London, August 1.

THIS Day, at half an Hour past Seven in the Morning, died our late most Gracious Sovereign Queen Anne, in the Fiftieth Year of Her Age, and the Thirteenth of Her Reign; a Princess of exemplary Piety and Virtue. Her Majesty complain'd on Thursday last of a Pain in Her Head: The next Day She was seized with Convulsion Fits, and for some time lost the use of Her Speech and Senses, which, tho' She afterwards recovered upon the Application of proper Remedies, She continued in a very weak and languishing Condition till She expired. Upon Her Death the Lords of the Privy-Council immediately assembled at St. James's, and gave Orders for Proclaiming the Most High and Mighty Prince George, Elector of Brunswick-Lunenbug, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, &c. His Majesty was accordingly Proclaimed with the usual Solemnity before the Gate of His Palace at St. James's, at Charing-Cross, at Temple-Bar, at the End of Woodstreet in Cheap-side, and lastly at the Royal Exchange. Great Numbers of the Nobility and Principal Gentry assisted at each Proclamation, and attended in their Coaches during the whole Solemnity.

WHereas it hath pleased Almighty God to call to His Mercy our late Sovereign Lady Queen Anne, of Blessed Memory, by whose Decease the Imperial Crowns of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, are Solely and Rightfully come to the High and Mighty Prince George Elector of Brunswick-Lunenbug: We therefore the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of the Realm, being here Assisted with those of Her late Majesties Privy-Council, with Numbers of other Principal Gentlemen of Quality, with the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of London, do now hereby, with one full Voice and Consent of Tongue and Heart, Publish and Proclaim, That the High and Mighty Prince George Elector of Brunswick-Lunenbug, is now, by the Death of our late Sovereign, of Happy Memory, become our only Lawful and Rightful Liege Lord, George, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. To whom we do Acknowledge all Faith and constant Obedience, with all hearty and humble Affection: Beseeching God, by whom Kings and Queens do Reign, to Bless the Royal King George with Long and Happy Years to Reign over us.

Given at the Palace of St. James's, the First Day of August, 1714.

God save the KING.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council.

Whereas by the late Act of Uniformity, which establishes the Liturgy, and Enacts, That no Form or Order of Common-Prayers be openly used other than what is prescribed and appointed to be used in and by the said Book, it is notwithstanding Provided, That in all those Prayers, Litanies and Collects which do any wise relate to the King, Queen or Royal Progeny, the Names be altered and changed from time to time, and fitted to the present Occasions, according to Direction of Lawful Authority, It is this Day Ordered by their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council, That the following Alterations be made, viz.

In the Morning Service, immediately after the Creed and Lord's Prayer, instead of Queen read King.

In the Prayer for the Queen's Majesty, instead of Lady Queen Anne read Lord King George.

In the Prayer for the Royal Family, instead of the Elector of Brunswick read his Royal Highness the Prince.

In the Evening Service the like to be observed.

In the Litany in the Suffrages for the Queen, instead of Anne and Queen read George and King, for her read him and his, and for she read he.

In the Suffrages for the Royal Family, instead of the Elector of Brunswick read his Royal Highness the Prince.

In the Prayer for the Parliament, instead of Queen read King, instead of her read his.

In the Communion Service in the First Collect, instead of Anne our Queen read George our King, instead of she read he, and instead of her read his and him.

In the Second Collect, instead of Anne read George, instead of Queen read King, for her read his, and for she read he.

In the Prayer for the whole State of Christ's Church, instead of Anne our Queen read George our King, instead of her read his and him.

In the Forms of Prayer to be used at Sea, instead of Lady Queen Anne read Lord King George, and for her read he.

In the Form of the Fifth of Nov mber, in the Suffrages after the Creed, instead of Queen read King, instead of her read his and him.

In the Prayer to be us'd instead of that in the time of War and Tumults, instead of Queen Anne read King George, instead of her read him and his.

In the Collect before the Epistle and Gospel, instead of Queen read King, instead of her read him and his.

In the last Prayer, instead of Lady Queen Anne read Lord King George.

In the Form for the 30th of January, in the first Collect after the Prayer for the whole State of Christ's Church, instead of Queen Anne read King George.

In the Form for the 29th of May, in the Suffrages next after the Creed, instead of Queen read King, instead of her read his and him.

In the second Collect after the Suffrages, instead of her Heads after her read his Heads after him, and for her read him.

In the last Collect, instead of Queen Anne read King George, for her read his, for Lady the Queen read Lord the King, instead of her read him and his, instead of herself read himself.

