire into the Town. Capain de Tour, of the Guards of Orange belonging to the States, was killed in this Action. Major-General Grovenstein is marched with a Body of Fourteen thousand Dra+ goons and Huffars of Prince Eugenes Army, to penetrate into the Province of Campaign, and they have advice in the Army, that he was already got beyond the Somme and the Oile; and that to avoid any manner of Danger from the Detachments of the French, which nevertheless he did not apprehend to be within Twenty four Hours of him, he would make his return through Germany by the way of Traerback. At the same time the Major-General had dispatch'd some Hussars towards Paris, in hopes of a Booty. The Deputies of the States held an ex-traordinary Affembly Yesterday, after which they tent away an Express to the Army.
