Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 24 to Thursday June 26. 1712.

Anno Regni decimo Annæ Reginae.

By the Act for laying Duties upon all Gilt and Silver Wire,

IT is enacted, That for all Gilt and Silver Wire which shall be imported into Great Britain, after the first of July, 1712. (over and above all former Duties) there must be paid as followeth, viz.

For all Imported gilt Wire, after the rate of 1 s. for every Ounce Troy; and for all Imported silver Wire 9 d. for every such Ounce, and proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid by the Importer in ready Money before landing.

And for all gilt and silver Wire, after the said first of July, made in Great Britain, the Duties following, viz.

For all gilt Wire so made, after the rate of 8 d. for every Ounce Troy; and for all silver Wire so made, after the rate of 6 d. for every Ounce Troy, and proportionably for greater or lesser Quantities: To be paid by the Makers respectively.

That all Persons who shall draw, or cause to be drawn, any Gold or Silver into big Wire, shall give Notice in Writing at the next Office for the said Duties on Wire, of their respective Names, Places of Abode, and Places of drawing or making such Wire, on pain to forfeit 2 l. for every Offence in drawing such Wire, &c. without such Notice first given.

No Gold or Silver to be drawn into Wire, called big Wire, at any Place, other than some common Barr-house, to be approved by the Commissioners for the said Duties, on pain to forfeit 20 l. for every Offence.

All Refiners and other Persons who, after the said first of July, 1712. shall draw, or cause to be drawn, any gilt or silver Wire called big Wire, shall every Month, make a true Entry in Writing, at the next Wire-Office, of all the gilt and silver Wire by them drawn in such Month: The said Entries to contain the Weight and Kinds of all Wire, and how much thereof was made in each Week, on pain to forfeit 100 l. for every Neglect. Such Entries to be upon the Oath of the Refiner or chief Workman, (unless they be Quakers, and then upon Solemn Affirmation) to the best of their Knowledge and Belief, the said Oaths and Affirmations to be administered by the Officers to be appointed by the Commissioners for the said Duties.

Every Refiner or other Person drawing, or causing to be drawn, any Gold or Silver Wire, every six Weeks after they have or should have made their Entries, must pay and clear off all the said Duties due from them respectively, on pain to forfeit double Duty.

Officers are to be permitted by Day or by Night (if by Night, with a Constable or other Officer of the Peace) to enter the Barr-house, Work-house, or other Place used for drawing or making gilt or silver Wire, called big Wire; and to take Accounts of the just Weights of such Wire, which from time to time shall have been so drawn or made, and shall thereof make return to the Commissioners, or to such as they shall appoint, leaving a true Copy, if demanded, with the Maker, which return shall be a Charge, and if the Officer refuse such Copy he forfeits 40 s.

If the Charge be made by taking the Weight in big Wire, then an Allowance shall be made of a 5th Part, in consideration of wast in reducing the same to small Wire.

All Persons chargeable with the said Duties on Wire, must keep sufficient Scales and Weights at their Places of working, and must permit and assist the Officers to use the same on Penalty of 10 l.

Obstrusting or hindring any Officer, in execution of any of the Powers given by the said Act for ascertaining or securing the said Duties, is a forfeiture of 20 l. for every Offence.

Removing, carrying or sending away, or suffering to be removed, &c. any gilt or silver Wire, before Account taken thereof by the proper Officers from the Place where made, without 24 Hours notice to the Officers, of Intention to remove, &c. is a forfeiture of 40 l. for every Offence.

Wire which had not been Survey'd and taken an Account of, must be kept separate and apart from other gilt and silver Wire which has been Survey'd and taken an Account of by the proper Officers, on Penalty of 10 l. for every Offence.

Fraudulently hiding or concealing any Wire, chargeable by the said Act, or any Bars of Silver prepared for making the same, with intent to defraud Her Majesty is a forfeiture of 20 l. for every Offence.

All gilt and silver Wire, and Bars for making thereof, found in any private Work-house; and all private Utensils for barring or drawing such Wire, of which no Notice shall have been given, according to the direction of the said Act, or the value thereof, shall be forfeited, and they or the value thereof may be seiz'd and recovered by any Officer for the said Duties.

All gilt and silver Wire, and all Materials and Utensils for making thereof in the Custody of Makers, or of any other to their Use, or in Trust for them, are liable to and chargeable with all Debts and Duties for Wire in Arrear, and to all Penalties and Forfeitures for any Offence against the said Act,

Stock in Hand.

