IRAQ AND KUWAIT

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

The Export of Goods (Control) (Iraq and Kuwait Sanctions) Order 1990

Made 8th August 1990.

Coming into force 9th August 1990.

The Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by section 1 of the Import, Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act 1939 (1939 c. 69) and now vested in him (see S.I. 1970/1537), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Export of Goods (Control) (Iraq and Kuwait Sanctions) Order 1990 and shall come into force on 9th August 1990.

(2) Unless the context otherwise requires, any expression used in this Order shall have the meaning it bears in the Export of Goods (Control) Order 1989 (S.I. 1989/2376, amended by S.I. 1990/128, 735, 893 and 1588).

Prohibition on exportation to Iraq and Kuwait.

2.—(1) Subject to article 3 of this Order, all goods are prohibited to be exported from the United Kingdom to any destination in Iraq or Kuwait, or to any destination in any other country for delivery, directly or indirectly, to a person for the purposes of any business carried on in or operated from Iraq or Kuwait.

- (2) Any licence granted by the Secretary of State under any other Order relating to the control of exports made by virtue of the powers conferred by section 1 of the Import, Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act 1939, and any licence granted under any other enactment prohibiting or restricting the exportation of goods, shall be subject to paragraph (1) of this article.

Exceptions

3. Nothing in article 2 of this Order shall prohibit the exportation of any goods under the authority of a licence granted by the Secretary of State under this Order, provided that all conditions attaching to the said licence are complied with.

Enforcement

4. Articles 5, 6 and 7 of the Export of Goods (Control) Order 1989 (customs powers for demanding evidence of destination, offences in connection with application for licences and conditions attaching to licences, and declarations as to goods and powers of search) shall apply for the enforcement of the provisions of this Order as they apply for the enforcement of the said Order of 1989.

Modification and revocation of licences

5. Any licence granted by the Secretary of State in pursuance of article 3 of this Order may be modified or revoked by him at any time.

R. J. Meadway, an Under Secretary, Department of Trade and Industry.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order prohibits the export, without a licence under the Order from the Secretary of State, of all goods to Iraq and Kuwait, or to any other destination where the goods are to be delivered to a person for the purposes of a business carried on in or operated from Iraq or Kuwait.

8th August 1990.

MODIFICATION AND REVOCATION OF IMPORT LICENCES

Coming into force 9th August 1990

The Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by Articles 2 and 5 of the Import of Goods (Control) Order 1954, (S.I. 1954/23) and now vested in him (See S.I. 1970/1537):

- hereby modifies all individual import licences bearing serial numbers prefixed by the letter F, granted before the date of operation hereof, so as to exclude the importation into the United Kingdom of goods which originate in Iraq or Kuwait;
- hereby revokes all other individual import licences, granted before 6th August 1990, which authorise the importation into the United Kingdom of goods which originate in Iraq or Kuwait.

This instrument shall come into force on 9th August 1990.

A. E. Stoddart, an Assistant Secretary, Department of Trade and Industry

IMPORT LICENCE

Amendment No. 46 to the Open General Import Licence, dated 4th December 1987, granted by the Secretary of State.

Coming into force 9th August 1990

The Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by Articles 2 and 5 of the Import of Goods (Control) Order 1954, (S.I. 1954/23) and now vested in him (See S.I. 1970/1537), hereby further modifies the Open General Import Licence granted by him on 4th December 1987, as follows:

- In Article 2, for the words "Articles 3 and 4" there shall be substituted "Articles 3, 4 and 5".
- For Article 5 there shall be substituted the following:
 - (i) Nothing in this Licence shall authorise the importation of any goods which originate in Iraq or Kuwait.
 - (ii) Nothing in this Licence shall affect any prohibition of the importation of any goods under or by virtue of any enactment other than section 1 of the Import Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act 1939 (S.I. 1954/23)."

- (3) The Schedule shall be amended as follows:
Entries Nos. 11A and 11B shall be deleted.

This Instrument shall come into force on 9th August 1990.

