Westminster, July 16.

HER Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in Her Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir William Oldes, Gentleman-Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, requiring their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to the Publick Bills following, viz.

An Act to raise Twelve hundred thousand Pounds for Publick Uses, by circulating a farther Sum in Exchequer Bills; and for enabling Her Majesty to raise Five hundred thousand Pounds on the Revenues appointed for Uses of Her Civil Government, to be applied for or towards Payment of such Debts and Arrears, as are owing to Her Servants, Trades-men, and others, as are therein mentioned.

An Act to enable such Officers and Soldiers as have been in Her Majesty's Service, during the late War, to exercise Trades, and for Officers to account with their Soldiers.

An Act for the better Regulating the Forces to be continued in Her Majesty's Service, and for the Payment of the said Forces, and of their Quarters.

An Act to vest in the Commissioners for building Fifty new Churches in and about London and Westminster, and the Suburbs thereof, as much of the Street, near the May-Pole in the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, as shall be sufficient to build one of the said Churches upon.

An Act for encouraging the Making of Sail-Cloth in Great Britain.

An Act for Explaining the Act for Licensing Hackney Chairs.

And to several private Bills.

After which Her Majesty made the following most Gracious Speech to both Houses :

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Come now to put an End to this Session with great Satisfaction, and Return you all My hearty Thanks for the good Service you have done to the Publick.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I must particularly Thank you for the Supplies you have now given; I will take Care to Apply them, as far as they will Reach, to Satisfie the Services you have Voted.

I Hope, at the next Meeting, the Affair of Commerce will be so well Understood, that the Advantageous Conditions I have Obtained from France, will be made Effectual for the Benefit of Our Trade.

I cannot Part with so Good and so Loyal a House of Commons, without Expressing how Sensible I am of the Affection, Zeal, and Duty with which you have Behaved your selves; and I think My Self therefore Obligated to take Notice of those Remarkable Services you have Performed.

At your first Meeting you found a Method, without further Charge to My People, to Ease them of the heavy Load of more than Nine Millions; and the way of doing it may bring great Advantage to the Nation.

In this Session you have Enabled Me to be Just in Paying the Debts to My Servants.

And as you Furnished Supplies for Carrying on the War, so you have Strengthened My Hands in Obtaining a Peace.

Thus you have shewed Your selves the true Representatives of My Loyal Commons, by the Just Regard you have paid to the Good of Your Country; and My Honour,

Honour : These Proceedings will, I doubt not, Preserve the Memory of this Parliament to Posterity.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

At My Coming to the Crown I found a War Prepared for Me. God has Blessed My Arms with many Victories, and at last has Enabled Me to make them Useful by a Safe and Honourable Peace.

I heartily Thank you for the Assistance you have given Me therein; and I Promise My Self that with your Concurrence, it will be Lasting.

To this End I Recommend it to you all, to make my Subjects truly Sensible what they Gain by the Peace, and that you will Endeavour to Dissipate those Groundless Jealousies which have been so Industriously Fomented amongst Us, that Our Unhappy Divisions may not Weaken, and in some sort Endanger the Advantages I have Obtained for My Kingdoms.

There are some (very few, I Hope) who will never be Satisfied with any Government; it is Necessary therefore that you shew your Love to Your Country, by Exerting your selves, to Obviate the Malice of the Ill-minded, and to Undeceive the Deluded.

Nothing can Establish Peace at Home, nothing can Recover the Disorders that have happened during so long a War, but a Steady Adhering to the Constitution in Church and State.

Such as are True to these Principles are only to be Rely'd on; and as they have the best Title to My Favour, so you may Depend upon My having no Interest nor Aim, but your Advantage, and the Securing of our Religion and Liberty.

I Hope, for the Quiet of these Nations, and the Universal Good, that I shall, next Winter, Meet My Parliament, Resolved to Act upon the same Principles, with the same Prudence, and with such Vigour, as may Enable Me to Support the Liberties of Europe Abroad, and Reduce the Spirit of Faction at Home.

The following Address from the County of Lincoln, was Presented to Her Majesty by the Honble Philip Bertie, Esq; being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentry of the County of Lincoln.