For all gilt and silver Wire, called big Wire, which any Wire-drawers, Refiners, or other Traders or Dealers in any such Wire, or any in Trust for them, or for their Use, shall be possessed of or interested in upon the said first of July, 1712. for Sale, there must be paid one half of the respective Rates and Duties before-mentioned, upon Imported or British made Wire.

All Refiners, Wire-drawers, or other Traders or Dealers in gilt or silver Wire, and others who in Trust for them, or for their Use, shall be possessed of, or have in their Custody or Possession on the said first of July, 1712. any Stock or Parcel of such big Wire for Sale, must, on or before the said first of July, 1712. make a true and particular Entry thereof at the next Office for the said Duties, on forfeiture of 50 l. and the gilt and silver Wire for which such Entry is omitted.

And

And in six Days after such Entry, must pay the said Duties, or give Security to pay the same in six Months next ensuing.

Upon Prompt Payment, viz. within the said six Days, there is to be an allowance after the rate of 10 s. per Cent. for the said six Months.

Neglecting so to pay, or give such Security, is a Forfeiture of double the Duty which should have been paid or secured.

Officers are to take true and particular Accounts of all Lig Wire, which any Wire-drawers, Refiners, or other Traders or Dealers therein, or any in trust for the same, shall on the said first Day of July be possessed of, and must be permitted to enter in the Day time, into any shop, Warehouse, Workhouse, or Dwellinghouse Outhouse, or other Place, belonging to such Persons, who are required to permit the Officers so to do on Request, under the Penalty of 20 l.

Clandestinely removing or carrying away, or suffering so to be, any big Wire, chargeable by the said Act with the said Duties, before the said Duties are paid or secured, or Fraudulently hiding or concealing any part of such Stock of Wire, is a Forfeiture of 10 l. for every Offence, and of the Wire so removed or hid.

And the Person in whose Custody such Wire shall be found who before such Discovery don't give notice thereof at the next Office for the said Duties, forfeits 12 s. for every pound Weight.

Luring the continuance of this Act, no Gold or Silver Thread, Lace, Fringe, or other Work made thereof, shall be Imported into Great Britain, upon pain of being Forfeited; and on the farther Penalty of 10 l. to be paid by the Importer for every parcel so Imported.

Her Majesty's Commissioners for the said Duties, having duly appointed Offices for the said Duties to be kept at the several Houses and Places where Offices of Excise are now kept: All Entries required by the foregoing Act, are to be respectively made at such Houses and Places so appointed.

St. James's, June 23. This Day the following Address from the Borough of Hertford, was presented to Her Majesty by Charles Casar, Esq; Treasurer of Her Majesty's Navy, and Richard Goulston, Ltq; their Representatives for the said Borough being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Hertford.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE most humbly beg leave to declare the just Sense we have of Your Majesty's great Goodness to Your People, in endeavouring to put an end to a tedious and expensive War.

The firmness Your Majesty has shown in insisting upon such Terms of Peace as will be for the true Interest of Your own Kingdoms, calls for the utmost Acknowledgments that Loyal Subjects are capable of making.

We are truly sensible that the fixing a just Balance of Power among Foreign Princes, will very much conduce to secure to us our Religion, the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, and our Liberties; and the greater the Advantages are that will accrue to Britain by this Peace, the better Your Majesty will be enabled to preserve these Blessings to us.

May no artful Contrivance of those who delight in War, obstruct the speedy finishing this great and good Work; and we heartily pray Almighty God that Your Majesty may long live to Reign over a Dutiful and Loyal People.

The following Address from the City of Oxford, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Abingdon, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotularum of the County of Oxford.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of Your Majesty's City of Oxford, in the County of Oxford, did with great Satisfaction read Your Majesty's most Gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament: We humbly acknowledge Your Majesty's undoubted Prerogative of making Peace and War, and cannot too much admire Your Majesty's great Condescension, tender Regard and Concern for Your People, that You have laid those Terms of Peace before Your Parliament, upon which a General Peace may be so happily concluded.

We are fully satisfied what Obstructions have been artfully contrived, to hinder Your Majesty of the Honour of this great and good Work.