UNITED NATIONS

The Iraq and Kuwait (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1990

Made 8th August 1990

Laid before Parliament 8th August 1990

Coming into Force 9th August 1990

At the Court at H.M. Yacht Britannia 8th August 1990

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas under Article 41 of the Charter of the United Nations the Security Council of the United Nations have, by a resolution adopted on 6th August 1990, called upon Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and all other States to apply certain measures to give effect to a decision of that Council in relation to the situation between Iraq and Kuwait.

Now therefore Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the United Nations Act 1946 (1946 c. 45), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Citation and Commencement, Extent and Interpretation.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Iraq and Kuwait (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1990.

(2) This Order shall come into force on 9th August 1990.

(3) This Order shall extend to the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man.

(4) In this Order the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:

"Commander", in relation to an aircraft, means the person designated as commander of the aircraft by the operator thereof, and includes any person who is for the time being in charge of command of the aircraft;

"land transport vehicle" includes a barge;

"master", in relation to a ship, includes any person (other than a pilot) for the time being in charge of the ship;

"operator", in relation to an aircraft or to a land transport vehicle, means the person for the time being having the management of the aircraft or the vehicle;

"owner", where the owner of a ship is not the operator, means the operator and any person to whom it is chartered; and

"person in Iraq or Kuwait" includes any body constituted or incorporated under the law of Iraq or Kuwait and any body carrying on business (whether within Iraq or Kuwait or not) which is controlled by persons or bodies resident in Iraq or Kuwait or constituted or incorporated as aforesaid.

Exportation of Goods from Iraq or Kuwait

2.—(1) Except under the authority of a licence granted by the Secretary of State under this Order or the Imports of Goods (Control) Order 1954 (S.I. 1954/23, amended by S.I. 1954/627, S.I. 1975/2117 and S.I. 1978/806), the Control of Gold, Securities, Payments and Credits (Iraq) Directions 1990 (S.I. 1990/), the Control of Gold, Securities, Payments and Credits (Kuwait) Directions 1990 (S.I. 1990/), the Hong Kong (Control of Gold, Securities, Payments and Credits: Kuwait and Republic of Iraq) Order 1990 (S.I. 1990/) or the Caribbean Territories (Control of Gold, Securities, Payments and Credits: Kuwait and Republic of Iraq) Order 1990 (S.I. 1990/) no person shall:

- make or carry out any contract for the exportation of any goods from either Iraq or Kuwait;
- make or carry out any contract for the sale of any goods which he intends or has reason to believe that another person intends to export from either Iraq or Kuwait; or
- do any act calculated to promote the exportation of any goods from either Iraq or Kuwait.

(2) No person shall deal in any goods that have been exported from Iraq or Kuwait after the 6th August 1990, that is to say, shall, by way of trade or otherwise for gain, acquire or dispose of such goods or of any property or interest in them or any right to or charge upon them or process them or do any act calculated to promote any such acquisition, disposal or processing by himself or any other person. Provided that the aforesaid prohibition shall not apply, if a licence has been granted under paragraph (1) of this Article, to any dealing authorised by the said licence.

Supply of goods to Iraq and Kuwait

3.—Except under the authority of a licence granted by the Secretary of State under this Order or under the Export of Goods (Control) (Iraq and Kuwait Sanctions) Order 1990 (S.I. 1990/) no person shall:

- (a) supply or deliver or agree to supply or deliver to or to the order of any person in either Iraq or Kuwait any goods that are not in either country;
- (b) supply or deliver or agree to supply or deliver any such goods to any person, knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that they will be supplied or delivered to or to the order of a person in either Iraq or Kuwait or that they will be used for the purposes of any business carried on in or operated from Iraq or Kuwait; or
- (c) do any act calculated to promote the supply or delivery of any goods to any person in Iraq or Kuwait or for the purpose of any business carried on in Iraq or Kuwait in contravention of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph.

Application of Articles 2 and 3.

4.—(1) The provisions of Articles 2 and 3 shall apply to any person within the United Kingdom or any place to which this Order extends and to any person elsewhere who:

- (a) is a British citizen, a British Dependent Territories citizen, a British Overseas citizen, a British subject or a British protected person; or
- (b) is a body incorporated or constituted under the law of the United Kingdom or the law of any other place to which this Order extends.

