HEALTH AND SAFETY EXECUTIVE

SPECIAL EXEMPTION ORDER

Changes in the legislation which restrict the hours worked by women and young people under the age of 18 employed in factories, introduced by Sex Discrimination Act 1986, took effect on 27th February 1987, although the prohibition on women working at night remained in force until 26th February 1988. As a result the provisions in the Factories Act 1961 and related legislation now apply only to young people.

Section 117 of the Factories Act 1961 remains thereby enabling the Health and Safety Executive (HSE), subject to certain conditions, to grant exemptions from these restrictions for young people aged 16 and 17 by making special exemption orders in respect of employment in particular factories. Orders are valid for a maximum of one year, although exemptions may be continued in response to renewed applications.

During the quarter ended June 1988, the HSE granted or renewed special exemption orders relating to the employment of 15319 young persons. On the day of the count a grand total of 12837 young persons were covered by 1699 orders.

EAST SUSSEX COUNTY COUNCIL

The East Sussex (A22 Road, Hellingly) (Restricted Road) Order 1988

Notice is hereby given that, with reference to Public Notice No. 772 which appeared in issue No. 51093 of the London Gazette on 16th October 1987, East Sussex County Council has recently installed street lighting at the junction of the A22 road with Hempstead Lane, Hellingly, with the intention of reducing the accident rate at this point.

It is not the Council's intention that this length of road should be subject to a 30 m.p.h. speed restriction, as the Department of Transport's criteria for such a limit are not met, and such a restriction would not be appropriate for the A22 road's status as an 'A' class road.

The County Council has therefore, with the consent of the Secretary of State for Transport, made an Order under sections 82(2) and 83(2) of, and Part II of Schedule 9 to, the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. This Order, which will come into operation on Monday, 18th July 1988, will de-restrict the A22 road from a point 73 metres north of its junction with the northern kerb-line of Hempstead Lane, southwards to a point 69 metres south of its junction with the southern kerb-line of Hempstead Lane, by removing the limit imposed by the new lighting.

A copy of the Order and a plan showing the length of road affected may be examined at my office between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Monday to Friday inclusive until 24th August 1988.

Any person who desires to question the validity of the Order, or of any provision contained in it, on the grounds that it is not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, or on the grounds that any requirement of that Act or of any Instrument made under it has not been complied with in relation to the Order, may within 6 weeks of 13th July 1988 apply to the High Court for this purpose.