We wish some Encouragement hath not been given Abroad to obstruct these happy Negotiations, when 'tis apparent what Jealousies have been endeavour'd to be raised at Home by seditious Spirits, to create (if possible) some Misunderstanding between Your Majesty and Your Allies. But, Blessed be God, all those Endeavours have been in vain, and will remain a standing Monument of Reproach to those Persons who would have had Great Britain sunk under the very unequal Burthen of the War.

We are satisfied, the Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover hath always been nearest Your Majesty's Heart, and to obtain safe and honourable Terms of Peace for all Your Allies, hath been Your Majesty's chiefest Care.

We come now to give Your Majesty our repeated Assurances of our entire Confidence in Your Majesty's Wisdom, and Care of all Your People; and as the part of the War Britain hath born hath been very unequal, so we do not doubt but that such distinction will be made for Britain, in the Terms of Peace, that they will not only be a Restitution upon former Negotiations, but will remain a Testimony to Posterity, of Your Majesty's prudent Choice of a Ministry, who have both Courage and Resolution to consult in the first place Your Majesty's Honour, the Security of the Succession, the Trade and Interest of all Your Subjects, as well as the Interest of Your Allies. The Confederates we hope will never envy Great Britain her Share in the Glory and Advantages of an honourable Peace, which has contributed so much to their Support.

May the Great God give a Blessing to Your Majesty and Your Counsels, that this Peace may be brought to a happy and speedy Conclusion; and may Your Majesty long live to enjoy the Benefits thereof, and Reign in the Hearts of all Your Subjects.

The following Address from the Corporation of Ludlow, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Tho. Powys, Her Majesty's Serjeant at Law, and Recorder of the said Town, and Alton Baldwin, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the most Honourable the Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, High Treasurer of Great Britain, and his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Salop, and had the Honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of Your Ancient and Loyal Town of Ludlow in the County of Salop, in Common-Council assembled.

Dread Sovereign!

WE humbly desire leave, with the most profound Submission, to cast our selves at Your Royal Feet, and beg You will accept this early Tribute of our unreerved Affection and Testimony of our utmost Gratitude ritude, which we offer with a Joy equal (if possible) to our Duty to Your Majesty, and Thankfulness to the great Author of Peace and Lover of Concord, who hath inspired You and Your Prudent Ministry, to undertake so Advantageous and so Christian a Work.

The Power of making Peace and War is the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, and therefore cannot but gratefully acknowledge Your Majesty's Extraordinary Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms upon which a General Peace may be made: Your tender Concern, and steady pursuit of the true Interest of Your own People; Your particular Care of the Protestant Succession, and Your Endeavours to procure what is due by Treaties to Your Allies, and what is necessary for their Safety would add, (if any thing could) to our Affections and Zeal for Your Sacred Person and Government, and surely cannot but, with irresistible Conviction, subdue the most Ungrateful and Factious of Your Subjects, to a willing and chearfull Obedience.

We do not a little value our Selves, that we are all of one Heart in a zealous Allegiance, that we are firmly united against all Your Enemies and Opposers whatsoever.

And in our unfeigned Acknowledgments for what Your Majesty hath already done in Your present Negotiations of Peace, as well as in our earnest Prayers, that You may speedily finish so Glorious and so beneficial a Work, which Your Consummate Wisdom hath so far advanced.

That after a long and prosperous Reign over us, You may be Crowned in the Peaceful possession of an everlasting Kingdom.

The following Address from the City of Wells, was presented to Her Majesty by Edward Colston, Jun. one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Masters and Burgeses of the City of Wells, with the utmost Gratitude, acknowledge Your Majesty's great Goodness, in endeavouring to procure, after a long and expensive War, a Safe and Honourable Peace.

That Your Majesty may bring the same to a speedy Conclusion, and live long to enjoy the Blessings of it, are the hearty Wishes and Prayers of, Madam, Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Petersburgh, June 7. N. S. The Courier who was lately dispatch'd back to Constantinople, carried only a general Ratification of all that had been Transacted by the Muscovite Plenipotentiaries, but the Ratification in form is now ready, and will be sent away suddenly with very considerable Presents for the chief Ministers at the Port. His Czarish Majesty has sent an Express to King Augustus, to let him know that he will go directly to the Head of his Army in Pomerania, without having any interview with his Majesty in Poland. The Czar's Baggage will set forward to Day or to Morrow for Riga, and his Departure is fixed for the Fourteenth. Before his going thither his Majesty will assist at the Launching of a Man of War of Fifty four Guns which he built himself, and is called the Pultava. The Fleet near Cronshloffe consists already of three Men of War, of fifty Guns each, and four Frigates from thirty six to sixteen Guns, besides other Vessels. On the Thirteenth of the last Month above a third part of the Town of Mosco was burnt, and most of the Houses of the chief Nobility were destroyed by the Fire. The Foundry, with a great Magazine of Powder, was likewise blown up. Before this Accident Five thousand Families of different Degrees were ordered to settle themselves here, that is a Thousand Families of the Gentry, Five hundred Merchants, five hundred substantial Tradesmen, Two thousand Artificers, and a Thousand Shopkeepers. They are to be chosen by the Senate, and the Places where they must build are already mark'd out for them. The Czar and the whole Court are gone into Mourning for a Princess his half Sister, who died at Mosco.

