The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHereas Her Majesty as well by Her Royal Proclamations, as by several Orders in Council, was pleased to direct, That all Ships and Vessels coming from the Sound, the Baltick Sea, and other Places in or near Aliena, Gluckstadt, the Little East Hamburg on the Elb, Bremen in the Weser, and Embsen in the Eemes, which were then Infected with the Plague, should be obliged to perform their Quarentine, in order to prevent any Contagious Distemper that might be brought from such Places into this Kingdom; and Her Majesty being informed by several Letters from Prussia, and the Cities of Bremen and Hamburg, and by Certificates from the Physicians of those Places, and also by a Petition of the Governor, Assistants, and Fellowship of Merchants of Eastland, and other Authentick Testimonials, this Day presented and read at the Board, That there is not at present, nor hath been for some time past, any Contagious Distemper in Hamburg, Bremen, or the Ports of Dantzick, Koninsberg, Memel, Liban, Riga or Revel in the Baltick Sea, or Places thereunto adjoining, Her Majesty upon Consideration thereof, is Graciously Pleas'd, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to Order, as it is hereby Ordered, That the Quarentine be taken off from all Ships and Vessels coming from the said Places, and that they be permitted to Discharge their Ladings in any Ports of this Kingdom as formerly, without any Lett or Molestation; and the Right Hon. the Lord High Treasurer of Great Britain, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, Her Majesty's Secretary at War, and all others whom it may Concern are to take notice hereof, and to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Stockholm, April 9. N. S. On the 26th past Lieutenant General Rank arrived here with Dispatches from the King at Demir-Tocca, and on the 28th he had a long Audience of the Queen-Dowager, and of the Princesses Ulrica-Eleanora. The next Day the Senate was assembled, and the principal Deputies of the Nobility being sent for, Count Horn told them, his Majesty would be very much displeas'd, if they persisted in their Design of conferring the Regency upon the Princesses. Upon which they alledged several Reasons to shew the Necessity of having their Demand complied with; but her Royal Highness, who was present, having declar'd that she would never consent to it, they agreed not to press her any more upon that Subject. It was thought the Assembly of the States would have separated upon this Declaration of the Princesses, but at the Request of the Senate they have resolv'd to continue their Meeting for some time longer; and the Deputies, who were gone home to their own Countries, are order'd to return hither immediately. Count Guldenstiern is appointed by the King to Command in Scania, and he is preparing to set out accordingly in a few Days. The Muscovites have undertaken no Design since the defeat of the small Body of Men we had on the Frontiers of Finland; and Advice is come from thence, that Major General Arnfeld hath gather'd together the remains of his Troops at Gammel and Carlebi, in order to hinder the Enemy's Progress into the Country.

Vienna, April 18. N. S. His Imperial Majesty having received the most Christian King's Ratification of the Treaty of Rastad, has order'd his Plenipotentiaries to hasten their departure to Baden. Yesterday Monsieur Matueof, the Czar's Ambassador, had an Audience of the Emperor, in which he paid his Majesty a Compliment of Condoleance upon the Death of the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, and at the same time he notify'd the Victory obtain'd by the Muscovites over the Swedes near Vasa in Finland. Count Leslie is appointed to be Provost of Artacke, in the room of Count Rabutin, lately deceased. Orders are sent to Hungary, to repair the Fortifications of the Frontier Towns, and to add new Works in several Places where they were wanting. We have received advice from Turky, that the Rebels in Asia had entirely defeated an Army of Forty thousand Men, which was sent by the Grand Signior to reduce them to their Obedience. The same Letters add, that the Sophi of Persia had granted his Protection to Ismael Bacha, the chief Promoter of the Insurrection, and had sent him a Supply of Ammunition and Forces, whereupon the Ottoman Port was making great Preparations to subdue him, before he became more Formidable.

Madrid, April 19. N. S. His Majesty has appointed Sennor Bodillo to be Secretary of State, in the room of the Marquis de Mejorada, who has been declared Counsellor of Castile. Don Valero de Heredia, a Lieutenant General, who served near Forty Years in Flanders, is committed to Prison in the Castle of Segovia, together with Don Manuel de Silva, a Member of the Council of the Indies. Don Francisco Ronquillo, late President of the Council of State, is banish'd the Court, and has obtain'd leave to retire to Arrevalo in Castile, the Place of his Birth. Some Days ago Count Bergeis set out with his whole Family for the Low-Countries, where, it is said, he intends to pass the rest of his Life. The Offices that were lately laid aside,
