TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS

ROYAL BOROUGH OF KINGSTON-UPON-THAMES

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDING AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990, SECTIONS 69 AND 70

The Liverpool Road Conservation Area, Kingston

Notice is hereby given that on 31st October 1990 the Council of the Royal Borough of Kingston-upon-Thames designated the area identified in the plan hereinafter mentioned and referred to in the Schedule to this notice as extensions to the existing Liverpool Road Conservation Area, pursuant to section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990.

A plan showing the boundaries of the conservation area may be inspected at the offices of the Director of Development, Guildhall II, Kingston-upon-Thames, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Mondays to Fridays.

The designation has placed the following obligations on the Council:

- (ii) to advertise any planning applications for development which would affect the character or appearance of the conservation area, and to take into account in determining such applications any representations received; and
- (iii) to formulate and publish proposals for the preservation and enhancement of the conservation area.

It has also placed restrictions on the execution of the following works within the area:

- (i) with certain exceptions, anyone proposing to demolish all or any part of an unlisted building in the conservation area has to first apply to the Council for Conservation Area Consent;
- (ii) with exceptions, anyone proposing to do work on trees in the conservation area, which are not already protected by a Tree Preservation Order, has to give the Council 6 weeks' notice of their intention before work is carried out. This does not apply to fruit trees, dead, dying or dangerous trees, nor to any tree with a diameter of less than 75 millimetres; and

- (iii) the permitted development rights for works within the curtilage of a single family dwelling are slightly different to those in other areas. The controls are more restrictive for works involving the enlargement of a house, any alteration to the roof, the erection of a building which is not attached to a dwelling, and the cladding of any part of the exterior of a building. Permitted development rights for other types of property are largely unaffected, other than more restrictive controls on the enlargement or alteration of industrial or warehouse premises and the need for permission to install a satellite dish or antenna.

Statutes in Force

A vital reference work on the law of the land

What is Statutes in Force?

Statutes in Force is the official revised edition of the statutes. It provides the text (without commentary) of the current statute law of the land, in a way which is comprehensive

constantly updated

The complete edition consists of 107 looseleaf binders which contain hole-punched crown quarto (246 x 189mm) booklets - giving a total of some 60,000 pages. The Acts are arranged, not in purely chronological order, but classified into 125 groups according to subject matter.

Statutes in Force is intended to be a permanently renewable edition of revised statutes. It is kept up to date in a number of ways:

- The issue of new Acts for insertion into their appropriate groups (they are published in complete text form usually within two months after Royal Assent)
- The issue of instructions for the removal of repealed Acts
- The publication of revised reissues of heavily-amended Acts
- Cumulative supplements for each affected group giving particulars of amendments and partial repeals (pending their eventual incorporation in revised reissues of the affected Acts).

Customers may obtain copies of any individual Act in the Statutes in Force edition. This service will be of most benefit when ordering heavily amended Acts which have been revised and re-issued or Acts which are now out-of-print in the original (Queen's Printer) version.

There's a free leaflet on Statutes in Force available from:
