Paris, March 24. N. S. On the 20th Signor Bentivoglio, the Pope's Nuntio, had a private Audience of the King at Verfailles. the usual Processions were made here duction of this City. They write for that the Squadron under the Command of du Caffe was still detain'd there by contrary Wines. Letters from Madrid bring an Account, that the Inhabitants of Barcelona had lately made a Sally, in which they had at first some Advantage over the Troops of his Catholick Majelty, but were afterwards repulsed with great Loss. The Magistrates of that Place were very much divided in their Opinions, whether they should submit themselves to the King's Mercy, or maintain a Siege. The Count de Fiennes being inform'd that the Towns of Berga and Urfel were block'd up by the Catalans, immediately sent a confiderable Detachment to their Relief, under the Command of Monsieur de Fimarcourt, who put the Enemy to flight in both Places, and supply'd the Garrisons with what Provisions were wanting.
