Madrid, October 9. N. S.

HIS Majesty has been lately indisposed of an Ague, but as he has had no Fit for some Days past, we hope it will not return any more. The Queen has likewise been out of Order, but is now perfectly Recover'd. We have receiv'd Advice from the Camp before Barcelona, that the Duke de Popoli had sent a Detachment of the Garrison of Mataro to Badalona, which had seized on some Provisions the Miquelets had privately laid up there, with a design to Transport them to Barcelona in small Boats they had prepared for that purpose. Don Feliciano de Bracamonte had summon'd the Governor of Castell-Ciudad to surrender that Place, which he consented to do, upon a Promise of Pardon made him in the King's Name. Monsieur Bracamonte having placed a Garrison there, under the Command of Brigadier Castro, renew'd his March in pursuit of General Nebot, who retired from him through very rough and difficult Ways, in which he lost a considerable Number of Men and Horses; but at last he got into the Castle of Cardona with a few Followers.

Venice, October 13. N. S. The Electoral Prince of Saxony having received Orders from King Augustus, his Father, to return home, has already sent away part of his Equipage, and intends to set out himself to Morrow. The Senate has lately dispatch'd an Express to Vienna, with Letters for the Emperor, desiring his Majesty to recal his Troops that are upon their March towards the Milanese, and to join with this Republick in other Measures, for preventing the Contagious Distemper, which Rages in Germany, from spreading it self to Italy. Cardinal Priuli is gone to his Abbey in the Veronese, from whence he intends to set out for Rome. We are inform'd by two of our Vessels lately arrived from Smirna, that the Plague was entirely ceased in that City, and the adjacent Parts. Letters from Rome bring an Account, that the Mortality of Cattle continued thereabouts, upon which account there had been a Procession, at which the Pope assisted in Person, accompanied by Six and twenty Cardinals, and Eighty Bishops. They write from Naples, that the Emperor's Birth-day had been Celebrated there with great Magnificence. The Count de Taun, Eldest Son of the Vice-Roy, was created Duke of Similiano in Calabria, by Letters Patent from his Imperial Majesty.

Stetin, October 20. N. S. A great part of the Muscovite Troops pass'd by this Place some Days ago on their March towards Poland; and it is thought they will be followed very soon by General Baur with the remainder. On the 18th Prince Menzikoff likewise pass'd through this City in his way to Petersburgh, where he is order'd to attend the Czar. The Swedish Troops that were in Garrison here, and are at present encamped near this Place, are to be transported to the Isle of Rugen.

Berlin, October 21. N. S. On the 17th the King removed from Charlottenberg to Potsdam, and the Queen came to this Place. Monsieur Mardefeldt, who was lately sent by this Court with a Commission to the King of Denmark in favour of the House of Holstein Gottorp, returned hither a few Days ago. It is said he had but little Success in his Negotiations, and was referred by the Danish Ministers to the Assembly of the States of the Circle of Lower Saxony, which is to be held at Brunswick; and the Affairs of Holstein, as well as of Swedish Pomerania, and the Dutchy of Bremen, are to be determined there. Yesterday Count Wakerbart, King Augustus Minister at the Court of Vienna arrived from thence, but was stopp'd at the Gates upon account of the contagious Distemper which still reigns in that City, and it is not yet known whether he will be obliged to perform a Quarantine. We have received advice from Pomerania, that the Muscovite Troops were upon their March out of that Country into Poland. Part of them are to pass through the Newmark, and the rest through Prussian Pomerania.

Hamburg, October 27. N. S. This Day was held an extraordinary Assembly of the Burghers, in order to deliberate upon some Pretensions the Elector of Hanover has form'd of posting Troops round about this City. The King of Prussia has writ to his Electoral Highness to acquaint him with the Sequestration of Stetin, and to assure him he had no other View in it than to establish the repose of those Parts, and to procure a General Peace between the Northern Powers. The Muscovite Troops are upon their March out of Pomerania, at which the King of Denmark is very much displeas'd, and has expressed great Dissatisfaction at the Sequestration of that Province. Letters from Petersbourg bring an account, that the Czar had declared he would invade Sweden next Year with all the Force he could raise, unless the Senate of that Kingdom consented to a just and reasonable Peace before. To that end he has ordered a Hundred Gallies more to be built, and had already list'd a considerable Number of Seamen. They write from Warsaw, that the Turkish and Tartarian Ministers were admitted to an Audience of King Augustus on the 17th, and that Count Tarlo, who had follow'd the Party of King Stanislaus, had thrown himself at his Majesty's Feet, and obtain'd his Pardon.

Hague, Nov. 1. N. S. On the 30th past the Earl of Strafford, in conjunction with the Deputies of the States-General, held a Conference with all the Ministers of the Princes of the Empire. Yesterday he was again in Conference with the Deputies of the States upon the Affairs of the Low-Countries. To morrow his Excellency intends to set out for Great-Britain, and at the same time the Duke D' Ossuna, who came hither to take leave of him, will return to Utrecht.