Florence, June 14. N. S. Letters from Vado of the Eleventh Instant bring advice, that Her Majesty's Ship the Tartar, was to Sail the Week following for Barcelona; as were likewise the Dutch Men of War arrived there from Leghorn, and the English Transports which were to take on board six thousand German Foot that lay there to embark for the Service in Catalonia.

Venice, June 17. N. S. They write from Naples, that a new Man of War was Launched there, and called the St. Leopold. The Emperor has ordered the building of another large Man of War, and two new Gallies, designing in time to form a Fleet for the Security of that Kingdom. We have Advices from Rome, that the Papal Gallies were set out from Civita Vecchia for Marseilles, whither they are to carry Signior Bentivoglio, who goes with the Character of Nuncio to the Court of France. The Senate having occasion for Money for the publick Service, designs to open the Golden Book, to enter such Persons as will buy the Nobility of Venice for themselves or Families. The Nassau Galley arrived here on Saturday last, in twenty five Days from London, being very richly laden.

Milan, June 18. N. S. Some Days ago Prince Pio arrived here from Vienna, and having received Twenty five thousand Pistoles from the Treasury, set out for Genoa in order to Embark for Barcelona, whither he is to carry that Sum for the use of the Empress. The Emperor has demanded of this State a Million of Crowns towards the War in Spain, for the raising whereof it is intended to oblige the monied Men to send each of them a Sum in proportion to his Riches; and for the reimbursing that Sum, Funds are to be appointed that will repay the Principal and Interest in a certain Number of Years, besides which the subscribers are to have the additional Advantage of being erected into a Bank.

Berlin, June 25. N. S. Prince Menzikoff on Sunday last had a short Audience of his Prussian Majesty at Charlottenburg, and having received the Visits of the principal Officers of the Court, set out from hence the next Day, in order to return to Pomerania. On Tuesday last three Ships laden with Bombs, Mortars, and other Ammunition, passed through this Place in order to join the Artillery which King Augustus had sent down the Elbe from Dresden. These Vessels were at first designed for Garz in Pomerania, but the Course which they take at present makes People believe that the Northern Allies will attack Wismar or the Dutchy of Bremen.

These are to give Notice, That from and after Thursday the Third of July next, the Post will go every Night, (Sundays excepted) between the General Post-Office, London, and Tunbridge-Wells, during the Summer Season.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed this Session, Intituled, An Act for the better Collecting and Receiving the Duties granted for the Support of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich; It is directed, that all Masters and Owners of Ships and Vessels, should take Care to clear the Six-pences a Month out of their Seamens Wages, with the Receivers of the said Duty, within 14 Days after their clearing inwards at the Custom House, under a Penalty of 20 l. Notice is hereby given thereof, that they may avoid the Penalty.

The Royal Lustring Company will expose to Sale by Inch of Candle, on Thursday the 2^d of July next at Ten in the Morning, a Parcel of English broad and narrow Alamos and Lustrings, at their House in Adermanbury, where Books of the Sale may be had, and the Goods seen three Days before the Sale.

Noticed

Notice is hereby given, that three Companies of Invalids, doing Duty at the Tower of London, will be paid (at Mrs. Calverly's Suttling-house in the Tower) six-ry Days Subsistence, from the 25th of October to the 23d of December last, on Monday next, by Seven in the Morning, being the 30th of this Instant June.

Notice is hereby given, that the Officers and Company of Her Majesty's late Ship the Restauration, will be paid their respective Shares of Her Majesty's Bounty for the Prisoners taken in the Heureux and Sage Privateers, on Monday the 30th Instant, at Mr. Roc's House in Bett's-street, Ratcliff.
