Madrid, February 6. N. S.

THE Duke of Berwick having rais'd the Blockade of Gironne, is returning with the Army under his Command towards Dauphine. The Count de Berghelck arrived here a few Days ago from France. It is generally believed, that the Emperor will agree to a Cessation of Arms, and withdraw his Troops out of Catalonia, notwithstanding which, the King hath given Orders to the General of the Artillery to be in a readiness to march towards Barcelona, in order to besiege that Place by the beginning of the next Month. The Portuguese Troops are arrived in Arragon in their way homewards.

Hamburg, February 17. N. S. On the 12th a Detachment of the Confederate Army attack'd, and made themselves Masters of some Entrenchments, which the Swedes had thrown up in haste near Suabstedt; whereupon Major General Stackelberg abandon'd Frederickstadt, and retired with the Forces under his Command to Carding, which is a Place very advantageously situated for the Swedes, having behind it a Plain large enough to draw up an Army, and for two Miles before it, a Dike fifteen Foot broad, full of little Redoubts well provided with Artillery and Ammunition, so that it will be very difficult for the Czar to force the Swedes to a Battle. The Muscovites have taken Possession of Frederickstadt, and plac'd a Garrison of four thousand Men there. Upon the arrival of an Express this Morning, the Administrator of Holstein immediately sent Count Reventlaw to Tomingen, and we have since received advice that General Steinbock hath made himself Master of that Fortress by a Stratagem; the Particulars of which we expect to hear in a short time. Monsieur Bassewitz, a Swedish Partisan, who was with five hundred Horse in Northstrandt surrounded by the Confederate Army, hath found means to make his escape from thence by Water, and is safely arriv'd in Eyderstadt.

Brussels, February 22. N. S. Yesterday being the Queen's Birth-day, the Earl of Orrery, Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary at this Place, received the usual Compliments on that Occasion, and entertain'd the Ministers of the States-General and several other Persons of Distinction at Dinner. In the Evening there was a great Appearance of Nobility at the Opera, and the Cannon round the Town was fired, which was also done in all the other Cities of these Provinces. The Abbot Polignat, one of the French Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht, who is treated a Cardinal, arriv'd here last Night, and this Morning he pursued his Journey to Paris, from whence it is said he will shortly set out for Rome. Some Days ago several Deputies from the respective great Towns of these Provinces came hither by order of the Council of State, to examin into the present Condition of their Trade, and to concert a Plan for the Improvement of it. On the third Instant at Night, a Party of French, from Namur, found means of throwing some artificial Fireworks into the Magazine of Hay erected here for the Service of the States-General, by which a great part of it was consumed. Letters from several Places on the Frontiers of France bring an Account, that Directions were come from the Court, for sending a considerable Body of Troops towards Germany, in order to reinforce the Army on that side.

Bruges, February 18. N. S. Yesterday the chief Persons of Distinction at this Place, waited on Brigadier Sutton, our Governor, to congratulate him upon Her Majesty's Birth-day, which was celebrat'd with an Opera compos'd for the Occasion, a magnificent Supper at the Stadthouse, Illuminations, and firing of the Cannon.

Utrecht, February 22. N. S. On the nineteenth the Plenipotentiaries of Great Britain met those of France at Marschal d'Uxelle's House. Yesterday Count Sinzendorf and Baron Kirchner, Plenipotentiaries of his Imperial Majesty, were in Conference with their Lordships, who went immediately after to the Ministers of France. This Afternoon the Imperialists had a Conference with the French, in the presence of their Lordships; and the Negotiation for evacuating Catalonia, and for a Cessation of Arms in Italy, which was stopp'd till the return of a Courier from the French Court, is now again on foot. We have received the Ratifications on both sides of the Treaty of Succession and Barrier, and this Morning they were exchanged at the Lord Privy Seal's House.