M A D A M,

HAVING often had the Honour and Happiness of Congratulating Your Majesty for Your unparallel'd Successes in War, we with new Pleasure approach Your Sacred Throne, with Hearts full of Gratitude, for the natural Fruits, a Glorious Peace, and no less Glorious Prospect of Felicity, which Your Majesty's great Wisdom has (through all Difficulties) obtain'd for us.

Nor will Your Majesty's tender Care for Your People, suffer You to be content only with their present Happiness, without the Establishment of their future Security both in Church and State; which, Madam, You have fully effected, by fixing, for ever, the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, and preserving an inviolable Friendship with that Illustrious Family, to the great Joy of all Your Faithful and Loyal Subjects.

Nothing more is wanting to compleat Your Peoples Happiness, but the Cultivating the Arts of Peace among themselves, and the long Enjoyment of the Glories of Your Majesty's Reign; which are not only the Object of our Hopes, but the Subject of our Prayers, who are Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Corporation of Barnstaple in the County of Devon, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Nicholas Hooper, Kt. Her Majesty's Serjeant at Law, and Richard Ackland, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by Mr. Robert Incedon, Mayor of the said Borough; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Household, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and Town-Clerk; together with the Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Principal Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign !

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, have lately done ourselves the Honour to Address Your Royal Person, upon upon the delightful Prospect of a Peace which You gave us; and upon that unparallel'd Instance of Your Goodness and Condescension, in laying before Your Parliament those Honourable and Advantageous Terms which Your Majesty had procured for the Establishing so great a Blessing, the greatest in the World, next to that of having so Glorious a Prince to Reign over us. We do now beg leave to approach Your Throne, with Hearts full of Joy, to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the Success of Your Pious Care and wise Councils, in finishing a Work so Glorious to Your self, and so Beneficial to Your People and Allies.

Nor do we with less Satisfaction and Thankfulness acknowledge Your Majesty's sincere Regard and Concern, not only for our present but future Happiness, by securing the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover, by which our Religion and Liberty will be preserved entire to latest Posterity.

Tho' the Secrecy of the Protestant Religion, and the Happiness of Your Majesty's Kingdoms, have been the great Ends Your Majesty has constantly pursued in all Your Councils at home, and in all Your Victories and Treaties abroad; yet there have not been wanting disaffected Persons, Men of restless Spirits, who have endeavour'd to obstruct Your good Designs, by spreading groundless Jealousies and undutiful Reflections.

But how vain have been their Attempts, how fruitless their wicked Arts! Heaven has prosper'd Your pious Undertakings, has inspir'd You with Wisdom to discern, and with Courage and Resolution to accomplish, what was wanting to Your Peoples Happiness.

Hence we are fully convinced, that there is no Enterprize too great for our Gracious Sovereign to undertake, and no Undertakings too difficult to be executed by her.

That Your Majesty may long live to be the Ornament and Security of the Protestant Religion; That the Great GOD would continue to direct and bless Your Councils, and give You the Hearts of all Your Subjects, whose Interests You have made so entirely Your own; That the Blessing of the Peace-maker may be eternally Yours, shall ever be the hearty Prayers of us Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Ludgershall, in the County of Wilts, was presented to Her Majesty by Lieutenant General John Richmond Webb, and Major General Thomas Pearce, their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of Your ancient Borough of Ludgershall, among the rest of Your faithful Subjects, most humbly beg leave to acknowledge the Happiness we enjoy under Your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and more particularly to return our most humble Thanks for the Blessing of Peace, which Your Majesty hath, after a long and expensive War, and thro' so many Difficulties, obtained for Your People, whereby our Religion is secured, our Trade advanced, and the Protestant Succession established in the Illustrious House of Hanover.

And as we are sensible that nothing can add more to the Advantages we are to receive by this happy Peace, than Unanimity among our selves; so we humbly assure Your Sacred Majesty, we will do our utmost Endeavours to promote it, one with another; and as a farther Mark of our Fidelity, we will have a particular regard to Elect such Persons for our Representatives, as are steady for the Church of England as by Law Established, loyal to Your Majesty, and lovers of their Country.

