St. James's, June 19.

THIS Day the following Address from the Borough of Horsham, in the County of Suffex, was presented to Her Majesty by John Middleton, Esq; one of the Representatives for the said Borough, introduced by the most Honourable Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Horsham, in the County of Suffex.

Madam,

WITH Hearts full of Gratitude and Affection, we beg leave to approach Your Sacred Presence, with our Congratulations, for the Success that has attended Your Majesty's Endeavours for a General Peace, notwithstanding the restless Attempts, of Your Enemies, and the artful Contrivances of those, who envy our Happiness, to hinder this Great and Good Work.

The near Prospect of the many Benefits Your Kingdoms will receive by such a Peace, is very pleasing to us, and the Honour Your Majesty has restored to Great Britain, by being at the Head of this Negotiation, gives us the greatest Satisfaction and Content.

The entire Confidence we have in Your Majesty's Care for the Welfare and Prosperity of all Your Subjects, encourages us to desire You to proceed, and compleat our Joy, by obtaining for us a speedy Peace upon Terms so Honourable and Advantageous to this Nation.

May the Almighty still Crown all Your Majesty's Undertakings with Success, direct Your Councils, and those employ'd under You, (with the same Courage, Zeal and Fidelity they have lately shewn) to disappoint and defeat the Vile Practices of all designing Men, and perfect Your Majesty's Great Labour of making us yet a Happy and a Flourishing People.

The following Address from the Town of Kingston upon Thames, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary St. John.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, High-Steward, Learned Steward, Recorder and Freemen of the Town of Kingston upon Thames, at their General Court-Leet and Court-Baron held for the said Town, on Tuesday the Tenth of June, 1712.

Most Dread Sovereign!

WE humbly beg leave to acknowledge with the utmost Sense of Gratitude, Your Majesty's great Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms upon which a General Peace may be made; whereby all Your Subjects may with the highest Satisfaction, see Your Majesty, incessantly continuing Your Tendernefs, and Care, for the Safety, Interest and Welfare of Your People, and for procuring to Your Allies, whatever is justly due to them by Treaties, and necessary for their Security.

We are sensible that the Obligations we have all to Your Majesty for this, are beyond what is possible for Words to express, and are fully persuaded, from Your Majesty's great Wisdom and Prudence, a Peace will be speedily Settled, Glorious to Your Majesty and Your Subjects, Honourable to Your Ministers, Advantageous and Happy to Your People and Allies; and do most humbly assure Your Majesty, that on all Occasions, and to the utmost of our Powers, we will stand by Your Majesty and Your Prerogative, against all Your Enemies and Opposers at Home and Abroad.

The following Address from the City of New Sarum, was presented to Her Majesty by Robert Pitt, Esq; accompanied by several other Gentlemen of the County of Sarum, introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary St. John.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, having always deeply at Heart the many Blessings we enjoy under Your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, cannot omit any Opportunity of repeating our unshaken Loyalty and Affection to Your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; as also on this occasion to express our full Joy and Satisfaction in Your Majesty's most wise and tender Care for the Good of Your own Kingdoms, the Security of the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, and restoring Peace to Europe.

Your Majesty has been pleased to give us a convincing Instance hereof, in Your most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament, wherein Your Majesty in Your great Goodness, has condescended to communicate to Your People the Terms on which a General Peace may be made, not only Safe and Honourable to Your own Kingdoms, but consistent also with the Common Security of Your Allies, and with what is due to them by Treaties.

May Your Majesty's pious Endeavours prove Effectual, towards perfecting so great and good a Work, to the Confusion of all secret Cabals and wicked Artifices to obstruct the same, that we and all Your Majesty's good Subjects, being blessed with Peace Abroad, and free from all Dregs of Faction at home, may long enjoy the Blessings of Your Majesty's happy and peaceable Reign over us.

All which Addresses Her Majesty receiv'd very Graciously.

Coire, June 5. N. S. Both Parties in the War of Switzerland, are so furiously incensed against each other, that the Prisoners are not treated so well as they would be by any other Enemy. This State in Compliance with the Demands made to them by the Cantons of Zurich and Bern, by Virtue of their ancient Alliances, have granted them the Succours which they had stipulated for amounting to Sixteen hundred Men, and the Officers are named who are