(2) Any person specified in paragraph 1 of this Article who contravenes the provision of Article 2 (1) or (2) or Article 3 shall be guilty of an offence.

Carriage of certain goods exported from or destined for Iraq or Kuwait.

5.—(1) Without prejudice to the generality of Article 2 of this Order, no ship or aircraft to which this Article applies and no land transport vehicle within the United Kingdom shall be used for the carriage of any goods if those goods are being or have been exported from Iraq or Kuwait in contravention of Article 2(1) of this Order.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of Article 3 of this Order, no ship or aircraft to which this Article applies and no land transport vehicle within the United Kingdom shall be used for the carriage of any goods if the carriage is, or forms part of, carriage from any place outside Iraq or Kuwait to any destination therein or to any person for the purposes of any business carried on in or operated from Iraq or Kuwait.

(3) This Article applies to British ships registered in the United Kingdom or in any other country or place to which this Order extends, to aircraft so registered and to any other ship or aircraft that is for the time being chartered to any person who is:

- (a) a British citizen, a British Dependent Territories citizen, a British Overseas citizen or a British protected person; or
- (b) a body incorporated or constituted under the law of the United Kingdom or the law of any other place to which this Order extends.

(4) If any ship, aircraft or land transport vehicle is used in contravention of paragraph (1) of this Article, then each of the following persons:

- (a) in the case of a British ship registered in the United Kingdom or in any other place to which this order extends or any aircraft so registered, the owner and master of the ship or, as the case may be, the operator and the commander of the aircraft; or
- (b) in the case of any other ship or aircraft, the person to whom the ship or aircraft is for the time being chartered and, if he is such a person as is referred to in sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (3) of this Article, the master of the ship or, as the case may be, the operator and the commander of the aircraft; or
- (c) in the case of a land transport vehicle, the operator of the vehicle;

shall be guilty of an offence against the Order unless he proves that he did not know and had no reason to suppose that the goods were being or had been exported from Iraq or Kuwait in contravention of Article 2(1) of this Order.

(5) If any ship, aircraft or land transport vehicle is used in contravention of paragraph (2) of this Article, then:

- (a) in the case of a British ship registered in the United Kingdom or in any other country or place to which this Order extends or any aircraft so registered, the owner and the master of the ship or, as the case may be, the operator and the commander of the aircraft; or

- (b) in the case of any other ship or aircraft, the person to whom the ship or aircraft is for the time being chartered and, if he is such a person as is referred to in sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (3) of this Article, the master of the ship or, as the case may be, the operator and the commander of the aircraft; or
- (c) in the case of a land transport vehicle, the operator of the vehicle, shall be guilty of an offence against this Order unless he proves that he did not know and had no reason to suppose that the carriage of the goods in question was, or formed part of, carriage from any place outside Iraq or Kuwait to any destination therein or to any person for the purposes of any business carried on in or operated from Iraq or Kuwait.

(6) Nothing in this Article applies to goods in respect of which a licence granted by the Secretary of State is in force under:

- (a) Article 2(1) of this Order; or
- (b) Article 3 of this Order.

(7) Nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to prejudice any other provision of law prohibiting or restricting the use of ships, aircraft or land transport vehicles.

Investigation, etc. of suspected British ships and aircraft

6.—(1) Where any authorised officer, that is to say, any such officer as is referred to in section 692(1) of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894(a), has reason to suspect that any British ship registered in the United Kingdom or in any other country or place to which this Order extends has been or is being or is about to be used in contravention of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of Article 5 of the Order, he may (either alone or accompanied and assisted by persons under his authority) board the ship and search her and, for that purpose, may use or authorise the use of reasonable force, and he may request the master of the ship to furnish such information relating to the ship and her cargo and produce for his inspection such documents so relating and such cargo as he may specify; and an authorised officer (either there and then or upon consideration of any information furnished or document or cargo produced in pursuance of such a request) may, in the case of a ship that is reasonably suspected of being or of being about to be used in contravention of Article 5(2) of this Order, exercise the following further powers with a view to the prevention of the commission (or the continued commission) of any such contravention or in order that enquiries into the matter may be pursued, that is to say, he may either direct the master to refrain, except with the consent of an authorised officer, from landing at any port specified by the officer any part of the ship's cargo that is so specified or request the master to take any one or more of the following steps:

