Aldermen, Sheriffs, Grand Jury, Clergy, Free Bur-geffes, Freemen and Freeholders of the Town and County of Gallway, affembled at the general Affizes held there.

Which Addreffes Her Majefty received very gracioufly.

Warfaw, Sept. 11. N. S. Molt of the Saxon Troops are arrived in this Kingdom, and great Impositions have been laid on the People for their Subfiftence. King Augastus hath deferr'd his Journey to Sendomir, upon fome advice he has late-ly received from Adrianople, by which we are inform'd, that King Staniflaus was imprifon'd for endeavouring to perfwade the Turks that he had Letters from the Great Generals of Poland and Lithuania, assuring him that they would join him with their Troops under their Command, upon his first Appearance in this Country. The Palatin of Mazovia, our Ambassador at the Port, presented a Memorial, in which he complain'd of this Calumny rais'd against the Polish Generals, who were prepared for a vigorous Defence, in cafe any Invation should be made on the Kingdom. He receiv'd a favourable Answer to his Representation, and was told, the Grand Signior would religioutly observe his Treaties with the Republick, and only intended to Fortify Chocym in order to fecure a Frontire on this Side, which was abfolutely requifite in the prefent Conjuncture of his Affairs. The fame Let-ters add, that the King of Sweden continued very much out of order, that he had a Gangrene in his Foot, for which it was found neceffary to cut off 1y Salary of Twelve thousand Livres. two of his Toes.

Vienna, Sept. 9. N. S. On the 7th, the Queen of Portugal's Birth-Day was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence. The contagious Difease continues to rage here with great Violence, and the Perfons to whole Care the Health of the People is committed, meet every Day to confider of preper Measures to prevent the Diffemper from spreading.

It is already got into Bohemia, and the Mortality is very great at Prague. It prevails likewife in Franconia towards Nuremberg, as also at Ratisbonne, from whence the Ministers of the Diet have been oblig'd to remove. The Emperor has appointed Baron Leffelhotz to be Governor of Peter Varadin in the room of Baron Nehm, lately deceas'd. He is l'kewife conftituted General of Sclavonia.

Berlin, Sept. 16. N. S. The King and Queen are expected from Weysterhausen on the 18th, and within a few Days after his Majesty intends to set out for Goltz, in order to take the Diversion of Stag Shooting. The Royal Regiment of Foot, and the Regiment of Anhalt, are upon their March to this Place, where they are to be in Garrifon all rext Winter. Advices from Hamburgh bring an Account, that the Mortality encreases in that City, and the Number of Perfons that died there last Week amounted to above Five hundred. The King King of Denmark had for fome time block'd up the 1 lice, under Pretence of preventing the Contagion from spreading, whereupon the Elector of Hanover fent Directions to his Refident here, to represent the ill (onsequences of it to this Court, and to concert Measures with our Ministers to prevent any Defign his Danish Majesty might have against that Lity: But we have been fince informed, that the Danes have withdrawn their Forces from thence.

Paris, September 22. N. S. The Court continues ftill at Fontainbleau, where his Majefty often takes the Diversion of Hunting and Fishing, and in the Evening of feeing a Comedy. An Express is lately arrived from Mareschal Villars with an Account, that the Army under his Command, confifting of Two hundred and fifty Squadrons, and Two hundred and twenty five Battalions, paffed the Rhine on the 12th at Fort Louis and Fort Kehl, and was encamped at Offenburg. It is not yet known what Defign he may have in view, but we are affured he has full Power to act as he shall judge most convenient. The Detachment that was made from the Army under Marefchal Bezons, has been re-placed by Thirty fix Battalions lately fent him, and he is now at the Head of One hundred Squadrons, and Sixty Battalions, without including Fifteen Regiments of Foot that are in Garrison at Landau. The Fortifications of that Place are entirely repaired; a great Quantity of Ammunition and Provisions has been fent into the Magazines there, and the Marquis de Vieux is left to Command in the Town. The King has bestowed the Government of Coutance upon Monsieur Blouin, one of the Grooms of the Bedchamber, with a year-

Hague, Sept. 26. N. S. The States General have presented the Marquis del Bourg, the Duke of Savoy's Minister, who has lately had an Audience of Leave, with a Gold Chain, and a Medal, and he is preparing for his Journey to Turin. On the 22d, the Prefident of the Affembly of their High Mightineffes, return'd a Vifit which he receiv'd the Day before from Monsieur de Chateauneuf, Ambaffador

pan. dor of 4 rance. Advices from the Rhine bring an account, that the French Army under the command of Mareschal Villars had passed that River, but it was uncertain whether they would make any further Attempt, the Seafon being thought too far advanced to undertake the Siege of Fribourg, to prevent which, Prince Eugene has likewise taken all possible Precaution.
