Kensington, July 19.

THE following Address from the Borough of Pool, was presented to Her Majesty by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Steward, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Grand Jury, and Burgeses of the Town and Borough of Pool in the County of Mountgomery, at a General Sessions of the Peace held for the said Botough, on the 19th Day of June, 1713.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts full of Joy and Satisfaction we Your Majesty's most Dutiful and truly Loyal Subjects, humbly beg leave to Congratulate the Conclusion of a Happy, Glorious and Honourable Peace; built upon such a Foundation (as by the Blessing of GOD) may prove a firm and lasting Tranquility to us and our Posterity.

Madam, the many Difficulties and secret Machinations Your Majesty and Your wise and unparallel'd Ministry met with in the Progress of it, has served only to render Your Attainment more Glorious Your Majesty's Princely Care of Your Subjects future Happiness, very eminently also appears by Your tender Concern and Regard for the Church of England, and the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover.

Victories and Triumphs (aided by the providential Hand of the Almighty) lowly speak Your Power and Praise: And Peace, the most desirable Blessing, attended with some Abatement of the heavy Burden of Taxes, Your Subjects Ease and Satisfaction; neither hath Your Majesty's pious Endeavours terminated there, but extended yet further, to the Welfare of Foreign Nations, by the Enlargement and Securing of the Protestant Interest abroad. All which most noble and glorious Acts, have erected lasting Monuments in the Hearts of all good Men amongst us; and late Posterity will ever Celebrate Your Name, till time will be no more.

The following Address from the County of Gloucester, was presented to Her Majesty by John Berkeley, Esq; One of the Knights of the Shire; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Bathurst.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen, at the Quarter Sessions holden for the County of Gloucester.

PERMIT us, Madam, in the humblest manner, to Congratulate Your Majesty on the happy End, You have been pleas'd to put to the unprosperous Attempts of all those, who have endeavour'd to obstruct Your Peace; which You by Your great Wisdom, and the indefatigable Industry of Your Ministers, have at last accomplish'd, to the universal Happiness of this part of the World, by a Peace most Glorious and Advantageous both for the Honour and Benefit of this Your Kingdom.

Your Majesty hath not only a tender regard of us, but also our Posterity, by securing a Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover wherein Your Princely Care and Affection to Your People is no less conspicuous.

As for our selves, be pleas'd to give us leave (with most humble and unfeign'd Sincerity) to assure Your Majesty, that no Suggestion of Interest, nor the Clamour of Popery (the now popular Cant of Faction) shall ever make us disloyal to Your Majesty, or break through the Rules of Religion, as by Law Establish'd, or the Good of our Country.

May Your Majesty long enjoy the Blessings of this Your most glorious Peace, and may all Your Subjects, under a grateful Sense of Your extensive Goodness, promote Your Majesty's Ease, by which their own is secur'd. This is the hearty Prayer of all us, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the County of Bedford, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Pynsent Chernock, Bart. and John Harvey, Esq; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Bruce.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, the Grand Jury, and other the Freeholders of the County of Bedford, met at their General Quarter Sessions of the said County.

May it please Your Majesty,

TO permit us, with Hearts truly grateful, to felicitate Your Majesty upon Your having overcome the Difficulties which did obstruct a general Peace; an Achievement that must render Your Majesty's Wisdom, in Treaty, as conspicuous as the Power of Your Arms has been in Action.

Your Majesty has improv'd the glorious Blessing You have provided for Your People, by Your most gracious manner of Communicating it to Your Parliament: And it is with the greatest Satisfaction, we have observ'd that Parliament so eminent in their returns of Duty and Gratitude to Your Majesty. We beg leave to assure Your Majesty, that in the ensuing Elections, we shall endeavour to return such Members as shall Rival them in their Loyalty and Zeal for Your Majesty, and cheerfully concur in ratifying such well-digested Schemes of Commerce as have render'd Your Majesty's Endeavours for the Prosperity of Your People most effectual.

We gratefully acknowledge Your Majesty's generous Care for our future Happiness, in securing the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover. May that be reserved to our Posterity, while under Your Majesty's most auspicious Reign (which may GOD long continue over us) we do our best to Cultivate the Arts of Peace, and bless the Hand that gave it.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.