- (a) to cause the ship not to proceed with the voyage on which she is then engaged or about to engage until the master is notified by any authorised officer that the ship may so proceed;
 - (b) if the ship is then in a port in the United Kingdom or in any other country or place to which this Order extends, to cause her to remain there until the master is notified by any authorised officer that the ship may depart;
 - (c) if the ship is then in any other place, to take her to any such port specified by the officer and to cause her to remain there until the master is notified as mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph; and
 - (d) to take her to any other destination that may be specified by the officer in agreement with the master;
- and the master shall comply with any such request or direction.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (8) of this Article, where a master refuses or fails to comply with a request made under this Article that his ship shall or shall not proceed to or from any place or where an authorised officer otherwise has reason to suspect that such a request that has been so made may not be complied with, any such officer may take such steps as appear to him to be necessary to secure compliance with that request and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may for that purpose enter upon, or authorise entry upon, that ship and use, or authorise the use of, reasonable force.

(3) Where any officer of customs and excise or any person authorised by the Secretary of State for that purpose either generally or in a particular case has reason to suspect that any aircraft registered in the United Kingdom or in any other country or place to which this Order extends or any aircraft for the time being chartered to any person specified in paragraph 3 of Article 5 of this Order has been or is being or is about to be used in contravention of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of Article 5 of this Order or of Article 8 of this Order, that authorised person or that officer may request the charterer, the operator and the commander of the aircraft or any of them to furnish such information relating to the aircraft and its cargo and produce for their or his inspection such documents so relating and such cargo as they or he may specify, and that authorised person or that officer may (either alone or accompanied and assisted by persons under his authority) board the aircraft and search it and, for that purpose, may use or authorise the use of reasonable force; and, if the aircraft is then in the United Kingdom any such authorised person or any such officer (either there and then or upon consideration of any information furnished or document or cargo produced in pursuance of such a request) may further request the charterer, operator and the commander or any of them to cause the aircraft to remain in the United Kingdom until notified that the aircraft may depart; and the charterer, the operator and the commander shall comply with any such request.

(4) Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (8) of this Article, where any person authorised as aforesaid or any such officer as aforesaid has reason to suspect that any request that an aircraft should remain in the United Kingdom that has been made under paragraph (3) of this Article may not be complied with, that authorised person or that officer may take such steps as appear to him to be necessary to secure compliance with that request and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may for that purpose:

- (a) enter, or authorise entry, upon any land and upon that aircraft;
- (b) detain, or authorise the detention of, that aircraft; and
- (c) use, or authorise the use of, reasonable force.

(5) A person authorised by the Secretary of State to exercise any power for the purposes of paragraph (3) or paragraph (4) of this Article shall, if requested to do so, produce evidence of his authority before exercising that power.

(6) No information furnished or document produced by any person in pursuance of a request made under this Article shall be disclosed except:

- (a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced:

Provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this sub-paragraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to the possession of that document in his own right; or

- (b) to any person who would have been empowered under this Article to request that it be furnished or produced or to any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown in respect of the Government of the United Kingdom or under or in the service of the Government of any other place to which this Order extends; or
- (c) on the authority of the Secretary of State, to any organ of the United Nations or to any person in the service of the United Nations or of the Government of any other country for the purpose of assisting the United Nations or that Government in securing compliance with or detecting evasion of measures in relation to Iraq or Kuwait decided upon by the Security Council of the United Nations; or
- (d) with a view to the institution of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any proceedings for an offence against this Order or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, for an offence against any enactment relating to customs or for an offence against any provision of law with respect to similar matters that is for the time being in force in any place to which this Order extends.

