SOUTH YORKSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

The South Yorkshire County Council (Oakbrook Road, Sheffield) (Prohibition of Waiting) Order 1985

Notice is hereby given that on 12th December 1985 the South Yorkshire County Council made an Order under the provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

The effect of the Order which will come into operation on 6th January 1986 will be to prohibit waiting by vehicles at any time in that length of the north-west side of Oakbrook Road, Sheffield, which extends from a point 64 metres north-east of its junction with the footpath leading to Cruise Road for a distance of 45 metres in a north-easterly direction.

Exceptions to the Order will permit waiting for the purpose of picking up and setting down passengers, loading and unloading goods, in connection with building, industrial or demolition operations, the removal of obstructions to traffic, the maintenance of the roads and the services therein, in pursuance of statutory powers or duties and for the collection and delivery of postal packets. The usual exceptions for disabled persons' vehicles are also included in the Order.

A copy of the Order together with a map showing the restricted road may be examined during normal office hours at the offices of (i) the County Council, County Hall, Barnsley, (ii) County Engineer, Arundel House, Furnival Square, Sheffield, and (iii) Sheffield City Council, Taptonville Road, Broomhill, Sheffield.

If you wish to question the validity of the Order, or of any of the provisions contained therein on the grounds that it is not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, or on the grounds that any requirement of that Act or of any Instrument made under it has not been complied with in relation to the Order you may, within 6 weeks from 12th December 1985, apply to the High Court for this purpose.