That Your Majesty's Reign may be long and flourishing, and that no groundless Jealousies may any more appear to disturb the Quiet of it, are the sincere and constant Prayers of, Madam, Your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of the Devizes, in the County of Wilts, was presented to Her Majesty by Robert Child, Esq; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Lansdowne.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Justice of the Peace, part of the Magistrates, Common Council, and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, and other loyal Inhabitants of the said Borough.

PERMIT us, Dread Sovereign, to Congratulate Your Sacred Majesty upon the conclusion of a Peace, honourable to Your Self, just to Your Allies, and beneficial to Your Subjects.

When we reflect upon the vast Expence of Treasure, the great Effusion of Blood, and other the tragical and dismal Effects of the late tedious War, in which Your Majesty, for just Reasons, was pleas'd to engage. As we cannot but return our humble Thanks to Almighty GOD for a Peace; so we cannot but admire Your Majesty's great Wisdom, and the Sagacity, Vigilance and unwearied Diligence of Your wise Ministry, in the speedy accomplishment of so great a Work.

A Work, to us stupendous and amazing; when we consider the Opposition thereto, as well from Your Majesty's Enemies abroad, as from the Fomenters of a restless Faction, Your more unnatural and greater Enemies at home.

That Your Majesty may enjoy the Fruits of the Peace which with so much Labour You have obtained obtained for us, in a long, happy and prosperous Reign over us: And that all Your Subjects may be truly sensible of the many Blessings and Advantages they enjoy, under Your Majesty's wise and just Government, and ever loyalty and obediently serve Your Majesty, are and ever shall be the Endeavours and Prayers of, Madam, Your most loyal, most obedient, and most humble Subjects and Servants.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Madrid, July 3. N. S. Monsieur Aldobrandi, the Pope's Nuntio, by the intercession of France, has at last obtain'd leave to come to this Court, and is expected here in a short time. Monsieur Orry is returned from Arragon, where he had been for Ten Days. Count Bergeick and he differ very much in their Opinions, relating to the Establishment of the Finances. Monsieur Alburquerque, late Vice Roy of Mexico, who is arrived at a Village within a League of this Place, hath received Orders to stay there, and not come to Court. During his Government, an Indult was made against him, which it is said will cost him a considerable Sum of Money. The Prince de Santobueno having deferr'd his Journey to Peru, for some time longer, the Merchant Ships that waited to take him on board, will set Sail for Cartagena with the first fair Wind. The Count de Soupau is made Inspector of the Walloon Guards. Letters from Catalonia bring an account, that on the first Instant a general Suspension of Arms was to be proclaim'd there, and on the 15th, the Emperor's Forces are to evacuate that Province. Marechal Staremberg is to deliver up Terragona, and to retire towards Ostalrick, from thence to Palamos, where the Troops under his Command are to embark. It was expected that he would likewise have given up Barcelona, but he has sent notice to the Court, that he is not Master of that Place, which is Garrison'd by the Catalans according to their Priviledges.

Hamburg, July 18. N. S. We are assured by Letters from Berlin of the 11th, that two Treaties on the Subject of the Sequestration of Holstein and Pomerania have been signed there, and would immediately be put in Execution, if the Governor of Stetin could be prevailed on to receive the Prussian Troops into the Garrison. The King of Prussia hath sent to the Elector of Hanover, to desire he will join with him in Interposing with the King of Denmark for the Evacuation of Holstein. The Danish Privateers have again taken some Ships belonging to the King of Prussia's Subjects, and it is thought this Proceeding will incline his Majesty to declare in Favour of Sweden and Holstein, if Satisfaction be not made him very speedily. We have received an Account, that the Congress at Swedt was to be open'd on the 19th, and that his Prussian Majesty would be there in Person, accompanied by Monsieur Ilgen and Monsieur Dhona. Prince Menzikoff, Count Flemming, General Dewitz, with the Envoys of Muscovy and Denmark were to assist at it on the part of the Allies. It is believed they will agree on a Neutrality in the Provinces of Sweden and Holstein, that are situate in the Empire. Count Schonborn is set out for Berlin, to endeavour to obtain more Troops from that Court, for the Service of his Imperial Majesty, and it is said there is great probability of his succeeding in his Negotiation.