(7) Any power conferred by this Article to request the furnishing of information or the production of a document or of cargo for inspection shall include a power to specify whether the information should be furnished orally or in writing and in what form and to specify the time by which and the place in which the information should be furnished or the document or cargo produced for inspection.

(8) Each of the following persons shall be guilty of an offence against this Order, that is to say:

- (a) A master of a ship who disobeys any direction given under paragraph (1) of this Article with respect to the landing of any cargo;
- (b) A master of a ship or a charterer or an operator or a commander of the aircraft who, without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within a reasonable time to comply with any request made under this Article by any person empowered to make it or who wilfully furnishes false information or produces false documents to such a person in response to such a request;

(c) A master or a member of a crew of a ship or a charterer or an operator or a commander or a member of a crew of an aircraft who wilfully obstructs any such person (or any person acting under the authority of any such person) in the exercise of his powers under this Article.

(9) Nothing in this Article shall be construed so as to prejudice any other provision of law conferring powers or imposing restrictions or enabling restrictions to be imposed with respect to ships or aircraft.

Obtaining of evidence and information.

7.—The provisions of the Schedule to this Order shall have effect in order to facilitate the obtaining, by or on behalf of the Secretary of State or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, of evidence and information for the purpose of securing compliance with or detecting evasion of this Order and in order to facilitate the obtaining, by or on behalf of the Secretary of State or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, of evidence of the commission of an offence against this Order or with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, of an offence relating to customs.

Penalties and Proceedings.

8.—(1) Any person guilty of an offence against this Order shall be liable:

- (a) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both; or
- (b) on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.

(2) Where any body corporate is guilty of an offence against this Order, and that offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) Summary proceedings for an offence against this Order, being an offence alleged to have been committed outside the United Kingdom, may be commenced at any time not later than 12 months for the date on which the person charged first enters the United Kingdom after committing the offence.

(4) Proceedings against any person for an offence against this Order may be taken before the appropriate court in the United Kingdom, or in any place to which this Order extends, having jurisdiction in the place where that person is for the time being.

(5) No proceedings for an offence against this Order shall be instituted in England, Wales, Northern Ireland or in the Isle of Man except by the Secretary of State or with the consent of the Attorney General or, as the case may be, the Attorney General for Northern Ireland or the Isle of Man.

Provided that this paragraph shall not prevent the arrest or the issue or execution of a warrant for the arrest, of any person in respect of such an offence, or the remand in custody or on bail of any person charged with such an offence, notwithstanding that the necessary consent to the institution of proceedings for the offence has not been obtained.

Exercise of powers of the Secretary of State

9.—(1) The Secretary of State may to such extent and subject to such restrictions and conditions as he may think proper, delegate or authorise the delegation of any of his powers under this Order (other than the power to give authority under Schedule 1 to this Order to apply for a search warrant) to any person, or class or description of persons, approved by him, and references in this Order to the Secretary of State shall be construed accordingly.

(2) Any licences granted under this Order may be either general or special, may be subject to or without conditions, may be limited so as to expire on a specified date unless renewed and may be varied or revoked by the authority that granted them.

Miscellaneous

10.—(1) This Order applies to or in relation to any ship or aircraft or any body corporate that purports to be registered in any particular place or, as the case may be, that purports to be incorporated or constituted under the law of that place as it applies to or in relation to any ship or aircraft that is so registered or any body corporate that it so incorporated or constituted.

(2) Any provision of this Order which prohibits the doing of a thing except under the authority of a licence granted by the Secretary of State shall not have effect in relation to any such thing done in a place other than the United Kingdom to which this Order extends or done elsewhere outside the United Kingdom by a person who is ordinarily resident in, or by a body incorporated or constituted under the law of, that place, provided that it is so done under the authority of a licence or with permission granted, in accordance with any law in force in that place (being a law substantially corresponding to the relevant provision of this Order), by the authority competent in that behalf under the law.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(this note is not part of the Order)

This Order imposes restrictions pursuant to a decision of the Security Council of the United Nations in Resolution No. 661 of 6th August 1990, on the exportation of goods from Iraq and Kuwait and on supply of goods to Iraq and Kuwait as well as certain related activities and dealings, including the carriage of such goods in British ships or aircraft. It authorises the imposition of restrictions on the transfer of certain property if this might facilitate the evasion of the Order. The Order also makes provision for the investigation of ships and aircraft that are suspected or contravening the Order.

