

every Minute, until Her Majesty was Interred. The Royal Corps was borne under a Canopy of Purple Velvet, preceded by a great Number of Her late Majesty's Servants, the Judges, Privy-Councillors, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Great Officers. The Pall was supported by Six Dukes. Her Grace the Dutchess of Ormond (in the absence of the Dutchess of Somerset, who was Indisposed) was chief Mourner, supported by the Dukes of Somerset and Richmond in long Cloaks, wearing their Collars of the Order, her Train borne by two Dutchesses, assisted by the King's Vice-Chamberlain, and follow'd by two other Dutchesses, at the head of Fourteen Countesses as Assistants, all in long Veils of black Crape; and after them the Ladies of the Bedchamber and the Maids of Honour in like Veils; then the Bedchamber Women, and the Gentlemen Pensioners closed the Proceeding.

At the Entrance into the Church the Dean, Prebends and Choir received the Royal Body with an Anthem, and marching before Norroy King of Arms, who carried the Crown and Cushion, they proceeded singing into King Henry the Seventh's Chapel, where being arrived the Body was deposited on Tressels, while the Service of the Church was performed by the Bishop of Rochester, Dean of Wolminster, and afterwards Inter'd in the same Vault with their late Majesties King Charles the Second, King William and Queen Mary, and his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark.

Tavern in Cornhill, London, or Mr. Backley Attorney in Totnes.

Whereas by a Decreeal Order of the High Court of Chancery, it is among other Things ordered, That Fleetwood Dormer, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, should see if any and which of the Debts of Thomas late Duke of Leeds, deceased, remain unsatisfied: If therefore there be any Creditors or Creditors of the said late Duke yet remaining unpaid, they are desired forthwith to give an Account of their Demands to the said Master, at his Office in Lincolns Inn, in order to their receiving an immediate Satisfaction for the same.

Whereas Gabriel Fournier of St. Anne Wellminster, in the County of Middlesex, Vintner and Perukemaker, did in this Term obtain a Credit and Judgment in the Court of Queen's Bench, Wellminster, against Anthony Soleiro and others, in an Action of Trespass, for seizing and taking his Goods and Merchandise, and the said Defendants made Defence and Confession of a Contrivance of Bankrupt said forth by the said Anthony Soleiro, against the said Fournier, but at the said Trial it appeared upon Evidence, that the said Fournier was not Bankrupt, and the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain did order the said Commission of Bankrupt to be Surerled at the Costs and Charges of the said Anthony Soleiro: The said Gabriel Fournier do hereby so give notice, that all Persons indebted to him, do forthwith pay any Moneys due to him to the said Anthony Soleiro, by Virtue of the Court of any Assignment under the said Commission of Bankrupt, or otherwise howsoever: and that all Persons indebted to the said Fournier, do pay to him alone forthwith, or they will be Surerled for the same.

Whereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded against Christopher Turner, of Dittos in the County of Wilts, Clothier, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners on the 13th, 20th, to finish his Examination; where his Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, pay Contribution Money, and assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate.

Whereas the acting Commissioners of a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Ezekiel Hall of London, Merchant, have certified to the Right Hon. Simon Lord Harcourt, Baron of Stanton Harcourt, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, that he hath in all things conform'd himself to the Directions of the late Acts of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts: This is to give notice, that his Certificate will be allow'd and confirm'd as the said Acts direct, unless Cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the 17th of September next.

Whereas it was Advertised in the Gazette in November last, that Barbara Braxton, late of Great Wildlysean, Payabroker, was leaving off her Trade, and all Persons who had any Effects in her Hands were required to redeem them in a Month's time, otherwise they would be disposed of: They are therefore to give Notice to all Persons who have any Goods or Effects in the Hands of the said Barbara Braxton, now living at the Three Bowls in Longacre, that they let them away within one Month after the Date hereof, or they will be disposed of, for that the said Barbara Braxton is going to live in the Country.
