Kensington, July 22.

THE following Address from the Boroughs of Weymouth and Melcomb-Regis, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Thomas Hardy, William Harvey, and Reginald Marriott, Esqrs; Members of Parliament for the said Boroughs; being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Weymouth.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Loyal Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of Your Majesty's Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Weymouth and Melcomb-Regis, in the County of Dorset.

May it please Your Majesty,

AMONG the many Testimonies of Duty and Gratitude to Your Royal Majesty, vouchsafe to accept our most humble Acknowledgments for the great Blessing Your Majesty (under GOD) has procured to Your People; & Safe, an Honourable, and Well-tim'd Peace.

Your Majesty's great Wisdom (to the real Joy of all Your Loyal Subjects) has Conquer'd the implacable Fury of Your Enemies; and no doubt, by the Blessing of GOD, but it will soon put to Silence the Insolence and Inveteracy of the Disobedient and Ungrateful, who daily endeavour to disturb the Quiet and Peace of, and were it in their Power subvert, the Constitution in Church and State.

We, of this Place, are in a more particular manner obliged to own Your indefatigable Care and consummate Prudence, for the many Advantages Your Majesty has gained us in Trade, in order to Redeem Your Subjects from the heavy Oppressions to which War, the Craft and Artifice of designing Men, have reduced us.

We are exceeding glad of that perfect Friendship between Your Sacred Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover, notwithstanding the malicious and secret Endeavours, the false and unreasonable Suggestions of wicked Men.

Every one must acknowledge Your Majesty has taken sufficient Care of securing the Succession in the Protestant Line: We most fervently pray for Your Majesty's Long, Happy, Prosperous and Peaceable Reign; that all Your Subjects may be Loyal, Obedient and Thankfull; and that the Blessings of Peace, and Plenty may flourish and abound.

Which Address Her Majesty received very graciously.

Venice, July 14. N. S. On the 10th, the Procurator Thiepolo, who has been Ambassador at Paris, Vienna, and last at Rome, made his Publick Entry, being accompanied by the Senators in their Scarlet Robes, and a great number of the Nobility. They write from Rome, that the Abbot Albani, Nephew to the Pope, was returned there from Castel Godolpho. The Canonry of Santa Maria Maggiore, which he expected, hath been confer'd on the Abbot Fattinelli. Monignor Aldobrandini was arriv'd from his Nunciature of Naples, and intended to set out for this City, as soon as the Heat of the Weather was abated. The Pope had receiv'd Letters from Madrid, which gave great Hopes of accommodating the Differences with that Court very speedily. We have receiv'd advice from Naples, that the Cessation of Arms for Italy, and the Islands in the Mediterranean, was Proclaim'd there on the 30th past. The Vice Roy had struck the first Nail in a large Gally that is building, and is to be call'd the St. Gennaro. The Province of Abruzzo was infested by a great number Banditti, who committed great Disorders, and the Government was taking Measures to put a stop to them. Monignor Vicentini, the Pope's Nuntio, had his first Audience of the Vice Roy. We are inform'd, by a Ship lately come in here from Smyrna, that the Plague was brought into that City by a Sultana from Constantinople, and a Saik from Alexandria, and great numbers of People dy'd there every Day.

Copenhagen, July 22. N. S. Some Days ago the King went from hence to Bredricksburg, and it is said he will return very soon into Holstein. The Squadron commanded by Vice Admiral Keets, is sail'd to the Gulph of Kiog, where it is order'd to stay, that it may be in a readiness to be employ'd where Occasion may require. An Express is arrived here with advice, that some Swedish Men of War were seen off the Coast of Jutland: It is thought they can have no Design in coming into these Seas, unless it be to Cruise on the Traders. The Master of a Ship lately come in here from Riga, gives out, that the Muscovites have been entirely defeated in Finland, but as the Court has received no authentick Accounts from that Province, since the Czar's Invasion of it, we don't yet give Credit to this Report.

Hamburg, July 25. N. S. On the 16th the King of Prussia return'd from Swedt to Berlin, and was soon after follow'd by all the Ministers concern'd in the Sequestration of Holstein and Pomerania, in order to renew the Conferences at that Place, which is thought more proper for a long Negotiation. His Prussian Majesty hath declared he will use his utmost Endeavours to incline the King of Denmark to evacuate Holstein, to which end he hath made a Treaty with the Duke, and order'd a Copy of it to be given to the Danish Ministers, who immediately sent Colonel Meyer with it to the King, to receive his Instructions upon it. Spetia is Inveited by Fourteen thousand Muscovites, who are to be reforc'd by a considerable Body of Saxons. It is said, Monseur Meyerfeld, the Governor, hath at last consented to receive two Battalions of Prussian Troops into the Fortress, provided the Senate of Stockholm will send him Orders to that purpose. The Saxons have begun to fortifie a Pass in Pomerania, called Malchin; The Czar's Minister hath presented a Memorial to the King of Denmark, desiring his Majesty not to release the Swedish Prisoners, till the Muscovites in Sweden are first set at Liberty. The Danish Envoy at the Court of Vienna is very pressing with the Emperor, grant him the Investiture of the Dutchies of Bremen and Verden for the King his Master. The Duke of Mecklenburg is so dangerously ill at Schlans-shad, that his Life was despair'd of when the last Letters came away. We have received Advice from Adrianople, that the Muscovite Ambaf-sadors were kept in close Confinement in the Seven Towers.

Utrecht, July 28. N. S. On the 25th, the Earl of Strafford returned from the Hague, immediately after which, the Plenipotentiaries of the States General were in Conference with those of Her Majesty. The next Day the same Ministers met at the Lord Privy Seal's, and Sign'd the Act for a Provisional Regulation of Trade in the Spanish Netherlands. Yesterday the Ministers of the States were again in Conference with their Lordships, as was this Morning the Marquis de Monteleon. Last Night a Courier arrived here from Madrid, and brought the Ratification of the Treaty that was provisionally Sign'd by the Lord Viscount Boling-broke on the Part of Her Majesty, and by the Marquis de Monteleon on the Part of the King of Spain.

Hague, July 28. N.S. On the 24th Count Maffei, Minister of the Duke of Savoy, set out for Helvoet Sluys, in order to embark for Great Britain. The same Evening the Procurator Ruzzini, came to reside at this Place, as Ambassador from the Republick of Venice. The Marquis de Renuccini, Minister of the Great Duke of Tuscany, and Monsieur St. Severin, Minister of the Duke of Parma, are likewise arrived here. Count Passionei, the Pope's Agent, is come hither from Utrecht, and intends in a few Days to set out for Rome by the way of France. A House is hired here for Monsieur Chateaucuf, who is expected very soon from Paris, as Ambassador Extraordinary from the Most Christian King.
