Kensington, July 11.

THE following Address from the County of Warwick, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Mordaunt and Sir William Boughton, Barts. Knights of the Shire; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Northampton, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the County of Warwick.

MADAM,

WE beg leave to Congratulate Your Majesty on the crowning a just and necessary War, with the desired Effects of it, an honourable and advantageous Peace.

A Peace, which by the unerring Wisdom of Your Majesty, the indefatigable Application of Your Ministry, and the never-failing Assistance of Your great Council, has at last settled the Balance of Power in the neighbouring Kingdoms and States; extended Your Dominions, enlarged Your Commerce, secured our Religion in the Protestant Succession of the House of Hanover, and conquered the worst of Enemies, Prejudice and Faction.

That Your Majesty may be always happy in us faithful, wise, and able a Ministry, shall be our hearty Wishes; and that Your next Parliament may be as zealous Assertors of the Prerogative of the Crown and Rights of the Church, and as true Patriots of the Liberties and Welfare of their Country, as the present, shall, in the Choice of our Representatives, be the utmost Endeavours of Your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Calington, was presented to Her Majesty (in the absence of their Representatives in Parliament) by Sir William Carew, Bart. and James Hulstee, Esq; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Lanfdowne.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, and Free Burgesses of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Calington, in the County of Cornwall.

MADAM,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, crave leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the conclusion of a safe, just and honourable Peace to Your Majesty, Your People, and Your Allies.

The great Care Your Majesty hath taken for securing the Protestant Succession in the most illustrious House of Hanover, is an undeniable Instance of the tender regard You have for the Religion, Liberties, and Properties of Your People.

May Your Majesty long continue to protect Your Government in Church and State; and that Your Majesty may add to the Blessings of Peace, by living long to enjoy the Fruits of it, are and shall always be, the sincere and hearty Prayers of Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Town and Port of Feversham, was presented to Her Majesty by Mr. William Picing, Deputy-Mayor, Mr. Michael Jones, one of the Jurats, and Mr. Roger Kennett, Town Clerk; accompanied by Percival Hart, Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Kent, John Mitchell, Esq; John Hardress, Esq; and several other Gentlemen of the said County; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Town-Clerk, and Commoners; and of the Clergy, Gentlemen and Freemen of Your Majesty's ancient Town and Port of Feversham, in the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE most distinguishing Actions of the greatest Princes extant, in the Annals of Europe, (though some of them glorious to a degree) fall far short of Your Majesty's Conduct and Resolution, both in the late War and present Peace. And as it is a Blessing inestimable, by which our Church and State, under the quiet Protection of Your Majesty, are secured; and our Trade put into a flourishing Condition, to the advantage of all Your Majesty's Subjects, so we are not only in common Gratitude, but even in Religion and Interest, bound to return our humble heartiest Thanks to Your Majesty, who with such Prudence, Wisdom and Resolution, surmounted Difficulties (impossible for any but Your great Self) to procure it.

Europe groan'd under the heavy Burthen of War and Desolation, lull'd and insatuated into an Unwillingwillingness to be reliev'd, till Your Majesty (doubtless design'd by Providence to be an Example to Posterity) interpos'd Your Wisdom and Power to bring them to a Sense of their own Interest, and of Gratitude to admire and thank their glorious Deliverer.

Such successful Events, sufficiently illustrate the Depth, Secrecy and Resolution of the Councils from whence they proceed; and plainly demonstrate how vain all Attempts (to obstruct) are, when such Wisdom, influenc'd by Heaven, undertakes the Work.

Your Majesty's Declaration from the Throne, of the good Understanding between You and the illustrious House of Hanover, is enough to induce all loyal People to believe, that the Security of the Protestant Religion, is Your Majesty's constant Care.

And we beg leave humbly to assure Your Majesty, that we want no other Guaranty.

That the licentious Tongues as well as Pens of Malignants, may meet with the greatest Discouragements under proper Censures, and Men of Probity and Obedience only enjoy Your gracious Smiles and Protection: That the old English Loyalty of our Forefathers, may inspire us with an Emulation to serve Your Majesty, and support its Original Monarchical Constitution; and, that Your Majesty may long live to find all Your People steadfast in these Principles, and Britain grow ashamed of all Opposition to Crown'd Heads, are and shall be the steady Wishes and Prayers of Your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Wilton, in the County of Wilts, was presented to Her Majesty by Charles Mompesson, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Argyle.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of Your ancient Borough of Wilton.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, do, with all submission, most heartily Congratulate Your Majesty on the Conclusion of the Peace, which we have so long wanted and pray'd for; not doubting but from Your Majesty's most consummate Wisdom, and the continual surprizing Successes, during the the whole Course of the War, it must be Honourable in all its Circumstances, and very Advantageous in all respects, especially in that of Commerce, on which the Welfare of this Nation so much depends.

