Kensington, June 27.

THE following Address from the Town of Winchelsea, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Francis Dashwood, Kt. and Bart. and Robert Bristow, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Freemen and Inhabitants of Your Ancient and Loyal Town of Winchelsea, in the County of Sussex.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE Glorious Successes wherewith it has pleased the Divine Providence to bless Your Majesty's Arms, in Conjunction with those of Your Allies, having put it into Your Power to give France a Peace on safe and honourable Terms, We beg Leave, with all Humility, to Congratulate Your Majesty on this happy Occasion, not in the least doubting but the Peace You have out of Your great Goodness and Wisdom accomplish'd will in the Event be equally Glorious to Your Majesty, Beneficial to Your Subjects, and Safe to all Europe.

Permit us also to render to Your Majesty the utmost of our Acknowledgments for the great Care You have taken to render Secure the Protestant Succession (as Establish'd by the Acts of Settlement) in the Illustrious House of Hanover, on which the Religion, Liberty and Welfare of Your People so entirely depend.

May all Attempts to divide Your Majesty and that August Family, prove vain and ineffectual; may Your Majesty long enjoy the Blessings and Comforts of Peace; and may Your Reign be long and prosperous, Your Subjects united in Loyalty and Affection, is and shall be the constant Prayers of Your Majesty's Dutiful and Faithful Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Blechingly, was presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgessees, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Blechingly, in the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE, Your Majesty's most Loyal and Faithful Subjects, humbly beg Leave to return our most Dutiful Thanks to Your Majesty, for Your great Condescension in Communicating to Your Parliament the happy Conclusion of so long, and so necessary a War; and hope, by the many Advantages that Your Majesty assures us You have obtained for Your Subjects, to retrieve our Losses, and to forget the Burden of the War, since we are persuaded that Your Majesty has happily accomplish'd the End You propos'd.

We admire Your Majesty's Wisdom, as well as Goodness, in securing the Protestant Succession, and keeping a perfect Friendship with the Illustrious House of Hanover.

We apprehend, that the fixing the Succession of the Crown in that Royal Family, is the surest Means to quiet the Possession of it against the Contrivances of Your Majesty's Enemies at home and abroad: This will despel all Fealoussies, compose Party Rage, abate the Insolence, and disappoint the growing Hopes of those, who endeavour to separate Your Majesty's Interest from that of the House of Hanover, and to withdraw the Duty and Affections of Your Subjects from Your Majesty and Your Lawful Successors.

Our most hearty Prayers, for the long Continuance of Your Majesty's Life, are the least Return we can make Your Majesty's Endeavours to preserve the Church of England, as by Law-Establish'd, and the Protestant Succession, as by Law limited.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Stockholm, May 31. N. S. Two Days ago Colonel Wolfraad arrived here, and brought an account, that Count Steinbock had been obliged to surrender himself and his Men Prisoners of War: Whereupon the Senate immediately propos'd to the Burghers, to contribute One hundred thousand Crowns for their Ransom before the Term is expired. They have already paid Eight thousand for that of the General, and are now employ'd in raising the Sums that are necessary to redeem the Troops. We have receiv'd advice from Funen, that Twelve thousand Muscovites had made a Descent there near Helingsfort; but the Inhabitants of that Place having burnt it themselves, and withdrawn with their Effects, the Muscovites returned to their Ships, taking with them two Vessels, one of Holland, and another of Lubeck, that were at Anchor in that Port. Their Fleet having been since seen off of Borgo, it is thought they design for Wibourg. In the mean time the Militia of Funen is assembling, and the Squadron of Nine Men of War, that went lately out of Carlscroon, is expected back in a short time, by which we hope to be in a Condition to hinder that of the Czar from returning. Major General Ecklebadt, who was present at the Battle of Gadebusch, and was afterwards prevented by Sickness from going with Count Steinbock into Holstein, returned hither a few Days ago.

Venice, June 16. N. S. The Magistrates of Health hath reduced the Quarantine to be performed by all Vessels which comes from Morea, and the Venetian Islands, to Eight and twenty Days. The Procurator Lorenzo Tiepolo, late Ambassador from this Republick to the Court of Rome, is returned hither. Letters from thence bring an account, that the Pope was gone to Castel Gondolpho for the recovery of his