And it is further Ordered, That no Edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforward Printed but with these Amendments; and that in the mean time, till Copies of such Edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates within this Realm do, for preventing of Mistakes, with the Pen, Correct and Amend all such Prayers in the Church-Books, according to the foregoing Direction, and for the better Notice hereof, that this Order be forthwith Printed and Published, and sent to the several Parishes, and that the Right Reverend the Bishops take care that Obedience be paid to the same accordingly.

Christo. Mufgrave.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby strictly Charge and Require all the Men belonging to Her Majesty's Ships at Chatham, Portf mouth, Plymouth, and Sheerness, (as well those that are under Orders to be Paid off, as those that are not) who are Absent from them by Leave, or otherwise, immediately to repair to their Duty on Board the said Ships, as they will answer the contrary at their Peril.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, give Notice, That on Friday the 27th Instant, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Proposals in Writing seal'd up, at their Office on Tower-hill, from all such Persons as are willing to serve his Majesty's Navy with Butter, Suffolk and Cheshire Cheese for the Year ensuing, to end at Michaelmas, 1715.

Royal-Hospital near Chelsea, July 10. 1714.

By Order of the Right Hon. the Lords and others Commissioners of Her Majesty's Royal Hospital near Chelsea. Whereas their Lordships have Reason to believe, That by the very great Care that has been taken of the Out-Pensioners of the Hospital, several of them are perfectly recovered of the Wounds or other their Infirmities which they had acquired, during the Time they serv'd in the Army; and in regard they were plac'd in the Out-Pension only, till such time their Recovery could be perfected, their Lordships have thought it proper, and do hereby Order, That such of the Out-Pensioners as are absent upon Furlows, do immediately after the expiration thereof, attend Mr. Inglis, Chirurgeon of the Hospital, in order to be re-examin'd by him, touching their Pretensions to the Pension, on Tuesdays and Thursdays in every Week at the said Hospital; and such of the Out-Pensioners as are not absent upon Furlows, are to attend him on Tuesday the 10th of August Instant. The said Examinations will continue from this time till the whole Number of the said Out-Pensioners are Re-examin'd, and those who shall be found qualify'd, to continue on the Pension, will immediately receive Furlows to Travel to their respective Countries, or Places of Abode.

By their Lordships Command,
 James Duke Crispe.

The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs do hereby give publick Notice, for the better putting in Execution the following Clause in the Act of Parliament pass'd the last Session, for laying Additional Duties on Soap, Paper, Linens, &c. that the Persons concerned may apply to the Searchers, at their Office in this Port, and to the respective Collectors in the other Ports of England, who have Orders to appoint proper Officers for the Purposes there mentioned. The Clause.

And whereas great Quantities of Silks, Callicoes and Linnens that are Printed, Painted, Stained or Dyed in Great Britain, are frequently Ship'd off in order to be Exported, as is pretended, for which the Exporter doth receive a very great Drawback: And notwithstanding the Law already made to prevent the Relanding of them, yet very great Quantities are frequently landed, to the great Lessening of Her Majesty's Revenue and Prejudice or the fair Trader: To prevent which Evil Practices for the future, and to secure the Duties upon the said Goods, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the 2d of August 1714. all and every Person and Persons that shall Export any Silks, Callicoes, or Linnens that are Printed, Painted, Stained or Dyed, for which a Drawback is to be allowed such Person or Persons (before he or they shall Ship the said Goods, in order to obtain the Drawback for the same) shall be obliged to give notice to the proper Officer or Officers to be appointed for that purpose, by the respective Commissioners of the Customs, when and where he will Pack up the said Goods in order to be Exported; and the said Commissioners of the Customs are hereby impowred and directed to cause such Officer to take Care to see that such Seal or Seals, Stamps or Marks be taken off from every Piece so intended to be Exported; and the said Officer or Officers shall take an Account of the Kinds and Quantities of the Goods so intended to be Exported, and make a Return thereof to the Officer that shall be appointed by such Commissioners to receive the same, without any Fee or Reward for so doing.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That the Dividend Warrants for the half Year's Amenity due at Midsummer last, will be deliver'd out at the Company's House in Broadstreet, from the 25th of August Instant, to the 8th of September next, every Wean day, Friday and Monday, from Nine in the Forenoon till Two in the Afternoon; and for the greater Dispatch no Transfers are to be made but upon Thursdays, Saturdays and Tuesdays during that Time, and that afterwards the said Warrants will be deliver'd out when demanded, and Transfers made as usual.