Article 8

SCHEDULE

Evidence and Information

1.—(1) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Order, or any provision of any other law, the Secretary of State (or any person authorised by him for that purpose either generally or in a particular case) or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise may request any person in or resident in the United Kingdom to furnish to him or them (or to that authorised person) any information in his possession or control, or to produce to him or them (or to that authorised person) any document in his possession or control, which he or they (or that authorised person) may require for the purpose of securing compliance with or detecting evasion of this Order; and any person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(2) Nothing in the foregoing sub-paragraph shall be taken to require any person who has acted as counsel or solicitor for any person to disclose any privileged communication made to him in that capacity.

(3) where a person is convicted on indictment for failing to furnish information or produce a document then requested so to do under this paragraph, the court may make an order requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the order, to furnish the information or produce the document.

(4) The power conferred by this paragraph to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person, or, where that person is a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the body corporate, to provide an explanation of any of them.

2.—(1) If any justice of the peace is satisfied by information on oath given by a person authorised by the Secretary of State or the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to act for the purpose of this paragraph either generally or in a particular case:

(a) that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence against this Order or, with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order, an offence reference to the sheriff.

3. A person authorised by the Secretary of State to exercise any power for the purposes of this Schedule shall, if requested to do so, produce evidence of his authority before exercising that power.

4. No information furnished or document produced (including any copy of extract made of any document produced) by any person in pursuance of a request made under this Schedule and no document seized under paragraph 2(2) of this Schedule shall be disclosed except:

(a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced or the person from whom the document was seized:

Provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this sub-paragraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to the possession of that document in his own right; or

(b) to any person who would have been empowered under this Schedule to request that it be furnished or produced or to any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of the Crown; or

(c) on the authority of the Secretary of State, to any organ of the United Nations or to the Government of any other country for the purpose of assisting the United Nations or that Government in securing compliance with or detecting evasion of measures in relation to this Order decided upon by the Security Council of the United Nations; or

WINCHESTER CITY COUNCIL

*City of Winchester (Central Area) Traffic Regulation
(Consolidation) (Variation No. 4) Order 1989*

Notice is hereby given that on 2nd August 1990, Winchester City Council made the above-named Order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, and all other enabling powers.

The effects of the Order, which will come into operation on 13th August 1990, will be to prohibit driving motor vehicles in:

- (1) St. George's Street, between Middle Brook Street and Upper Brook Street.
- (2) Silver Hill, between Tanner Street and St. George's Street.
- (3) Middle Brook Street, between High Street and St. George's Street.

There are a number of exceptions to the Order as follows:

1. St. George's Street and Silver Hill—local service buses, taxis, security carriers, emergency vehicles and goods vehicles loading or unloading in those streets.
2. In the case of St. George's Street, only market delivery vehicles will be permitted on market days between 6 a.m. and 8.30 a.m. and 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.
3. Middle Brook Street—local service buses and emergency vehicles only.
4. Any other vehicles displaying a valid permit. Permits will be issued for vehicles where the Council is satisfied that these vehicles are necessary for servicing businesses in this area.

The one-way Order on Silver Hill will be revoked, but no vehicles will be permitted to enter Silver Hill from Middle Brook Street, except bicycles turning right.

A copy of the proposed Order and the relevant map may be inspected during normal office hours at the address given below.

If you wish to question the validity of the Order, or any provision contained in it, on the grounds that it is not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, or on the grounds that any requirement of that Act, or any instrument made under it, has not been complied with in relation to the Orders, you may, within 6 weeks from 2nd August 1990, apply to the High Court for this purpose.

