THE IMPORTED FOOD REGULATIONS 1984

HEALTH MARK: DENMARK

The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State for Wales acting jointly in exercise of the powers conferred on them by the Imported Food Regulations 1984 (SI 1984, No. 1918), give notice that they hereby recognise, subject to the conditions hereinafter set out, the health marks described in Part 1 of the Schedule hereto for the importation from Denmark of meat, poultry meat and meat products as showing:

(a) that the fresh meat to which they relate, or the meat from which the meat product to which they relate was prepared, was derived from mammals or birds inspected before and immediately after death and passed in accordance with criteria satisfactory to the Ministers; and

(b) that the dressing, packing and other preparation of the fresh meat or meat product was carried out with all necessary precautions for the prevention of danger to health.

Recognition of the health mark is extended to include:

For bovine animals—whole (skinned) heads, which may have been split for inspection purposes, brains, tongues and cheek meat (internal and external masseters).

For swine—whole (skinned or scalded and depilated) heads, which may have been split for inspection purposes, and head meat in pieces each weighing not less than 100 grammes.

For sheep, goats and solipeds—whole (skinned) heads which may have been split for inspection purposes, and head meat in pieces each weighing not less than 100 grammes.

For poultry—whole (plucked) heads which remain naturally attached to the carcass.

Minced or chopped meat other than liver:

The said health marks are recognised subject to the following conditions:

(i) recognition applies only to meat, poultry meat and meat products imported from Denmark but does not apply to any such meat and meat products derived from mammals or birds killed when wild.

(ii) where the health marks are in the form of stamps or labels, recognition will apply only if the stamps or labels have not in any other circumstances or on any other occasion been used as a health mark.

Recognition of the health marks is restricted to the extent shown in Part 2 of the Schedule hereto.

The Notice published in The London Gazette 22nd November 1988 is hereby revoked.

SCHEDULE

Part 1

1. (i) For fresh meat of domestic bovine animals (including buffalo) and sheep, goats and solipeds the health mark shall consist of:

(a) either an oval mark at least 6.5cm wide by 4.5cm high bearing the following information in perfectly legible characters:

—on the upper part, the initial(s) of the consigning country in capitals i.e. DK followed by the veterinary approval number of the establishment.

—on the lower part, one of the following sets of initials: CEE, EEC, EWG, EØF, EEC or EOK:

(b) or an oval mark at least 6.5 c.m. wide by 4.5 c.m. high, bearing the following information in perfectly legible characters:

Notice is hereby given that on 13th September 1989 the Crewe and Nantwich Borough Council made an Order under Section 35 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 and of all other enabling powers with the consent of the County Council of Cheshire in accordance with Section 39(3) of the Act and after consultation with the Chief of Police in accordance with Part III of Schedule 9 to the Act.

The effect of this Order which will come into operation on 25th September 1989 will be to:

- Restrict waiting by vehicles in the Public Car Parks specified in the first column of the First Schedule below between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. Monday to Saturday inclusive to the periods specified in the second column of the First Schedule (i.e. 2 hours).
- Restrict waiting by vehicles in the public car parks specified in the first column of the Second Schedule below, all hours and all days, to the periods specified in the second column of the Second Schedule (i.e. 12 hours).
- Impose a charge of £2 on vehicles which are left in the public car parks below for periods in excess of the maximum period for which vehicles may wait without charge.
- Prohibit waiting by vehicles other than motor cars, motor cycles, invalid carriages and other vehicles not exceeding two tonnes unladen weight.
- Impose restrictions to regulate the use of the car parks to ensure their proper use and management.

A copy of the Order, together with a map showing the restricted area may be examined during the usual office hours at the offices of the Head of Law and Administration, 7th Floor, Delamere House, Delamere Street, Crewe. Any person who desires to question the validity of the Order or of any provision contained in it on the ground that it is not within the powers of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 or on the grounds that any requirement of the Act or any regulation made under it has not been complied with in relation to the Order, may within 6 weeks of the date on which the Order is made, make application for the purpose to the High Court.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to Her Majesty's Stationery Office, The London Gazette Office, Room 413, Publications Centre, 51 Nine Elms Lane, London SW8 5DR for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be prepaid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and Section 28, Water Resources Act, 1963) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of Section 389(1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
