

May Your Majesty continue to Sheild our Government in Church and State (which we thankfully esteem the best Constitution in the Universe) against all its Enemies: And may we by our constant Loyalty, live worthy of that Happiness which always flows from so serene a Government.

And as Your Majesty's Reign has hitherto been eminently Glorious, may it also be long and prosperous, is the sincere Prayer of, Madam, Your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

The following Address from the Corporation of Hedon, was presented to Her Majesty by William Pulteney and Hugh Cholmley, Esqrs, their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by Mr. Vice Chamberlain,

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Bay-liffs, and Burgesses of Your Majesty's most ancient and loyal Corporation of Hedon, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AS we have had frequent Occasions to Congratulate Your Majesty upon Your Successes, during the glorious Course of this War; so now we beg leave, with Hearts full of the deepest Sense of Gratitude, to return our most sincere Thanks and humble Acknowledgments to Your Majesty, for the happy determination of it in a safe, honourable and advantageous Peace, whereby such inestimable Blessings are not only procured for the present Age, but likewise intail'd to our Posterity, that after-Ages, as well as we, shall have reason to bless Your Majesty.

Whatever might have been the Design of those, who were the Contrivers of the Obstruction, endeavoured to be given to this great Work, they have (G O D be thanked) not only failed of their Success, but likewise tended to increase Your Majesty's Glory in surmounting them.

This great Care Your Majesty has taken to secure the Protestant Succession as by Law Established, in the most illustrious House of Hanover, and the perfect Friendship there is between Your Majesty and that House, are undeniable Instances of the tender regard You have for the Religion, Liberties and Properties of Your People.

That Your Majesty may add to the Blessings of Peace, by living long to enjoy the happy Fruits of it, are the sincere and hearty Prayers of, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Borough of Il-chester, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir James Bateman, Kt. and Edward Phillips, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerset.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Bailiff, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesty's loyal Borough of Ilchester, in Your County of Somerset, humbly beg leave to Congratulate Your Majesty on the happy Success of those important Negotiations of Peace, which Your Tenderness to Your People and Compassion to the rest of Europe, have engaged Your Majesty so sted-dily to pursue.

As Your Majesty have been graciously pleas'd by this Glorious and Advantageous Peace, to obtain and secure for Your People all they could wish from abroad, to extricate us from those fatal Measures the Ambition and Avarice of particular Persons had engaged us in, and give us the prospect of an Establishment in a Protestant Succession when Your own Glory shall be compleated: There remains nothing for us but to advance in our Stations. Your Majesty's gracious and glorious Undertakings, to oppose and discountenance all factious and seditious Opposers (if they yet dare shew their impotent, baffled, Party-Rage) and most fervently pray for the continuance of Your Majesty's most precious Life, and auspicious Government.

The following Address from the Borough of Sudbury, was Presented to Her Majesty by Lieutenant-General Ecklin and John Mead, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; being Introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk.

Dread Sovereign,

AS during the Course of Your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign, Divine Providence has given us frequent Occasions by Addressing Your Majesty, to express our joyful Sense of the many Victories Your Majesty's Arms have obtained over Your Enemies; so we cannot but return our sincerest Thanks and Praise to Heaven, for the Opportunity we now have of Congratulating Your Majesty on this last and greatest of Victories, your overcoming that violent and long Opposition which has been so artfully made and carried on against the Peace Your Majesty has obtained for your People: Your late Gracious Speech from the Throne has fully satisfied all your Subjects (who deserve the Protection of Your Government) of Your Majesty's most tender Care and unwearied Endeavours for their Good and Happiness.
And as Almighty G O D, the G O D of Peace, hath inspired Your Majesty and Your Ministry with such Council, Conduct and Resolutions as have enabled You (whose undoubted Right and Prerogative it is) to crown this Glorious Work; May Your Majesty long live to see the Fruits thereof and Your Kingdoms flourish under Your most Gracious and Provident Administration, a Blessing than which nothing can be greater to us upon Earth, nothing more effect the Happiness of our Estab-lish'd Church, or more endear Your Memory to Posterity.

The following Address from the Town and Port of Dover, was Presented to Her Majesty by Matthew Aylmer and Philip Papillon, Esqrs; their Representatives in Parliament; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Dorset and Middlesex, Constable of Dover Castle, and Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Gentlemen, Common-Council, and Freemen of the Town and Port of Dover.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THIS with the greatest Duty and Satisfaction we presume to approach Your Royal Presence, to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the happy Cloze of a tedious War, and the joyful Proclamation of a Peace we humbly