We most humbly crave leave to assure You, most gracious Sovereign, that we were overjoy'd to have such Assurance from the Throne, of the good Understanding between Your Majefty and the most Illustrious House of Hanover, which we pray GOD may always continue: And that Your Majesty may Reign long over us, to enjoy the Fruits of Your Own Labour, are the most hearty Prayers of us all, Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

The following Address from the Western Marches of England and Scotland, was sent by the Reverend Dr. Todd, and presented to Her Majesty by Col. Grabme; being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Clergy, Gentlemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Western Marches of the (late) happy united Kingdoms of England and Scotland.

May it please Your Majesty,

WHEN the Union of Your Majesty's Two Kingdoms was happily Accomplish'd, we of these Parts had the Honour to wait on Your Majesty with our most Dutiful Acknowledgments for the particular Benefit of it. By that one Act of Superior Royal Goodness, Your Majesty has effected what the Power of the Roman Legends, and the Wisdom and Policy of Your Predecessors, could never bring to pass.

We now beg Leave, M A D A M! to Approach Your Sacred Person with Congratulations for another happy Union and Agreement, more Extensive and (as we justly hope) more Beneficial. The Blessed and Glorious Peace (which Your Majesty has, with wonderful Constancy and Resolution, by GOD's special Assistance, concluded) secures to Us and all Posterity the quiet Profession and legal Establishment of our Holy Religion; preserves our Civil Rights and Liberties, enlarges Trade and Commerce, and lays a most firm Foundation for the lasting Honour and Happiness of all Your Majesty's Dominions. Blessings of so high a nature affect us, at once, with Admiration and Gratitude, and engage our Fidelity to Your Majesty, by Inclination as well as Duty. We are perfectly resolved, on all Occasions, to manifest an immoveable Firmness to the Monarchical and Episcopal Government in Church and State; and, to the utmost of our Power, to defend and maintain Your Majesty's undoubted Hereditary Right to the Imperial Crown of these Nations, against all Contradiction and Opposition whatever.

That

That the Great GOD of Heaven, who is a GOD of Peace, may shower down upon Your Majesty the most plentiful Effusions of Temporal and Spiritual Blessings; that, by his infinite Power and most gracious Providence, He would settle and secure Your Throne in Mercy and Judgment; and that, after a long and happy Reign here on Earth, He would advance You to the unspeakable Beatitudes of Saints in Glory, in the peaceful Regions of everlasting Happiness, is the constant and ardent Prayer of, May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most Obedient and most Dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Province of Maryland, was presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the President and Council, and general Assembly of Your Majesty's Province of Maryland.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WITH grateful Hearts and sincere Affections, we beg leave to acknowledge and return You our humblest Thanks for Your Majesty's Royal Care and Protection of us, Your dutiful Subjects, of this Your distant Province; and especially that You have so speedily caus'd Your Royal Proclamation, notifying the Suspension of Arms by Your most Sacred Majesty, agreed with the most Christian King, to be transmitted to us by Your Principal Secretary of State; as also Your gracious Speech to Your Parliament of Great Britain, whereby You are pleased to give us a bright View of an happy, lasting and flourishing Peace; securing our Religion by the Establishment of the Succession in the most Illustrious House of Hanover; extending Your Empire by new and unexpected Acquisitions in the Mediterranean and America; opening and enlarging beneficial Trades and Commerce to Your Subjects, and at the same time wisely taking away, what might and has, this War, given us the greatest Annoyance, by the Surrender of Dunkirk into Your Majesty's Hands, in order to the demolishing thereof, as an earnest, the French King is truly willing to perform the Treaties Your Majesty so early and powerfully presides in, to the unusual Advantage of Your Kingdoms and Subjects, who have borne an intolerable Burthen in this unequal War, which has so far affected us, that most of us are miserably impoverished, and many quite ruined.

MADAM,

We want Words to express the boundless Thanks we owe You, for Your steady and unwearied Endeavours to procure these invaluable Blessings for us. We earnestly beseech the Almighty, propitiously to Crown them with a Success suitable to Your pious Care, a flourishing and lasting Peace, advantageous to Your Subjects, and just to Your Allies, and that after a long and happy Reign over us, You may receive a Crown of immortal Glory.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Venice, June 30. N. S. The Magistrates of Health, upon some advices they have lately received, have published a Proclamation, forbidding all manner of Commerce with Silesia, Moravia, and other Provinces of Germany, upon pain of Death. It has been proposed in the Senate, to reduce the Coins of the State to their ancient Value. A Collegietto, or Committee is appointed to consider of it, and they are to consult with the Magistrates of Trade, and the most eminent Merchants. We hear from Rome, that the Pope was expected there in a few Days from Castle Gondolpho.

