DR. Stoughton's great Cordial-Elixir for all Indispositions of the Stomach and Blood, now famous throughout Europe, and sold in most Cities and great Towns thereof by some one Merchant or Trader. 'Tis the greatest Preservative from infectious Air, or contagious Diseases in the World, keeping the Body in a due state of Health and Vigour; as hath been largely experienced in the West-Indies some time ago; and lately at Sweden, where it was observed, that hardly any one who took it had the Disease. 'Tis not Purging, but Cordial on y, a very delightful Bitter; and most Gentlemen drink it in Wine instead of any other; Laies in Tea, and others in Beer, Ale, &c. Prepared only by him at his House in Bartholomew-lane, near the Royal Exchange, London, having obtained her Majesty's most gracious Letters Patents for the sole making thereof. Those Merchants, Captains of Ships and others, who will send or take with them any considerable Quantity abroad, shall have room for large Profit, it selling at a good Price, it well known and highly esteemed of in most places of Europe. It is so great a Cleanser of the Blood, that hundreds have been cured of Agues by this Elixir only, taken, as the Bills direct, which are now in French, Dutch and Spanish, as well as English.