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS

HARROGATE BOROUGH COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971 (AS AMENDED)

Amendments to the Boundary of Ripon Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that Harrogate Borough Council, in accordance with powers conferred by section 277 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 (as amended), resolved on 22nd February 1990, to amend the boundary of Ripon Conservation Area. As a result of the amendment, all or part of the following streets or areas have been included as an addition to the Conservation Area:

Black Swan Yard, Bondgate, Bondgate Green, Borrage Green Lane, Borrage Lane, Clotherholme Road, College of Ripon & York St. John, College Road, Firby Lane, Harrogate Road, King Street, Kirkby Road, Low Mill Road, Low Skellgate, Magdalens Road, North Bridge, North Road, North Street, Palace Road, Park Street, Priest Lane, Primrose Drive, Ripon Canal, River Skell (land to north between Low Skellgate and King Street; Alma Bridge to former railway bridge), Skellbank, Somerset Row, South Crescent, Tower Road (land to south of), Trinity Lane, Trinity Park, Wellington Street.

Minor deletions have been made from the Conservation Area in the following locations, Allhallowgate, Bondgate Green Close, Newby Street, Victoria Avenue.

The principal effects of the inclusion of land within a conservation area are as follows:

The demolition of any building having an externally measured volume greater than 115 cubic metres requires Conservation Area Consent;

The Permitted Development allowance (i.e. the size of extension which can be added to a dwelling house without specific planning permission) is reduced from 70 cubic metres to 50 cubic metres;

The addition of any type of dormer window requires planning permission;

Within the curtilage of a dwellinghouse, the provision, alteration or improvement of a building or structure exceeding 10 cubic metres requires planning permission;

Six weeks written notice must be given to the local planning authority of the intention to carry out works to trees, if these are of a size above which they could be made the subject of a Tree Preservation Order;

Planning applications which would have a significant effect on the character of a conservation area must be advertised; and

There may be an eligibility for certain types of conservation grant.

The provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 (as amended) and of any Orders or Regulations made thereunder with reference to conservation areas take effect from the date of the Council's Resolution to designate the amended Conservation Area, viz 22nd February 1990.

A plan showing the boundary of the Ripon Conservation Area, as amended, may be inspected at the Town Hall, Market Place, Ripon and at the Department of Technical Services, Knapping Mount, West Grove Road, Harrogate for a period of 28 days from the date of this Notice.

K. S. Corri, Director of Technical Services

- (l) All other Notices or Advertisements, including Applications to Parliament, will be charged by the number of lines appearing in plain matter in the type of the Gazette:

If not exceeding 10 lines of printed matter: £27.60 (£24.00 + VAT).

For each additional 5 lines or under: £10.35 (£9.00 + VAT).

NOTE. Should it be necessary for a notice or advertisement to be reinserted owing to advertisers errors in the original, such reinsertion will carry a heading to the effect that it is a substituted notice or advertisement and the charge for this heading will be calculated at the rate given under (k)(iii). This does not apply if the heading appears before a notice or advertisement which has a fixed charge when the cost for such heading will be £10.35 (£9.00 + VAT).

All notices and advertisements should reach The London Gazette Office before 11.30 a.m. two days previous to publication except the Monday edition, for which notices must be received before 11.30 a.m. on the previous Thursday. Notices and advertisements received after that time will be inserted, or withdrawals or alterations effected, if circumstances permit, on payment of a late fee for each notice or advertisement at the following rates:

Up to 4 p.m. on the day previous to publication £10.35 (£9.00 + VAT).

Up to 10 a.m. on the day of publication £20.70 (£18.00 + VAT).

Neither late notices nor withdrawals can be accepted for the Wednesday Gazettes.

Notices which include column setting should reach The London Gazette Office at least one week prior to publication if possible.

The London Gazette is published every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday except Public Holidays.

A voucher copy will be posted on the day of publication on prepayment of £1.20 (inclusive of postage).

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to HMSO, The London Gazette Office, Room 413, Publications Centre, 51 Nine Elms Lane, London SW8 5DR, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 28, Water Resources Act, 1963) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of Section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