Hamburg, July 14. N. S. The Prussian Minister at this Place, has acquainted the other Foreign Ministers, by Order of the King his Master, that his Majesty will observe an exact Neutrality between the King of Sweden and the Northern Allies; that he had no Intention to Declare against the latter by the Sequestration of Pomerania; but that his Design was by that means to put an end to the War in Germany, and to facilitate a Peace between the Two Parties. The Muscovites have entirely quitted the Dutchy of Mecklenbourg, and are actually entred into Pomerania, without having met with the least Opposition on the Part of the King of Prussia. After the return of Monsieur Bassowitz to Berlin, Major General Schlippenbach was sent to try if he could prevail on the Governor of Stetin, to admit the Prussian Troops into the Garrison; but he is likewise come back without having been able to accomplish any thing with Monsieur Meyerfeldt, who still persists in refusing to do it without an express Order from the King his Master. Baron Goertz is very pressing with his Prussian Majesty, to Interest himself in the Affairs of Holstein, and alleges that the Court of Denmark had assur'd him at Hufum, that the Duke should be put into Possession of his Country, if, by his Interposition, Count Steinbock would surrender himself Prisoner of War: But the Danish Minister immediately produced two Letters to confute his Pretensions upon that account, one from Count Steinbock to the Council of Denmark, and the other from Prince Menzikoff to the King, in which both of them complain that Monsieur Goertz retarded, instead of advancing the conclusion of that Treaty. His Danish Majesty is arrived at Fredericksbourg, and will return into Holstein in a few Days. It is said he is willing to evacuate that Dutchy, upon Condition a Danish Garrison might be received into Tonningen: And his Minister at Berlin hath acquainted the King of Prussia, that he would agree to the Sequestration of Pomerania and Holstein, provided it was made with the Consent of the Emperor and Empire, as the Constitution of Germany requires.

Hanover, July 14. N. S. They write from Holstein, that several of the Swedish Prisoners had ill-treated the Persons at whose Houses they lodg'd, upon which the King of Denmark had ordered their Swords, that were allowed them by the Capitulation, to be taken away; and that those who were found Guilty of any Disorders should be punish'd. General Scholten had Summon'd the Governor of Tonningen to surrender, telling him he was informed that the Garrison was reduced by Diseases to a very small number, and that they began to want Provisions, by which means he should be able to make himself Master of the Fortrefs in a short time with Sword in hand. The Governor returned answer, that he was very ill informed, that he had a sufficient Quantity of Provisions, and Men enough to defend the Place, which he would not surrender till he was reduced to the last Extremity. These Letters add, that the King of Denmark intended to return to Cottorp in a few Days. We have received an Account from Pomerania, that the Conferences between the Ministers of the Czar, the King of Denmark, and King Augustus on one Side, and those of the King of Prussia on the other, were to begin this Day at Swedt. It was said, that his Prussian Majesty would go thither in Person, and that he is very much displeas'd with the Danes, for having taken two Ships belonging to his Subjects.

Utrecht, July 18. N. S. This being the Day appointed by Her Majesty for a Publick Thanksgiving for the Peace, the Lord Privy-Seal gave a splendid Entertainment on that Occasion to all the Ministers remaining here. In the Evening the Duke d'Olfuna and the Marquis de Monteleone, Plenipotentiaries of Spain, went to the Hague. Count Maffei, Minister of the Duke of Savoy, intends to set out very soon towards Great Britain; and Monsieur Mellaredé, another of his Royal Highness's Ministers, towards Turin.

Hague, July 19. N. S. On the 15th the Earl of Strafford returned from Utrecht, and Yesterday being the Day appointed by Her Majesty for a General Thanksgiving for the Peace, he made a magnificent Ball and Masquerade with an Entertainment, at which all the Foreign Ministers, except the Emperor's, were present, together with the chief Members of this Republick, and other Persons of Distinction, who came from all Parts of Holland for that purpose. There were above Five hundred Tickets distributed, notwithstanding which several crouded in without Tickets, and most of them were very richly Mask'd. The Duke d'Uffuna and the Marquis de Monteleone, having dined with the Lord Privy Seal at Utrecht, came hither in the Evening with three Relays of Horses, upon this Occasion.
