

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday, October 13. to Monday October 17. 1670.

London, Octob. 16.

ON Thursday last in the evening arrived here her Royal Highness the Dutchess of York, and the next day Her Majesty from Audley-end. Yesterday returned hither His Majesty and Royal Highness from Newmarket. The Cockpit is prepared and fitted up for the Reception of his Highness the Prince of Orange, who is daily expected here.

Rome, Sept. 23. Since the Popes recovery from his late violent distemper of the Gout, he has been pleased to give several Audiences: the 21 instant Cardinal Altieri had a long conference with the Portuguese Ambassador, upon the arrival of an Extraordinary Courier from Lisbonne.

The Pope is inclined to go for some time to take the air of the Vatican, but is dissuaded by his Physicians.

It is believed the expences of the Conclave will for the future be regulated and retrenched, according to the Bull of Pope Pius IV. which allows only 20 thousand Crowns towards the Popes Funeral and the expences of the Conclave for the election of a successor.

From Naples we are told, that the Viceroy being informed of a challenge which had passed between Don Francisco Caraffa, and the Count de Conversano, had caused them both to be seised on, whilst their Relations are endeavouring to compose the quarrel and to reconcile them.

The Banditi continue their insolencies in Abruzzo, plundering houses, taking many prisoners, and exacting great sums of Money for their Ransome.

Presbourg, Sept. 23. We make daily new discoveries of persons of quality who were accomplices in the late rebellion, and amongst them, of several Bishops of this kingdom. The Emperors late Proclamation, enjoyning such persons to make their appearance before his Commissioners at Vienna, has so frightened many of them, that they have thought fit to leave the Countrey; it appears that they had a designe upon the Emperors person, for which end 3000 Hussars were sent to lye in ambush in the Forest of Ebersdorf, by which he was to have past the 13th of this month, but was by a great providence diverted.

Warsaw, Sept. 26. A deputation having been given out to several Separators and Members of the Nobles to be sent to Cracovia, to receive there the Crown and other Regalia for the Coronation of the Queen in this place, those of Cracovia have refused to part with them out of their City, whereupon a new Deputation is ordering thither with full power for the opening of the Treasury there.

We had some time since a warm report of an irruption of the Tartars, which we now find to have had little foundation, our Letters from Leopol giving no news of the appearance of any of them upon the Frontiers; but tis nevertheless believed they may have some intentions to give us a diversion towards the Spring, since the two Generals of the contrary Factions of the Cossacks have employed their Deputies to them to invite them to favor their parties.

Several factions have shewed themselves in the Diet, but have been much moderated by the prudence of their Speaker, or Marshal Lubomiersky, who leaves nothing undone which he conceives may conduce to the quiet of the Publick, and the interest of the King.

The Primate is said not to be yet fully reconciled to the Court, but upon all occasions ready to leave this place, as are several other discontented persons, and to fly to the Army; but in the mean time the Pospolite Russians are in readines to appear in armes in the field, upon the first news of the breach of the Diet, to make use of some other method for the settlement of the Kingdom.

From Muscovy we are informed, that the great Rebel Stepan Radzin, had given the world many marks of his cruelty, especially upon the taking of Astracan, since which, being grown exceeding powerful, by reason of the Great Dukes Treasure which he had there seised on; he had marched his Army towards Moscow, and had so blocked up the Great Dukes forces which he had sent against him, that twas feared they would be forced to submit themselves to mercy, for want of necessary Provisions, all ways of supply being taken from them.

The Colledge of the Nuncio's being informed, that the Army were entering into a confederation, upon a surmise, that the Diet had intended to have removed the Marshal Sobiesky their General from one of his Charges, have thought fit to send Two of their Deputies to the Army to assure them, that the Diet had no such intention, but that this report was forged by the enemies of the publick peace; and to confirm them in the belief of this truth, they the next day admitted the Deputies from the Army to an Audience in a full Assembly, where they made to them the same Declaration, which the King also intended to confirm to them with his own mouth.

The Popes Nuncio, the Spanish Envoye Extraordinary, and the Ambassador from the States-General of the United Provinces, intend in few days to make their entries.

The Tryal of the Grand Treasurer Morslein is put off till another Diet.

One Ieterk, a subject of Poland, who upon some affront done to him by the Palatine of Breslaw, has deserted his Countrey, has since put himself under the protection of the Turks, and has been Treated by the Uayvode of Moldavia, with much show of kindness: he hopes to get so much favour amongst the Turks, as to be furnished with an opportunity of revenging himself upon his enemies.

Ratisbonne, Sept. 27. Nothing considerable is lately passed in the Assembly here: the great busineses before them, viz. that for the raising forces for the publick safety of the Empire, and the other so long in agitation, called, The Perpetual Capitulation, have taken up much of their time, in both which they have made a considerable progress, and tis hoped, that notwithstanding several contentions which have arisen amongst the several States of the Empire, they may yet be persuaded to continue their their Deputies here, till both these points, especially that for the publick safety be fully settled and perfected.

Madrid, Sept. 28. The Baron de Batteville, our Ambassador in the Court of Portugal being lately dead at Lisbonne, the Marquis de Liche is to be suddenly dispatched thither with the same Character; and Don Manuel de Lyra, Master of the Ceremonies to the Queen Regent, is to be employed as Envoye to the States-General of the United Provinces.

Since the Cardinal d'Arragon has been made Colonel of the Regiment of Guards, he has taken care to see them constantly paid out of the 18000 Ducats a month which is allowed for this service; upon which account the soldiers of the said Regiment are kept in so strict an Order and Discipline, that no complaints have been brought in against them, especially since Two of them were ordered to be shot to death for attempting only to abuse a Citizen.

