HE following Address from the Borough of Gatton, was presented to Her Majesty by William Newland, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Surry.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Burgesses and Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Gatton, in the County of Surry.

antient Borough of Gatton, in the County of Surry.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WERE it pollible for Your most Sacred Majesty to Reign yet more Absolutely in the Hearts of Your Loyal Subjects, Your late unparalleled Condescension, in communicating to Your People the Terms upon which a Peace may be made, would very much encrease our dutiful Affection to so Wise and Gracious a Sovereign.

It being Your Majesty's undoubted Prerogative to make Peace and War, what Words can express the abundance of our Joy and Thankfulness on this Occasion, when the Terms of Peace are in all respects so very Honourable and Advantageous to Great Britain?

The important Fortress of Dunkirk being actually delivered into Your Majesty's Hands, secures our home Trade, and renders Your Majesty the Arbiter of Europe; so that the longer continuance of this bloody and expensive War, can longer continuance of this bloody and expensive War, can be of no further Use, but only to support the Ingratitude of Foreigness, and the pernicious Designs of Faction and Sedition at Home.

Sedition at Home.
May Your Majesty long live to enjoy as great Blessings as You dispense, and always to be served as You now are, by a Wise, Faithful, and Uncorrupted Ministry, whose Sagacity is not to be bassled by any Artifices or Designs, and whose Courage and Resolutions are not to be shaken by any Dissipation of Obstructions.
May Your Majesty descat the wicked Contrivances of those, who have so desiperately struggled to traverse Your pious Intentions; in the perfecting of which, and bringing them to a speedy Issue, we will assist and support Your Majesty against all Opposers whatsoever.

The following Address from the Borough of Blechingly, was presented to Her Majesty by Richard Jewell, Gent, one of the principal Burghers of the said Borough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the antient Freeholders and Inhabi-rants of the Borough of Blechingly, in the County of

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Permit us, among the great Numbers of Your most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the happy Agreement (at this Critical Juncture) between Your Majesty and Your Parliament of Great Britain.

As we always abhorr'd such Practices, so we will do our utmost Endeavours to make Choice of such Men who detest those Damnable Principles, which has cost this Nation already so much Blood and Treasure.

The Impregnable Fortress of Dunkirk being delivered into Your Majesty's Possession, convinces us, that as Your Majesty has had the greatest Share in the War, so now You will have the Glory of being the Arbiter of the Peace of Europe.

Europe.

We heartily wish Your Majesty a long and happy Reign over us, and after that an eternal Crown of Glory.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Utrecht, September 27. N. S. On the Twenty third the Plenipotentiaries of the States General defired a Conference with those of the Queen, which was held accordingly at the Earl of Strafford's House. On the Twenty fourth their Lordships had one with those of France, and Yesterday about Noon was held another between the Ministers of the Allies in the Townhouse, as usual, which being ended, the Plenipotentiaries of Great Britain retired into a Chamber apart with those of the States. At Night their Lordships had a long Conference with the Imperial Ministers at the Earl of Strafford's House. Mareschal D'Uxelles has declared that the Pretender never went by the Ticle of Duke of Gloucester in France, where they were much surprized to read that Account in Foreign News Papers, the Authors of which invent Palshoods to impose on the Publick.
