

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 25 to Tuesday July 28. 1713.

Kensington, July 25.

THE following Address from the County of Somerset, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Hawley and Sir William Wyndham, Bart. being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Somerset, assembled at a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the said County at Bridgwater.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects presume, with the utmost Humility, to offer at Your Sacred Feet, the just Returns of our sincerest Thanks for those glorious and advantageous Treaties of Peace and Commerce which Your great Wisdom and Resolution has obtained for Your People; notwithstanding the unreasonable Difficulties raised to obstruct the same, the situation of those Acquisitions Your Majesty hath been pleased to accept, the Enlargements of our Foreign Trade, and the Security so fully stipulated, on the Exportation of our Manufactures, make it most evident, that Your Majesty, through the whole course of this great Affair, prefer'd the Good and Welfare of Your People, to the aggrandizing Your own Power, or extending Your Dominions.

After these Instances of Your Royal Care and Goodness, we humbly crave leave to assure Your Majesty, that no Factions Insinuations shall Influence or Divide this Your Loyal County, and that we will ever contend with the forwardest of our Fellow Subjects in suppressing all Attempts that shall disturb the Protestant Succession, cause any Uneasiness to Your Majesty, or obstruct the Glory and Security of Your most auspicious Government.

The following Address from the County of Cumberland, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Christopher Musgrave; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Cumberland, met at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at Carlisle.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE many Blessings we have ever enjoy'd under Your Majesty's most auspicious Government are so great, that we can never too much express our Gratitude. The Union of Your Nations is the effect of Your Royal Wisdom, as the glorious Success of Your Arms is of Your prudent Conduct; and notwithstanding the different Views of contending Powers, an honourable Peace is now brought home to us.

Thus, Madam, under the Protection of Your gracious Reign, and by Your Pious Endeavours to secure the Succession of Your Crown to the illustrious House of Hanover, our Sacred and Civil Rights are secured to us and our Posterity, and we have nothing left to Contend about, but who shall, by the best Demonstrations of Loyalty, in our respective Stations, and with the greatest Zeal and Devotion, approve our selves Your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Lisbon, July 18. N. S. This Court hath agreed with that of Spain, to prolong the Suspension of Arms, which expir'd on the 15th Instant, till a Treaty of Peace is Sign'd by their Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht. This is thought to be in so great forwardness, that Preparations are making for Rejoycings upon that Occasion, and on the 1st of September there is to be a Feast of Bulls. Her Majesty's Ship the Fox, which has waited in this Harbour for some time, expecting the arrival of Sir Nicholas Trevanian, intends to set Sail for Great Britain without him, if he does not come in here within two Days. We have receiv'd advice from Cadiz, that Captain Paddon was arrived there, having concluded a Truce with the Emperor of Morocco for three Months.

Hamburg, July 28. N. S. Since the Swedish Ministers are not able to perform their Agreement about the delivery of Stetin to the King of Prussia, by reason of the obstinate refusal of Monsieur Meyerfeldt, the Governor, to do it without an express Order from the King his Master, the Muscovite and Saxon Troops have invested that Place on every side, and intend to besiege it in Form, in order to deliver it into the Hands of his Prussian Majesty, who it is said will contribute whatever is wanting, for the Success of that Enterprize. The Allies hope to be Masters of the Town in three Weeks, from the opening of the Trenches, and General Baver has already taken by Storm one of the Forts nam'd the Star. The Garrison consists of Five thousand Men, and if they were sufficiently provided with Necessaries, they would be capable of making a long and vigorous Resistance. The King of Denmark intended to leave Copenhagen this Day, and his Majesty is expected at Gottorp on the 2d of next Month. He hath order'd Eleven thousand Men to march out of Zealand into Holstein, and resolves to form an Army there of Thirty thousand Men of his own Troops, including those that are upon their return from Flanders. The Danish Vice Admiral Reis is gone to Sea with Fourteen large Men