The Count de Montreney, Governor of the Netherlands is established in that Government by the Queen Regent for Three years, and tis said that Alexander Prince of Parma is to be made Viceroy either of Navarra or Galicia.

Genova, Octob. 1. Several Spanish Officers lately arrived here from Milan, went hence this last week on their way for Spain to raise men for the completing of Three Regiments of Spanish Foot, having before their departure from Milan, received by particular Order from the Duke d'Osuna the Governour, Six months pay before hand, for the expenses of their journey; at their arrival in Spain, they are to be furnished with Moneys necessary for the said Levies.

Signior Hippolito Centurione is departed hence with his Gallies, and all his Family, to settle himself at Marseilles, and carries with him an hundred Turkish Slaves which he brought at Malaba.

Paris, Octob. 11. His Majesty arriving the 9th instant at the Castle of Chambray, was the next day attended and complimented by the Lieutenant General of Blois at the head of the Corporation of that City, who afterwards performed the like Ceremony to the Queen, Monsieur, and Madamoiselle d'Orleans.

The Chevalier de Bouillon being lately dead of a wound received in a late encounter in Bell Isle, the whole Court seems much concerned, at the loss of him; the King has been pleased to visit and condole with the Duke de Bourbon, and the Queen to do the same Honour to the Duchess of Aquilon, upon this subject.

Brom Bierhawe ever informed, that the Marquis de Crequy having continued some time about Chastel after his surrender, he gave such Orders as he thought necessary, went thence the 6th instant to Haidonville, from whence he dispatched away a hundred Horse to Longuy, himself marching more slowly with the rest of the Army to lay siege to it, and should refuse to surrender, but the 6th instant passed by this place a Courier, intending for the Court, to give his Majesty an account that that place is also reduced, but as yet we know not upon what terms.

Hague, Octob. 11. His Highness the Prince of Orange is in daily expectation of the arrival of the Earl of Offory with the Yachts, appointed to attend His Highness for his transportation, which (the Wind being now West) are expected every moment.

Several Ingenieurs are sent away with the States Deputies to Maffrich and other places upon the Frontiers, to take a view of the Fortifications, and to give necessary orders to put them in a posture of defence.

Six ships are about a week since put to sea from the Texel bound for the East-Indies, having on board them several Families, which intend to settle themselves in those parts.

Another Fleet lies ready to sayl for Cadix with the first fair wind, but the Smyrna Convoy will scarcely be ready yet this Month.

Brussels, Octob. 19 The 17th instant arrived here Two Couriers from Luxembourg with Letters to his Excellency the Count de Monterey, informing him, the French forces had made themselves masters of Biche, and Longuy, where they are at present busie in throwing down the Fortifications, and intend after three or four days of rest to march towards Hombourg. The Duke of Lorrain thus stripped out of all his Countrey, is gone forwards to Ratisbonne on his way for Vienna, in all places pressing for assistance to restore him to his Dominions. The Prince de Nassau Sanbruck is said to have sent lately to the Duke to make a tender of the Moneys for which Hombourg was formerly mortgaged to him, and tis feared, upon delay or refusal, the French forces may be ready to enter and take possession for him.

From Paris we are told, that his most Christian Majesty is resolved to Quarter 22000 men this winter in Lorrain, and is hastening his new Levies.

On Thursday last arrived here Sir John Chicheley, Envoye from His Majesty of Great Britain, and the next day in the afternoon had his Audience from his Excellency the Count de Monterey.

The University of Louvain has lately sent away Two Doctors to the Court of Rome, to sollicite, that the Pope would be pleased to revoke the Bull of the late Pope his Predecessor, which was procured by the late Sieur Franciotti for a suspension of the privileges of the said University.

The Commissioners which were sent to Antwerp to put in execution the old Edict against Excess in Apparel, Coaches, Liveries, &c. and to inquire into the usurpation of Titles, Coats of Arms, and pretended Gentility, have been complained of for proceeding too rigorously against some persons; whereupon an Order is sent to them, not to put their sentences in execution till farther order from his Excellency.

Advertisements

Edward, Ryall of Sherborn in the County of Dorset, silver Smith about Seventeen years of age, not very tall, but strong grown, his Hair grows straight, and is between Flaxen and Brown, his Complexion Ruddy; he went away the 28th day of July last past, and since by the death of his Brother a considerable Estate is fallen to him; if any person shall give notice of him to the Spar in Whitebark, at Gerrards Hall, or the Starre in the Strand, or at the Three-Tuns Tavern in Northmarket, the party shall receive a considerable Reward.

Whereas a wandering fellow, by the name of Thomas Wilmot, pretending himself to be a licensed Preacher, by the Lord Bishop of London, and formerly Lecturer at St. Peters Church in London, hath for several years, viz. in the years 1669 and 1670, gone about from place to place, and (under colour of a License or Writing under the Hand and Seal of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury) hath begged and collected Moneys for his pretended necessities, thereby abusing the charity of well disposed persons: These are therefore to give notice to all manner of persons, that the said pretended License or Writing, and the Seal thereunto put, are both counterfeit and forged; and that the said Lord Archbishop did never give to the said Thomas Wilmot, nor to any other person whatsoever any such License or Writing: and therefore whosoever any of His Majesties good subjects shall meet with any such persons, they shall do well to cause them to be arrested before the next Justice of the Peace, to be proceeded against according to Law.