SOUTH NORTHAMPTONSHIRE DISTRICT COUNCIL

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990

DESIGNATION OF CONSERVATION AREAS

In the Parishes of Abthorpe, Adstone, Blisworth, Brafield-on-the-Green, Courteenhall, Croughton, Harpole and Milton Malsor

Notice is hereby given that, the South Northamptonshire District Council, in pursuance of section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, has designated areas of land in the parishes of Abthorpe, Adstone, Blisworth, Brafield-on-the-Green, Courteenhall, Croughton, Harpole and Milton Malsor as Conservation Areas. These areas are more particularly specified in the Schedule to this notice.

Maps showing the designated areas are available for public inspection at the Planning Department, District Council Offices, Brackley Road, Towcester, Northamptonshire, between 9.30 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. on normal working days from Mondays to Fridays.

The purpose of designation is to conserve and enhance the architectural and historic character of the designated areas as a whole and to ensure that special regard is paid to the architectural and visual qualities of the area when proposals for development are under consideration. The permission of the Council will be required before work is carried out to demolish buildings and the Council will require 6 weeks notice of intention to carry out works on trees within the area. Full details of the effects of designation can be obtained from the Council.

A. M. Coles, District Secretary

District Council Offices,

Brackley Road, Towcester, Northants NN12 7AE.

SCHEDULE

Abthorpe, the Conservation Area is primarily the original core of the village around the parish church and the green on the north side of Main Road. It comprises the properties fronting The Green, Main Street, Main Road (north side only) and Church Lane.

Adstone, the Conservation Area covers the whole of the built-up part of the village with the exception of Field View Farm and the pair of adjoining cottages on Maidford Road.

Blisworth, the Conservation Area covers the older part of the village along the former A43, together with Church Lane and Stoke Road, and the area adjoining the Grand Union Canal to the south of the village as far as the tunnel portals.

Brafield-on-the-Green, the Conservation Area covers the early core of the village around the village green and pond and including properties on Church Lane.

Courteenhall, the Conservation Area covers the area immediately around the church and rectory and includes all the houses within the village except the council houses at the northern end.

Croughton, the Conservation Area covers the older, western end of the village fronting High Street together with properties fronting Church Lane and Croughton House grounds to the south of the village.

Harpole, the Conservation Area covers the original core of the village fronting on to High Street from close to its junction with Carrs Way in the south up to and including Grange Farm in the north.

Milton Malsor, the Conservation Area covers the original part of the village and includes properties fronting Towcester Road, Rectory Lane (north side), Green Street, the eastern part of High Street and the western part of Collingtree Road.

5th September 1991.

CORNWALL COUNTY COUNCIL

HIGHWAYS ACT 1980

Stopping-up of Highway: Unclassified Road Leading to Old Cattle Market, Lostwithiel

Notice is hereby given that the Cornwall County Council as Highway Authority propose to apply to the Justices sitting in the Petty Sessional Division of Bodmin at the Magistrates' Court, Launceston Road, Bodmin, at 11 a.m. on Friday, 11th October 1991, for an Order under the provisions of section 116 of the Highways Act 1980 authorising the stopping-up of a narrow strip of the unclassified road leading from Liddicoat Road to the Old Cattle Market, Lostwithiel, comprising a total area of approximately 63 square metres and running from a point on the southern side of the road approximately 18 metres to the east of its junction with Liddicoat Road, and continuing in an easterly direction for a distance of approximately 37 metres in a narrow strip varying in width between approximately 0.75 metres and 1.5 metres, and then in a south-easterly direction for a distance of approximately 34 metres in a narrow strip varying in width between approximately 0.5 metres and 1 metre, to its termination at the north-eastern corner of the property known as "The Surgery", the County Council being of the opinion that the said length of highway land is unnecessary.

A plan showing the effect of the proposed Order may be inspected free of charge at Room 219, New County Hall, Truro, and at the offices of the Restormel Borough Council, 39 Penwinnick Road, St. Austell, from 9.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. and 2.30 p.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays to Fridays inclusive (except Bank and Public Holidays).

Any person who uses the highway and any other person who would be aggrieved by the making of the Order has a right to attend the Court and be heard on the application, and anyone intending to do so should inform the undersigned indicating the nature of his representations.

G. K. Burgess, Chief Executive and Clerk

County Hall, Truro.

5th September 1991.
