Kensington, July 11.

THE following Address from the County of Warwick, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Mordaunt and Sir William Boughton, Barts. Knights of the Shire; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Northampton, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the County of Warwick.

MADAM,

WE beg leave to Congratulate Your Majesty on the crowning a just and necessary War, with the desired Effects of it, an honourable and advantageous Peace.

A Peace, which by the unerring Wisdom of Your Majesty, the indefatigable Application of Your Ministry, and the never-failing Assistance of Your great Council, has at last settled the Balance of Power in the neighbouring Kingdoms and States; extended Your Dominions, enlarged Your Commerce, secured our Religion in the Protestant Succession of the House of Hanover, and conquered the worst of Enemies, Prejudice and Faction.

That Your Majesty may be always happy in us faithful, wise, and able a Ministry, shall be our hearty Wishes; and that Your next Parliament may be as zealous Assertors of the Prerogative of the Crown and Rights of the Church, and as true Patriots of the Liberties and Welfare of their Country, as the present, shall, in the Choice of our Representatives, be the utmost Endeavours of Your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal and obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Calington, was presented to Her Majesty (in the absence of their Representatives in Parliament) by Sir William Carew, Bart. and James Hulsteel, Esq; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Lanfdowne.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, and Free Burgesses of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Calington, in the County of Cornwall.

MADAM,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, crave leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the conclusion of a safe, just and honourable Peace to Your Majesty, Your People, and Your Allies.

The great Care Your Majesty hath taken for securing the Protestant Succession in the most illustrious House of Hanover, is an undeniable Instance of the tender regard You have for the Religion, Liberties, and Properties of Your People.

May Your Majesty long continue to protect Your Government in Church and State; and that Your Majesty may add to the Blessings of Peace, by living long to enjoy the Fruits of it, are and shall always be, the sincere and hearty Prayers of Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Town and Port of Feversham, was presented to Her Majesty by Mr. William Picing, Deputy-Mayor, Mr. Michael Jones, one of the Jurats, and Mr. Roger Kennett, Town Clerk; accompanied by Percival Hart, Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Kent, John Mitchell, Esq; John Hardress, Esq; and several other Gentlemen of the said County; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Town-Clerk, and Commoners; and of the Clergy, Gentlemen and Freemen of Your Majesty's ancient Town and Port of Feversham, in the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE most distinguishing Actions of the greatest Princes extant, in the Annals of Europe, (though some of them glorious to a degree) fall far short of Your Majesty's Conduct and Resolution, both in the late War and present Peace. And as it is a Blessing inestimable, by which our Church and State, under the quiet Protection of Your Majesty, are secured; and our Trade put into a flourishing Condition, to the advantage of all Your Majesty's Subjects, so we are not only in common Gratitude, but even in Religion and Interest, bound to return our humble heartiest Thanks to Your Majesty, who with such Prudence, Wisdom and Resolution, surmounted Difficulties (impossible for any but Your great Self) to procure it.

Europe groan'd under the heavy Burthen of War and Desolation, lull'd and insatuated into an Unwilling-
