The London Gazette.

Publiched by Authority.

From Saturday October 3 to Thesday October 6. 1713.

Venice, September 29. N. S. HE Magistrates of Health have order'd that all Vessels coming from the Baltick shall perform a Quarentine. Some Days ago there was a long Debate in the Senate, upon a Propofal for leffening the Interest of Money borrow'd by this Republick, and after feveral warm Speeches on each fide, it was at laft rejected. On the 25th, the new Great Chancellor made his PublickEntry with great magnificence. The Electoral Prince of Saxony is preparing to go from hence, tho' he has not yet declar'd, whether he intends to proceed to fome other Place in Italy, or to return home. Three of our Men of War, the Neptune, the Jupiter, and the Pigeon are lately arrived from the Levant, on board of which feveral Noblemen are returned from their Governments. They write from Rome, that the Pope had published a Decree, in which he condemns a New Testament in French, with Annotations, printed at Paris in the Year 1699. The Congregation of Immunities thought proper to annul the Sentence of Excommunication pronounced by Car-dinal Pignatelli, against the Criminal Court of Judicature at Naples, for ordering a Woman to be feiz'd in a Convent, whether she had fled for Protection.

Hamburgb, Oltober 10. N. S. This Week the Bill of Mortality is left by Fifty Seven than it was the Week before. But it is reported that the Contagion is again broke out at Altena; whereupon the King of Denmark has fent fome of his Phylicians to visit all the Houses there, and they are to make an exact Report to him of the State of the Place, with respect to the Health of the Inhabitants. His Danish Majesty has rejected all the Proposals of Ba-ron Goertz relating to Tonningen, and infists that an equal number of his Troops shall be added to those of any Neutral Power, that are put into Gar-rison there. That Place has been a second time furnished with Provisions for Eight Days; but as they were allowed for no longer Term than while the Conferences lasted, it is thought, fince they are now broke off, his Majefty will fuffer no more to be car-ried in. Monfieur Goertz finding how unfuccelsful his Negotiations had been at Gottorp, retired pri-vately from thence, without taking Leave of the Ministers of that Court. He is gone to Brunswick to receive Instructions from the Duke-Administrator his Master, after which he is to return to Berlin. The King of Denmark intends to celebrate his Birth Day to Morrow at Gottorp, and immediately after to fet out for Copenhagen. He has ordered the Caftle of Eutin to be that up fince the Dutchels of Holftein's arrival there, under Pretence of hinder-ing her Retinue from coming into the Town till they have performed their Quarentine. The Pomeranian Regiment commanded by Colonel Horn, that was in Garrison at Stetin, having thrown down their Arms, and the People of the Town prefing General Meyerfeldt to Surrender, he was oblig'd to capitulate with Prince Menzikoff on the 28th of the last Month, and on the 1st Instant he march'd out of the Place with all the Tokens of Honour. Two Battalions in the Service-of the Duke of Holstein remain in Garrison there, and it is said some Prussian Troops are to be added to them. Count Steinbock has fent General Patkul into Sweden to defire that the Muscovite Prisoners, the Troops that Surrender'd with him in Holftein to obtain theirs. They write from Carlferon, that Sixteen Veffels were ready to fet Sail from thence with the first fair Wird, and that they had on board a confiderable Body of Men defign'd for the Isle of Rugen. We hear from Poland, that King Augustus had receiv'd an Express from I copol with an account, that the Turkith and Tartarian Minifters were gone from thence with Credentials to his Majesty, and it was thought they would be at Warfaw in eight Days time.

Hanover, Öftober 10. N. S. The departure of the Court to Gohre has been deferred for fome Days, upon account of the Indisposition of the Electrefs Dowager, who at prefent finds her felf much better. Monfieur Anderson, Sindic and Deputy of the City of Hamburg, is arrived here from Holland, where he had been with a Commission from the Serafe, to follicit the States-General not to forbid the bringing of Goods into their Dominions from Hamburg. But notwithstanding his Representations, that it is not the Plague that Rages there, an Edict has been publish'd, prohibiting the Importation of all Mer-chandize from thence into the Seven Provinces. His Electoral Highness has allow'd his Subjects to fend Goods and Provisions of all Kinds to that City, but at the fame time he has given strict Orders, not to fuffer any Perfort to come, or any Commodity to be brought from thence into his Territories. The King of Denmark, who is still at Gottorp, has done the fame with regard to his Country. The Administrator of Holitein is arrived at Wolfenbuttel, where he is entertain'd at the Duke's Erpence. It is faid he will go foon to the Hague, to try if he can prevail with the States to interpofe their good Offices with the King of Denmark, to reinstate him in his Government. Letters from Gottorp bring an Account, that the Swedes had endeavour'd to burn the Danish Fleet near the Coasts of Zeland, by the means of a new-contrived Ship filled with feveral forts of Fireworks. This Attempt milcarried by the Veffel's running aground, upon which the Danes immediately (eized her, and discovered the Defign as it was upon the point of being put in Execution. They write from Pomerania, that the Governor of Stetin had Capitulated, and the Garrifon was march'd out, except two Battaliors that have taken the Oath to the Administrator of Holstein. Three Prussian Regiments have been added to them, and the Place is commanded by a Major-General of the fame Nation.

Hague, October 13. N. S. The States of Holland in their laft Affembly agreed to raile Twenty Millions of Florins by way of Lottery, and came to fome Refolutions in relation to their Treaty of Peace with Spain, after which they feparated. On the oth Monfieur de Chateauneuf, Ambassador of Example was in Conference with the Farl of Strafe France, was in Conference with the Earl of Straf-ford, who went the next Morning to Utre.ht, upon an Invitation he received from the Duke d'OG funa, to be prefent at his Ball in Hon, u. of the young Prince Ferdinando. Yesterday his Excellency re-turn'd from thence, as did likewife the Sieurs Buys and Van den Dussen, Plenipotentiaries of the States-General, who went to confer with the Spa-nish Ministers. The States having tent for most of their Generals, in order to confult with them about who are still detained in that Kingdom, may be set the Regulation of their Troops, General Tilly, at liberty, fince there is no other means for him and the Earl of Albamarle, and Monsicur Dopf, are al-