

Dumb. 5124

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 26 to Saturday May 30. 1713.

Kensington, May 28.

THE following Address from the City and Liberty of Westminster, subscribed by many Thousand Hands, was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Medlycott and Thomas Crofts, Esqrs; their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, High Steward of the said City.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Deputy Steward, High Bailiff, High Burgesses, Burgesses Assistants, and other Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Westminster.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE Success which has constantly attended the Justice of Your Arms, during the whole course of the War, has given us, Your dutiful and loyal Subjects, frequent occasion to approach Your Royal Person with Congratulatory Addresses, and well-grounded Hopes, that we should not fail (in due time) to obtain the great End propos'd, a glorious Peace, which we have now the Happiness to see accomplished by Your Majesty's consummate Wisdom.

Many indeed were the Obstructions artfully contrived, various the Schemes maliciously projected, to defeat this great Work, and no Pains has been spared, no Method unattempted to create a Dislike of it in the Minds of Your good Subjects; but all these Artifices have served only to make Your Majesty's Pious Intentions for, and steady pursuit of, the Interest of Your People, appear with the greater Advantage.

What Your Majesty has done for the Security of the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, by the perfect established Friendship between You and that Illustrious House, call, in a particular manner, for our grateful Acknowledgment; and we rest intirely assur'd, that no Attempts to separate Your Interests will ever meet with the least Countenance from Your Majesty or that Illustrious Family.

There remains now nothing for us to wish, but that Your Majesty may be happy in a long and peaceful Reign, over a dutiful, affectionate, and flourishing People.

The following Address from the County of Essex, was presented to Her Majesty by Carew Harvey alias Mildmay, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, and Sir Richard Child, Bart. one of the Knights of the Shire; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy,

Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Essex.

M A D A M !

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, take leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the Success of Your Arms and Councils, by which You have obtained a secure and glorious Peace for Your own Kingdoms and all Your Allies, notwithstanding the Factions Opposition of those who, to promote Designs they dare not own, endeavour'd by Intrigues at home, and Misrepresentations abroad, to frustrate so blessed a Work.

As we are fully satisfied of Your Majesty's Care to preserve the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover; so we think it cannot be suspected by any but those who are capable of the worst Attempts against Your Person and Authority; and whoever goes about to insinuate, that the said Succession is in Danger, under Your Majesty's Administration, we shall look upon them as Enemies to their Queen and Country.

That Your Majesty may long live to reap and enjoy the Fruits of that happy Peace You have given the World; That Your Enemies may be always humble, Your Allies grateful, and Your Subjects loyal, shall be the perpetual and earnest Prayers of Your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough Maldon in the County of Essex, was presented to Her Majesty by John Comyns, Esq; Serjeant at Law, and Thomas Bramstone, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by William Fytch, Esq; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Steward, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Maldon, in the County of Essex.

M A D A M !

WE approach Your Royal Presence with the highest Pleasure and Satisfaction, to Congratulate the Conclusion of a Peace so necessary for the Ease and Benefit of Your People, by which Your Majesty crowns the numerous Felicities we enjoy, under Your auspicious Reign: Victories and Triumphs may speak Your Power; but Peace, the most desirable Blessing among Men, gives us a demonstration of Your Piety and Goodness, the more amiable Ornaments of Majesty.

Now conspicuous, in this Treaty, appear Your Princely Care and Wisdom, whereby, beside the Advantages of Trade, You have added larger Territories to Your Dominion, than during the Ten Years of a prosperous War; beside the Abatement in the Burthen of Taxes, You have firmly secured us against