

in pursuance of the new Scheme for settling the Revenue, are again establish'd, and the same Persons, who enjoy'd them before, are restor'd to their Employments. The Overseer of the Ships, which Count Bergeik order'd to be built a Year ago in Biscay, has been sent for to Court, upon a Complaint made against him, that he has not observ'd his Directions. Letters from the Camp before Barcelona bring an Account, that on the 2d Instant Monsieur du Casse discover'd a Fleet of Thirty Ships, convoy'd by Four Men of War, sailing towards the Port, upon which he put the Squadron under his Command in order of Battle, but the Enemy's Fleet thought fit to retire towards the Coast of Mayorca, having lost two Vessels laden with Provisions, which were taken by the Spanish Gallies. The same Day the Duke de Popoli began to fire on the Place from a Battery where he had planted Fifteen Mortars, but by reason of the distance the Bombs could not take effect. The Deserters reported, that for some Days there had been a very great Scarcity of Provisions in the Town. The Count de Fiennes, and Don Feliciano de Bracamonte, being informed that there was a great number of revolted Catalans in the Town of Arbuzias, sent two Detachments to Attack them, and after some Resistance they forc'd the Place, which they Plunder'd and Burnt. Several of the Catalans were kill'd in the Action, and the rest retired to Montfeni in the Mountains. The Marquis del Pual was gathering together a considerable Body of Malecontents round about Granelliers, which is but four Leagues distant from the Camp, in order to incommode the King's Army during the Siege. Whereupon the Marquis de Queilus, a Lieutenant General, was sent with Three thousand Men to join Monsieur Bracamonte, who it was thought with that Reinforcement, would be able to remove them from thence.

Dr. Stoughton's great Cordial-Blixir for all Indispositions of the Stomach and Blood, now famous throughout Europe, is sold in most Cities and great Towns thereof by some one Merchant or Trader. 'Tis the greatest Preservative from infectious Air, or contagious Diseases in the World keeping the Body in a due State of Health and Vigour; as hath been largely experienced in the West-Indies some time ago; and lately at Sweden, where it was observed, that hardly any one who took it had the Disease, and few now Travel by Land or Sea without it. 'Tis not Purging, but Cordial on y, the best and most agreeable Elixer in the World; and most Gentlemen drink it in Wine instead of any other; Ladies in Tea, and others in Beer, Ale, &c. Prepared only by him at his House in Bartholomew-lane, near the Royal Exchange, London, having obtain'd her Majesty's most gracious Letters Patents for the sole making thereof. Those Mercants, Captains of Ships and other, who will send or take with them any considerable Quantity abroad, shall have room for large Profit, it selling at a good Price, is well known and highly esteem'd of in most Places of Europe. It is so great a Cleanser of the Blood, that Hundreds have been cured of Agues by this Blixir only, taken at the Bills-head, which are now in French, Dutch and Spanish, as well as English.