Hague, July 22. N. S. On the 19th, the Sieurs Buys and Vander Dussen, and Count Kniphausen, three of the Plenipotentiaries of this State at the Congress at Utrecht, came from thence, and have since had several Conferences with the States their Masters, and with the Earl of Strafford, upon the Subject of the Treaty of Peace between Spain and this State, as likewise on the Subject of Trade in the Spanish Netherlands, for the Regulation of which, Commissioners are arrived at Utrecht from France. The Duke d'Ossuna, the Marquis de Monteleone, and others of the Spanish Nobility, who came hither to be present at the Earl of Strafford's Ball on the 18th, are return'd to Utrecht. Count Maffei, Minister of the Duke of Savoy, is arrived here in his way to Great Britain, where he is going to reside with the Character of Envoy from his Royal Highness.

Gand, July 22. N. S. On the 20th Major-General Sabine received certain Information that a Conspiracy was form'd by several Soldiers of this Garrison to raise a Rebellion, and that they had bound themselves under an Oath to execute their Designs. Whereupon he sent Directions to Brigadier Sutton, to march hither with the whole Body of Dragoons under his Command; which he did with so much diligence, that tho' he received these Orders but at Four in the Afternoon, he arrived here at Three the next Morning. At the same time all the Horse and Berner's Regiment of Foot were under Arms, and by the prudent Care of Major-General Sabine such a Disposition was made, that the Ringleaders were seized as they were drawing out their Men, and seven of the Chief of them were, upon full Evidence, condemn'd and put to Death. Of which number was the Person who assumed the Name of Marlborough, and another who called himself Cadogan. As soon as the Execution was over, the Garrison marched round the dead Bodies, and afterwards a general Pardon was declared at the Head of every Regiment, which has effectually prevented any further Mischief. The Diligence and Resolution of the Officers, especially Brigadiers Sutton and Panton, contributed very much to the quelling this Conspiracy. The Behaviour of the Dragoons, as well Her Majesty's Subjects as Foreigners, is likewise very much to be commended; neither were the Horse of the Garrison in any thing wanting, to shew their Zeal and Readiness for Her Majesty's Service.

These are to give Notice, That on Wednesday the 29th Instant, by Order of Her Majesty's Post-master General, will be expos'd to Sale by the Candle at Lloyd's Coffee-House in Lombard-street, the Expedition and Mercury Packet-Boats, now lying against the Red-House at Deptford, with their Furniture of Guns and other Stores, as specified in their respective Inventories, which are to be seen on Board the said Vessels, at the General Post-Office, and at the Place of Sale.

The Commissioners for Victualling Her Majesty's Navy, do hereby give notice, That on Wednesday the 5th of August next, in the Forenoon, they will be ready at their Office on Tower-hill, to receive Proposals, and treat with such Persons as are inclinable to furnish White and Bay Salt, for the Service of Her Majesty's Navy.

This is to give Notice, That several Letters signed O. S. and directed to the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer, have been received by the Penny Post, and that the Gentleman is desired to continue to write as formerly.

The Commissioners appointed to take in Tickets of the Lotteries, No. 1, No. 2, and No. 3, Anno 1712, and deliver out Orders in lieu thereof, give notice, That on Monday the 20th of July Instant, at 9 in the Forenoon, they will deliver out Orders for all Tickets in any of the said three Lotteries which have been entered with them for Orders at any time on or before the 30th Day of April last past, and that they will continue the Work of giving out Orders for and in lieu of the Tickets so entered daily and every Day, till Saturday the 25th Instant inclusive: Therefore all Persons having Tickets by them in any of the said three Lotteries, or in the Class Lottery for the Year 1712, not yet entered for Orders, or not having called for their Orders in the said Class Lottery, for Tickets entered to the 1st of May last, are desired to hasten the Entry of their said Tickets, and calling for their said Orders, before the Work of delivering out these Orders begins, because that Work being begun it will not admit of any other Business to interfere in that Week.

Notice is hereby given, by the Directors of the Company of Mine Adventurers of England, That a general Court of the said Company will be held on Thursday the 30th of this Instant July, at Ten a Clock in the Morning, at Stationer's Hall, London.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England give Notice, That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday next, the 23d Instant, at 11 in the Forenoon, on Special Affairs.
