

Week they should be able to make a Breach in the Body of the Place, to which purpose they were preparing a Battery of Sixty four Pieces of Cannon. It is reported that the Duke of Bourbon, who went from Paris two Days after his Marriage with the Princess of Conti to serve at that Siege, was killed in the Trenches by a Cannon Shot, as he was viewing the Approaches. Letters from Frankfort bring an Account, that Prince Eugene is gone with a Body of Twenty thousand Men to encamp before Mentz, where he has entrench'd himself with a double Entrenchment, to protect that Place from any Insult on the part of the French.
