

Treaty concluded with Prince Menzikoff, in relation to Stetin, yet, out of regard to his Majesty, he had commanded his Admirals and Sea Captains not to Molest the Swedish Garrisons in their Passage from Pomerania. We have received Advice, that the Polish Ambassadors had been admitted to an Audience of the Grand Signior, after which they were in Conference with the Reis-Effendi, who desired to know of them, Whether the King and Commonwealth would allow Chochim to be fortified without breaking the Peace? Whether King Stanilaus and his Adherents should be received into Favour, and restored to their Estates? Whether a free Passage should be granted to the King of Sweden through Poland? The Ambassadors replied, They had not yet receiv'd sufficient Instructions in these Points, but that they would give in their Answer before they had their Audience of Leave of the Sultan.
