CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD

St. James's Palace, London S.W.1
6th February 1989

The QUEEN has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointment to the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:

Order of the British Empire (Civil Division)

To be an Ordinary Knight Grand Cross of the Civil Division of the said most Excellent Order:

The Honourable Mr Justice Thomas EICHELBAUM, Chief Justice of New Zealand. (26 SI)

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

UNIVERSITIES OF OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE ACT 1923

A Statute made by the Governing Body of St. Hilda's College, in the University of Oxford on 20th January 1989, amending Statutes I-IV has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923.

The purpose of the Statute is:

- (i) to reduce from 67 to 65 the statutory retirement age for the Principal and the tutors of the college, unless elected or appointed before 1 October 1987, except that, in the case of the tutors, those holding a linked university appointment tenable until at least 67 shall vacate their college appointment on retirement from their university employment; and
- (ii) to make provision for a new class of college fellowships (with governing-body membership), known as Beale Fellowships, tenable by appointees to non-renewable five-year tutorial fellowships. (1 SI)

CROWN OFFICE

House of Lords, London SW1A 0PW
31st January 1989

The QUEEN has been pleased to issue Her Majesty's Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Realm in form following:

ELIZABETH THE SECOND by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms and Territories Queen Head of the Commonwealth Defender of the Faith

To the Commissioners more particularly described hereinafter and all other Our faithful Subjects whatsoever to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas Our right trusty and well beloved Counsellor James Peter Hymers Baron Mackay of Clashfern, Our Chancellor of Great Britain, hath humbly besought Us to grant to him and his successors in office (the holder for the time being of the said office being hereinafter called Our Chancellor) leave to be absent from Our United Kingdom from time to time during Our Pleasure, and We are graciously pleased to assent to his request;

And Whereas We deem it expedient to commit to the Commissioners constituted by and for the purposes of these Presents (hereinafter called Our Commissioners) the custody of Our Great Seal of Our Realm (hereinafter called Our Great Seal) during any such absence of Our Chancellor, save when it is in Our custody;

And Whereas We further deem it expedient, if at any time and for so long as Our Chancellor is by reason of ill-health or for any other reason temporarily incapable of exercising the powers, duties and functions of his office, to commit to Our Commissioners both the custody of Our Great Seal (save when it is in Our custody) and also all his other powers, duties and functions, except those appertaining to his office as Speaker of Our House of Lords;

And Whereas We further deem it expedient to commit to Our Commissioners during any vacancy that may in future occur in the office of Our Chancellor both the custody of Our Great Seal (save when it is in Our custody) and also all other powers, duties and functions of Our Chancellor, except those appertaining to his office as Speaker of our House of Lords;

Know ye That we do hereby grant leave to Our Chancellor to be absent from Our United Kingdom from time to time during Our Pleasure, until we give further order or direction to the contrary, to the intent that such leave shall not determine by the return of Our Chancellor to Our United Kingdom, but shall endure and be a
