Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Madrid, July 3. N. S. Monsieur Aldobrandi, the Pope's Nuntio, by the intercession of France, has at last obtain'd leave to come to this Court, and is expected here in a short time. Monsieur Orry is returned from Arragon, where he had been for Ten Days. Count Bergeick and he differ very much in their Opinions, relating to the Establishment of the Finances. Monsieur Alburkerque, late Vice Roy of Mexico, who is arrived at a Village within a League of this Place, hath received Orders to stay there, and not come to Court. During his Government, an Indult was made against him, which it is said will cost him a considerable Sum of Money. The Prince de Santobueno having deferr'd his Journy to Peru, for some time longer, the Merchant Ships that waited to take him on board, will set Sail for Cartagena with the first fair Wind. The Count de Soupate is made Inspector of the Walloon Guards. Letters from Catalonia bring an account, that on the first Instant a general Suspension of Arms was to be proclaim'd there, and on the 15th, the Emperor's Forces are to evacuate that Province. Marechal Staremberg is to deliver up Terragona, and to retire towards Ostalrick, from thence to Palamos, where the Troops under his Command are to embark. It was expected that he would likewise have given up Barcelona, but he has sent notice to the Court, that he is not Master of that Place, which is Garrison'd by the Catalans according to their Priviledges.

Hamburg, July 18. N. S. We are assured by Letters from Berlin of the 11th, that two Treaties on the Subject of the Sequestration of Holstein and Pomerania have been signed there, and would immediately be put in Execution, if the Governor of Stetin could be prevailed on to receive the Prussian Troops into the Garrison. The King of Prussia hath sent to the Elector of Hanover, to desire he will join with him in Interposing with the King of Denmark for the Evacuation of Holstein. The Danish Privateers have again taken some Ships belonging to the King of Prussia's Subjects, and it is thought this Proceeding will incline his Majesty to declare in Favour of Sweden and Holstein, if Satisfaction be not made him very speedily. We have received an Account, that the Congress at Swedt was to be open'd on the 19th, and that his Prussian Majesty would be there in Person, accompanied by Monsieur Ilgen and Monsieur Dhona. Prince Menzikoff, Count Flemming, General Dewitz, with the Envoys of Muscovy and Denmark were to assist at it on the part of the Allies. It is believed they will agree on a Neutrality in the Provinces of Sweden and Holstein, that are situate in the Empire. Count Schonborn is set out for Berlin, to endeavour to obtain more Troops from that Court, for the Service of his Imperial Majesty, and it is said there is great probability of his succeeding in his Negotiation.

Hague, July 22. N. S. On the 19th, the Sieurs Buys and Vander Dussen, and Count Knipphausen, three of the Plenipotentiaries of this State at the Congress at Utrecht, came from thence, and have since had several Conferences with the States their Masters, and with the Earl of Strafford, upon the Subject of the Treaty of Peace between Spain and this State, as likewise on the Subject of Trade in the Spanish Netherlands, for the Regulation of which, Commissioners are arrived at Utrecht from France. The Duke d'Ossuna, the Marquis de Monteleone, and others of the Spanish Nobility, who came hither to be present at the Earl of Strafford's Ball on the 18th, are return'd to Utrecht. Count Maffei, Minister of the Duke of Savoy, is arrived here in his way to Great Britain, where he is going to reside with the Character of Envoy from his Royal Highness.

Gand, July 22. N. S. On the 20th Major-General Sabine received certain Information that a Conspiracy was form'd by several Soldiers of this Garrison to raise a Rebellion, and that they had bound themselves under an Oath to execute their Designs. Whereupon he sent Directions to Brigadier Sutton, to march hither with the whole Body of Dragoons under his Command; which he did with so much diligence, that tho' he received these Orders but at Four in the Afternoon, he arrived here at Three the next Morning. At the same time all the Horse and Berner's Regiment of Foot were under Arms, and by the prudent Care of Major-General Sabine such a Disposition was made, that the Ringleaders were seized as they were drawing out their Men, and seven of the Chief of them were, upon full Evidence, condemn'd and put to Death. Of which number was the Person who assumed the Name of Marlborough, and another who called himself Cadogan. As soon
