St. James's, Decemb. 20.

HE following Address from the City of Edipburgh, was presented to Her Majesty by William Gordan, Efq; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Vilcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majefty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chief Inhabitants and Burgeffes of Your Majesty's most Loyal and An-eient City of Edinburgb.

May it pleafe Your Majefty,

S the Conclusion of the much defined, and we A bope, lasting Peace, which Your Maj-sty with Jo much Constancy and Labour endeavours to obtain, pot only to Tour own Subjects, but alfo to all the States in Christendom, who shall be so happy as to accept of it, must needs be Matter of Wonder, and prdis'd to late/f Posterity : So we, who by a Provi-dential Effect of Your Majesty's unequal'd Wisdom bave, during the present Cestation of Arms, already tasted the first Fruits of it, are transported with Joy, Amazement and Gratitude, upon account of jo inestimable a Blessing. We have been engag'd in a very long War, Glorious indeed beyond any Example or Precedent, when directed by those Heavenly Influences which wait upon, and give Success to all Your Majefly's Councils and Undertakings; but fo Bloody and fo Expensive, that even Victory itfelf, was become Comfortless; and the rather, because it was visible, that the designing Few, who gain'd by it, were determined to perpetuate our Miferies, by endeavouring, for their own private Ends, to entail Poverty, Defolation, and War upon Generations to come. Had Fame, Wealth, and Honours, been the worft Ends which that Falion had in View, our Miseries had been the less grievous; but the Overthrow of Hereditary Monarchy (without which thefe Nations never could, and as we firmly believs, never can subsist) was plainly design'd; Rebellion, or what we conceive to be the same, Reliftance, preach'd up as lawful; Tour Majesty's Title to the Crown, and confequently that of Your Royal Progenitors and Lineal Successors disputed; our Holy Mother Church persecuted in Scotland, and all the Essentials of Her immutable Doctrine, and constant Bractice oppugn'd in England.

Tour Majesty saw and pitied our bopeless Condi-tion, and with a Resolution becoming Tour great Soul, set Tour self to procure our Relief; Heaven seconded Tour generous Design, by Inspiring Tou to call facto Perfons to the Ministry, as You knew were equal to fo great a Work; and juch Members to Your Parliament, as the free Choice of Your People directed; Since which time what Mitacles have we not feen? Your Majefty's Royal Prerogative has been support-ed, the Hereditary Right of the Royal Succession af-ferted, Antimonarchical Perfons and Principles difcountenanced, the Right of Patronages re-establish'd, the Church restored to ber antient Lustra in the one Part of Great Britain, and (for which me return bur most ductiful Asknowledgments to Your Majesty) by a most gracious Alt of Parliament, tolerated and protected in the other. Nay, & Reaco is norm very near concluded, in defiance of am ungrateful interested Spirit, that has feiz'd on some of Tour Allies abroad, especially those whose precarious Grandure, and most whofe inhumane and bellift Contrivances the Peath of Your Chief Minister Bas been twice attempted, and, as we have too much Reason to suspect; that of un High and Illustrious Patriot effected.

That the Power of the Devil, and Rage of his Emiffaries, may make no farther Advances to the Throne 3 that Your Majesty's Sacred Life may be guarded by Heaven; and that Tou may long continue the Darling of Your People, the Terrot of Your Foex the Umpire of Europe, the Reftorer of Right, the Avenger of Wrong, and the Nurfing-Mother of ane Unspotted Church, even the fame, and over advised by fuch a Parliament, and ferved by futh a Minin firy as the prefent, is the most hearty and finceto Prayer of, May it please Tour Majesty. Tour Majesty most loyal, most Dutiful, and most Obedient Subjects and Servants.

Which Address Her Majesty receiv'd very graciously.

Madrid, December 12. N. S. On the ad Instant the King and Queen, with the reft of the Court, return'd hither from Buen Retiro. At a Council of War held at Saragola, it hath been refolved to fend Twelve thousand Foot and Four thousand Horse to act in Catalonia this Winter, in Conjunction with the Troops expected from France. Several Dioceles and Parishes having made Complaint, that they are destitute of Bishops and Priests, his Majesty bath named Perfons to fill up the vacant Benefices, and order'd them to attend at their respective Churches : But they have defir'd to be excus'd, becaufe they, are commanded by an Edict from the Popenot to officiate till they are prefented by his Nuntio. This Dispute is occasion'd by the Pope's having named a Nuntio whom the King hath rejected, us an Enemy to his Interests, and no other being yet sent to him, his Majeity is resolved to make use of his Preroga-tive. The Princess d'Urfini is come back from the Waters of Bagnieres, by which she hath received great Benefit.

Homburg, Decemler 23. N. S. The King of Denmark upon his artival at Gadebusch, being join'd by four Saxon Regiments, made a disposition of his Army in order of Battle, which however he feemed defirous to decline till a greater number of the Forces of his Allies, which he expected in a few Days, could come to his Affittance. To this end he feat an Adjutant-General to Count Steinbock, with Propofals of Accommodation. The Count pretended to receive them with great Satisfactions and defired time to confider of the particular Points. While both Parties feeni'd thus to be entring into a Negotiation, the Swedes with great diligence and fecretie march'd a Body of Troops, with feveral Pieces of Cannon, into a Wood, from which they could take the Danes in Flank, and had the good Fortune to make that Movement without being observ'd. On the 20th his Danish Majelly, having yet receiv'd no Ar-fiver to the Message sent by his Adjutant, dispatch'd another Officer to propole a Truce for two Days, to which reply was made, that it should not be grant-ed for two Hours. Upon this the Battle imme-diately began. The Swedes attack'd the Confederates at a little Place call'd Raggendorif; but the Danish Artillery, which fired upon them from an Eminence, obliged them to retire with the lois of their Canron, till Count Steinbock, having ral-lied his Troops, attack d, them afreih with great Vigout, retook his own Gannon, and likewife took towering Hopes, so much depend upon Your Majesty ? Vigout, retook his own Gannon, and likewise took and af a refless difaffeded Sadion of Homey by that of his thernies, which he ordered to be leaden as they were returning to the Engagement. This did great Execution, and at last occasioned an en-tire Victory. The Battle began about One a Clock in the Afternoon, and lasted till Evening. The Danes are faid to have Six thousand Men kill'd, and Three thousand taken Prifoners. They have loft Twenty four Pieces of Cannon, all their Tents, and a great quantity of Baggage. Lieutenant General Dewitz with his Brother a Brigadier, Lieutenant General Lewetzaw, and his Brother a Colonel, and Colonel Legard, are kill'd. General Scholten has loft his Legg, Lieutenant General Wedel, and Lieutenant General Bauditz, are wounded. Major General Morner is taken Prisoner. Great Numbers of the Danes who were wounded in the Battle, are come into the Villages belonging to this City. The Saxons would have retreated to Lawenbourg, but the Elector of Hanover's Troops, which happened to be Posted there, to prevent the Contagion from spreading into his Electoral Highness's Territories, refus'd them Passage, whereupon they have taken the way of Newhouse, in order to get into the Country of Brandenburg. The Swedes have lost about One thousand Men, amongst whom is Colonel Pamfelt. General Ducker is wounded in the Mouth, and retired to Lubeck. The Muscovites were upon their March to have join'd the Danes and Saxons, but receiving an Account that the Two Armies were engag'd, and not being able to reach them time enough, they returned to their Camp. His Danish Majesty is retired to Oldesloe.
